(By Miss Annie Mae Holmes)

Return Home

School over, the teachers of Shalotte high school have returned to their several homes for the summer.

Social Functions

Mrs. Reginald Turner gave a delightful shower in honor of Mrs. Elerbe Sease, nee Miss Martha Stallings, Monday afternoon, May 6th. Delicious refreshments were served and those present reported a most enjoyable time.

Miss Susie Kate Swain, of the Bolivia high school faculty has returned to her home here since school closed.

Early Corn The season's first roasting ears are reported by Mr. W. R. Holmes, who had them on his table Monday. This corn was planted February 15th.

Celebrate Birthday Among Shalotte's oldest citizens two of them have just celebrated their 83rd birthdays, Mr. R. P. (Sonny) Stanley, on Saturday, May 11th, and Mr. James Holmes on Sunday, May 12th.

Miss Gladys Frye was in Charleston Tuesday shopping. Shalotte being on the main bus line it is easy to spend the day either in Charleston, Wilmington or many other towns now, returning home the same day.

Mr. Hobson Kirby, owner of the Shalotte Trading Co. spent part of last week in Richmond on business.

Mother's Day Program Reverend Mr. Fitts was in charge of a delightful Mother's Day program at the Methodist church Sunday morning. After the service he baptized several infants.

Mr. A. G. Huggins, an employee of J. H. Inman, Whiteville, was here with his family over the week-end.

Mrs. Pearl Shipper, of Wilmington, is spending a few days at the home of her brother, W. R. Holmes.

Mr. Colon Mintz, County Farm Agent of Wayne, with headquarters at Goldsboro, spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Mintz, last week.

Fishing Is Dull Fishing seems to be a little dull at present, possibly due to the continued dry weather. Several parties from Wadesboro, Charlotte, Hamlet and other up-state points have been down already trying their luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hewett, of Laurinburg, spent Sunday here with his father, Mr. J. S. (Bomny) Hewett.

Midnight Prowler Twice on Sunday night an intruder tried to force an entrance into the home of Mrs. Linnie Hewett. Her screams finally frightened the person away. No arrests have been made as yet, but officers are working on the case.

Mr. Louie Smith, plumber of Wilmington, has been installing the plumbing in the new building of Mr. R. D. White. While he was here his wife was visiting her mother, Mrs. Rosa Bowen.

AT MYRTLE BEACH Misses Eunice Holden, Edith Hewett, Edna Hewett and Messrs. Dick Shephard, Jack Taylor and Woodrow Harvell, all of Shalotte, were visitors at Myrtle Beach, S. C., Saturday.

We always like those people who are kind to dogs and horses.

MOTHER'S DAY PROGRAM

A very interesting Mother's Day program was given in the Baptist church on Sunday evening, May 12th, at 8:00 o'clock, under the direction of Mrs. Hubert A. Livingston.

After the devotional exercise, led by Miss Susie Sellers and a group of junior girls and boys, little Miss Ann McRackan made a speech of welcome to mothers. At the conclusion of this, a well rendered pageant, "The Garden of Motherhood" was presented. This pageant was very effective and touching, showing both skill and talent on the part of the characters, consisting of primaries, juniors, and intermediates. Mrs. G. D. Robinson represented mother, and was very charming, seated in an old-fashioned chair twined with red and white roses. The special solos in the pageant were excellently rendered, and were very enjoyable to the congregation.

"My Mother's Lullaby Song," Patricia Jean Hancock; "Mother's Rosebuds," Eleanor Lee Reece; "Little Mothers," Gilda Arnold; "Heavenly Father Hear Our Prayer," Vera Jorgensen, who was "Gratitude" in the pageant and sang this song as a prayer; "Lovely the Garden of Mothers," Letha Arnold; "My Best Girl," Claude Jones.

Miss Mayzel Lewis, who presided at the piano, rendered two special instrumental solos, which were extremely enjoyed, showing her excellent talent. A special offering was taken for the Baptist hospital at Winston-Salem.

The church was filled with an audience which showed keen interest and appreciation of this well rendered program.

The girls and boys of the Baptist church should be commended upon the excellent work of this character they are doing under the direction of Mrs. Livingston.—Reported.

VISITING NEPHEW

Mrs. Emma Mercer, of Wilmington, is visiting at the home of her nephew, C. Ed Taylor, in Southport.

BOLTON NEGRO FRIGHTENED WHEN SURROUNDED BY BEARS

Bolton, May 8.—"Slim" Green, colored "bull-rope" puller for the Waccamaw Lumber Corporation, while working last week in the Green Swamp near Exum, in Brunswick county, received what must have been the greatest scare of his life.

According to Jack Vereen, foreman over Green in this woods operation, Green had just finished eating a hearty dinner at the noon hour and had strolled away from the skidding machine for a few minutes' nap, and while stretched out in the sunshine he was awakened by something touching his face.

Blinking his eyes, Green recoiled like a water-rattler, because an old mother bear and two cubs had come up to see him, and one of the cubs had aroused him by licking his face. Just what Green did after recoiling under such unusual circumstances is hard, even for him to explain, because he was too frightened to remember.

DELCO SCHOOLBOY BITTEN BY PILOT

Delco, May 8.—Herbert Allen, 18-year-old schoolboy, was bitten by a rattle-snake pilot in Livingston creek one evening last week and he was taken to James Walker Hospital, in Wilmington, where he took two inoculations. Although his ankle is still swollen he was able to resume school work here this week.

"Bargains" produced at the expense of human misery are nothing short of wolves in sheep's clothing.

WACCAMAW FINALS HELD ON MAY 2ND

(Continued from page one.) at the class day exercise on Monday night. The stage represented a garden artistically decorated with fifteen different flower beds made of wire and covered with flowers. Each flower bed represented some cardinal principle in life. The valedictorian, Miss Lois Brady, sat under the weisteria vine. Little Miss Jacqueline Bennett, the Mascot, was a pretty fellow butterfly, who flew about the garden. The frog, Junior Parrish, created laughter as he croaked and jumped about the garden. A trellis was placed in the rear of the garden banked with roses. A rainbow was used about the trellis to help carry out the class color and motto, "Be thou a rainbow to the storms of life." It was one of the most beautiful stage settings ever seen in a class day program here.

The exercises began when the professional of seniors dressed in rainbow colors, led by the Marshal, preceded by the Mascot, marched down the aisle under rainbow arches held by the juniors, on to their flower bed on the stage. The program was carried out as a play, "The Senior's Nosegay."

The closing exercise of the commencement program was held on Tuesday evening, and consisted of the following: The awarding of medals and diplomas. The address by Professor L. H.

Campbell, president of Campbell College, Buies Creek, whose topic was: "Facing the world out yonder." It was instructive, inspirational and interspersed with several references to current happenings in the world. He reminded the seniors that it would take work to become successful in the world of today.

The following seniors received their diplomas: Ottis Russ, Lois Brady, Alma Grey, Lona Norris, Grace Jacobs, Lena Mae Mintz, Earl Edwards, James Little, Dayton Wright, Ponillie Formy Duval; L'Neta Duncan, Mildred Bennett, Eva Dell Russ; Grace O'Neal, Dottie Bell McKeithan, Vera Simmons, Clara Mae Milligan, Leila Simmons and Athalia Hewett.—Reported.

Restrictions Removed From Peoples United Bank Last Thursday

(Continued from page one.) Wilmington. With the reopening of the bank on an unrestricted basis twenty-five per cent of their accounts was released to depositors who had money in the bank at the time the banking holiday was declared in March, 1933. Checks for the proper amount were made out to depositors but it is understood that 80 per cent of them were re-deposited.

Mr. Yates, the new cashier, will not take over the affairs of the local bank for several days. J. G. Christian, present cashier, will probably remain at the bank for some time after Mr. Yates does come to Southport.

The Peoples United Bank is the only one in Brunswick county and the fact that it is now open on an unrestricted basis means a more convenient banking service to the people of this county.

BIBLE SCHOOL TO BEGIN MAY 27

(Continued from page 1.) furnish one superintendent to be in charge of one department. Working with her will be one person from each of the other churches. Thus every church will have a worker in each department. Pupils will have no text books. The teacher will present the work for each hour of the day in an attractive form. One of the men and several of the women will lead the pupils to do the work. The pastors of the churches and others will lead in a ship period each day. During the school the teachers and helpers will endeavor to heighten the appreciation of pupils for the country, the church, the Bible and their Lord. Parents are urged to assist in getting the pupils to the school.
