Scandals At The Carolina Theatre

George White's Latest Musical Extravaganza Is Feature Attraction At Wilmington Theatre This Week-end

Slip us a ton of dynamic adjectives! Then maybe we can do justice to the scintillant gayety, "George White's 1935 Scandals," which opens Thursday at the Carolina Theatre.

Here's the last triumphant word in screen entertainment, a splendid sunburst of comedy and music that sustains the reputation of George White as prince of showmen.

The second annual edition, sponsored by Fox Films, has everything. Here are ten top stars: Alice Faye, James Dunn, Ned Sparks, Lyda Roberti, Cliff Edwards, Arline Judge, Eleanor Powell, Emma Dunn, Benny Rubin and George White, who conceived, produced and directed the entire show.

The story, strong enough to stand alone, concerns a producer who stumbles on home-grown talent in a tank town, whisks them off to Broadway and Hollywood stardom, and when the bright lights get too strong for simple romance, whisks back home a pair of lovers.

Among the 200 beauties are 30 girls who won beauty contests. One and all were picked, groomed, and trained by White, whose reputation for selecting beauties and skyrocketing them to stardom needs no mention here.

But that's not all! For look, here are six bright liting songs, already being hummed throughout town.

"They are: "According to the Moonlight," "It's And Old Southern Custom," "Hunkadola," "Oh, I Didn't Know (You'd Get That Way)," "I Was Born Too Late," and "I Got Shoes You Got Shoesies."

EXUM NEWS

(By Miss Blanche Phelps)

Returns Home
Friends of Mrs. E. L. Russ will be glad to know that she is able to be out again. She was a patient in Brunswick County hospital for two weeks. Since her return home three weeks ago she has been improving, although she has been confined to her bed until very recently.

Mrs. Ray Ill
Mrs. D. J. Ray, who has been in poor health for some time, has been confined to her bed for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Sheffield from Whiteville spent Sunday afternoon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Russ.

Suffers Injury
Mr. J. M. Bennett had the misfortune to cut his foot Saturday and is not able to bet out.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ward and two children, Myrtle and Brice, Miss Dora Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Boswell and two children of Chadbourne were guests of Mrs. T. R. Phelps Sunday.

Foot Injured
Mr. Odell Bennett stuck the prong of a pitchfork into his foot one day last week. However, he went immediately to Dr. W. R. Goley and had the wound treated. It now seems to be healing nicely.

Good Prospects
Since the several snows that came last week local farmers seem to be in right good hopes for a prosperous year. Although they do not say so much about it, they are wearing some broad smiles as they pass through their fields.

Mr. B. L. Russ from Fayetteville spent the week-end with his family here.

Mrs. J. L. Mintz from Mt. Branch spent Sunday afternoon with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hewett from Wilmington, Mesdames M. A. Phelps and Lucy Ann Caison of Bolivia spent one day last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Phelps. Mrs. Caison was born and reared at Exum and until she recently moved to Bolivia was the oldest woman in this community.

C. L. Efird Attends Managers Meeting

Make Plans For Greatest Annual June Sale To Commence Friday, May 31st

All Efird store managers meet in Charlotte today for the express purpose of figuring out and the laying of plans for the annual Efird June Sale. It was decided to commence the Sale this year on Friday, May 31st, and continue throughout the entire month of June. It was explained that months of preparation and tons of merchandise have been bought to make this 1935 June Sale the biggest in the Efird history.

Those attending the meeting were the five Efird brothers, J. B. Efird, P. H. Efird, E. L. Efird, J. R. Efird, J. W. Efird and the following store managers: C. L. Efird, Wilmington; S. C. Byrd, Greenville; P. M. Kendall, Raleigh; W. A. Bowles, Winston-Salem; G. G. Byrd, Asheville; P.

"George White's 1935 Scandals" is super-entertainment! It sparkles with the joy of living, and delights young and old! Easily it is one of the screen events of this or any other year.

NEXT WEEK
"In Caliente," First National's latest musical, opens at the Carolina Theatre, Wilmington, Monday. Its all star cast is headed by Dolores Del Rio, Pat O'Brien, Leo Carrillo and Edward Everett Horton.

Scores of beautiful Hollywood chorus girls appear in numbers created and directed by Busby Berkeley, who staged the big hits in "Gold Diggers of 1935," "Wonder Bar," "42nd Street" and a score of other film musicals.

Phil Regan, the radio cop, sings the "Muchacha," which features Dolores in a dance review, and "I Call You My Own," a ballad. Winifred Shaw sings the "Lady in Red," and "In Caliente" is sung by a group of entertainers.

Others in the case include the famous DeMarcos, who do some specialty dancing and "The Canova Family," radio's 'Hill Billies of the South,' Dorothy Dare, Luis Alberni, George Humbert, William Davidson, Harry Holman, Soledad Jimenez, Herman Bing and Florence Fair.
