

SOCIETY

MRS. WARREN HOOD, EDITOR

Social Calendar

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 26

8:00 P. M.—The Millionaires Club will meet with Mr. Gus McNeal.

MONDAY, JULY 1

3:30 P. M.—Mrs. Taylor's Circle Number 1 will meet in the Methodist Church.
3:30 P. M.—Circle Number 1 of the Baptist Church will meet.

TUESDAY, JULY 2nd

3:30 P. M.—Circle Number 2 of the Methodist Church will meet. Mrs. I. B. Bussels is leader.
3:30 P. M.—Circle Number 2 of the Baptist Church will meet.
3:30 P. M.—The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Phillips Episcopal Church will meet with Mrs. H. W. Hood. Mrs. Frank St. George will have charge of this program.

day with Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Mintz at Shallotte.

Miss Emma Thompson, of Clinton, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thompson.

Misses Marian and Elizabeth Watson returned last Sunday from a months visit with friends and relatives in Florida.

Quite a number enjoyed a trip to the beach Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Denbo, Mrs. J. W. Jelks and son, Eddie, were Wilmington visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. A. M. Bennett and daughter, Connie, who have been living with Mrs. Joe Young, Sr., left Friday for Norfolk, Virginia.

The Hoods from Indiana left last Thursday after spending a month with Mr. and Mrs. James Hood at the Robins Nest.

Messrs. Howard Watts, Harry Aldridge and Billy Newton attended the base ball game in Wilmington last Thursday night.

Mrs. George Howey and Mrs. S. H. Morris were Wilmington visitors Friday afternoon.

Mayor John Erickson has just finished dressing up his home with a new coat of paint.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Marshall left Friday for Whiteville.

Miss Topsy Moore and Mr. Elliott Moore left Friday for Norfolk, Va., where they will visit for sometime.

Mr. Charlie Woodberry, of Leland, was in town Thursday on business.

Miss Rebecca Alexander spent Friday in Wilmington.

Miss Elizabeth Bartel has been visiting in Wilmington for the past week.

Mrs. Cleveland Swain and Mr. Thurston Clemmons, of the Ward's Farm community, were in town Friday.

Mr. Melvin Lewis was a business visitor in Bolivia Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. George Ward, of Ash, spent Thursday in town.

Mrs. E. R. Weeks, Mrs. Branch and Mrs. Jenkins spent Thursday and Friday on Caswell Beach.

Mr. D. P. McKeithan and Mr. F. E. Galloway were business visitors in town Thursday.

Mr. O. C. Johnson, principal of Bolivia school, spent Friday in town.

Mr. Jessie Lancaster, of the Boons Neck section, was a visitor here Thursday.

Mr. Harry Varnum, of Boon's Neck, ex-county commissioner, spent Friday in town.

Mr. O. A. Lewis, ex-county commissioner, of the Mill Creek section, was a Saturday visitor to town.

Mr. B. W. Benton, county commissioner, spent several days last week here.

Mr. Boyette, salesman for Upjohn Drug Company, N. Y., was here on business Thursday.

County Commissioner, Oscar Peterson, of the North West Section, was here for several days last week.

Mr. Jessie Roach, county commissioner and prominent merchant of the Boon's Neck section, spent several days in town last week.

Mr. Jesse Adkinson of Green Swamp section was in town Friday.

Mr. Rufus Phelps, state road supervisor, of Waccamaw section, was a visitor in town Friday.

Mr. Dwight McEwen, court stenographer, of Wilmington, spent last week in town attending court.

Mr. Charlie Gause entertained a number last Thursday at a fish fry in his cottage at Caswell Beach.

Mr. Charles Greer, head of FERA here, was a Whiteville visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mangum had as their guests last week, Rev. M. A. Osborne and Rev. Tip-ton, of Winston-Salem.

Mr. Kenneth McDonald and Miss Marion Ruark spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ruark.

Mrs. J. W. Ruark and Mrs. Fred Willing attended a party given for Miss Marion Ruark in Wilmington Monday night.

Sheriff J. A. Russ was in town Monday.

Mr. Robert Mautsby, of Bolivia, spent Sunday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Alexander and son spent Sunday in Myrtle Beach.

Miss Eleanor Howey and Miss Mary Ruth McQueen and friends were Myrtle Beach visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Alexander and son, Mr. Robert St. George and Capt. Tommie St. George were Wilmington visitors Saturday night.

Mrs. C. M. Pegram, of Fair Bluff, district manager for Spencer products, spent last week with Mrs. G. D. Robinson.

Mrs. Ray, of Raleigh, spent last week-end with her mother, Mrs. B. P. Finch.

Mrs. Robert W. Davis left on Monday for Richmond, Va., where she will visit her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Blackwell.

Miss Clyde Fields Swain, of Philadelphia, Penn., came home last week to spend the summer with her sisters.

Quite a large number of strange faces were seen on the beach Sunday. A great many from town were there also.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Hornsby and family, of Bolivia, were visitors in town Sunday.

Mrs. H. Croome is the visitor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stone, of Lake Waccamaw, who were recently married, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Moore.

Mr. Delmas Fulcher was home with his family the past week-end.

Miss Sally Doshier, of Wilmington, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Doshier.

Mr. Frank St. George spent last week-end with his family.

Mrs. Harden Holmes, wife of City Manager of Salisbury, and Mrs. C. T. Bernhardt came Tuesday to spend sometime. They are staying at the Grimes House.

Miss Marian Robinson accompanied Miss Nancy Coughenour to Salisbury for a few days last week.

Laymen In Charge Of Church Services

In the absence of Methodist pastors on Sunday, June 16, laymen were called upon by district lay leader W. A. McGirt to fill the church pulpits on that day.

Capt. J. B. Church was at the Shallotte village church for the morning service. Mr. Purvis filled the pulpit at the Concord church at Supply in the morning and at Dixon's Chapel in the evening.

C. Ed Taylor had charge of three services. He was at Andrews Chapel in the morning, at Sharon in the afternoon and at Shallotte camp for the evening service. R. W. Davis was in charge of services at the Trinity Methodist church in Southport at both morning and evening services.

The laymen all reported successful meetings and members of their congregations declared that they had received real benefit from these sermons by church men who were filling in for their pastor.

The Rev. C. A. Jones returned Saturday from Durham, where he attended the two weeks summer school course for Methodist ministers, and filled his regular appointments here Sunday.

Alva Grey Burris, visiting in Southport with his mother, parked his car in the down town district one night recently while he went to the moving picture show. When he returned to his machine after the show, he discovered the back seat on fire. It was reported that a young man and young woman had been sitting in the car and it is thought that a match or cigarette which they dropped might have started the blaze.

ATTENDED COURT

Harry Robinson, who was recently appointed rural policeman for Brunswick county, was in Southport every day last week attending the June term of Superior Court.

BONE FELLOW

Friends of Mrs. R. E. Sentelle will regret to learn that she is suffering from a bone fellow which for a time threatened to develop into a case of blood poison. Mrs. Sentelle is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. G. Smith, in Chattanooga, Tenn.

AT THE BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. MacMillan and Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Turner spent the past week at Carolina Beach.

A REAL DESIGNER

Miss Nancy Hood received a letter last week from an official of the Woodbury College, a school for fashion designing, Hollywood, California, congratulating her upon sketches which she has submitted. The letter stated that Miss Hood shows real talent and declared that all she needs to assure her success is continued interest and practice.

Stokes County farmers are beginning a new project for raising mule colts to replace old workstock.

Beaufort County Irish potato growers report yields of 45 to 50 barrels an acre as compared 75 barrels per acre in 1934.

Yields of red clover hay are unusually heavy in Chatham County this season. All winter hay mixtures yielded well.

The cotton stand in Hertford County is reported by growers to be around 50 percent. A number of farmers replanted as late as June 1 for the third time.

Twenty thousand compliance sheets have been prepared for Pitt County supervisors. Compliance work started this week.

NOTICE OF SALE

In conformity with an order of the Superior Court of Brunswick County I will offer for sale to the Highest Bidder for cash at the court house door in the City of Southport, North Carolina, on Saturday, the 27th day of July, 1935, at 12 o'clock noon, the Fish Factory Building, with all machinery and equipment therein, and the land upon which the said plant is located, consisting of 285 acres, more or less located in Smithville Township, Brunswick County, the boundaries and description of the said land will be given at the said sale. The sale will be made subject to confirmation of the Court and further subject to tax liens. The successful bidder will be required to deposit 10 percent of the amount of his bid pending confirmation of the sale. Dated and posted, this 25th day of June, 1935. CHARLES E. GAUSE, Receiver SOUTHPORT FISH SCRAP AND OIL COMPANY. Robert W. Davis, Attorney for the Receiver. 7-270

4th JULY 4th

BEACH WEAR

Bathing Suits and Accessories For the Entire Family AT LOWEST PRICES Ranging from 24c to $3.95

SHOP EARLY WHITE SHOES REDUCED Make Your Selection Early

TOBACCO TWINE $1.39 to $1.69 —Tax included

Collins Dept. Store

Whiteville's Newest and Largest Dept. Store

"More Dollars For Your Tobacco When You Sell it in Whiteville."

4th JULY 4th

To My Friends Of BRUNSWICK COUNTY

It gives me pleasure to announce I will be associated with NELSON'S WAREHOUSE, WHITEVILLE, N. C., for the coming season.

It has been my privilege to serve you at Tabor, N. C., for a number of years and I appreciate very much the many favors and courtesies shown me while there. As you know Whiteville stands at the top as one of the best markets in the South, this with my many years experience places me in position to render you better service than ever before.

When you are ready to market your tobacco come to see me, at NELSON'S WAREHOUSE, WHITEVILLE, N. C., where you will find me at all times, ready to serve you and see that you get the top market price for every pile of tobacco entrusted to me.

Again thanking you for past favors and hoping to have the pleasure of seeing you soon. I remain,

YOUR FRIEND,

D. H. CONNER

SUMMER

With the approach of hot weather our thoughts turn to vacations, week-end trips, house parties, etc. Here are a few necessities which we suggest that you take along with you:—

- Lotion and Cream
- Sun Hats
- Sun Glasses
- Bathing Caps
- Antiseptic Solutions
- Astringents
- Eye Lotions
- Tooth Paste or Powder
- Paper Plates, Etc.
- Flash Lights
- Insect Killers
- Combs

Watson's Pharmacy

Southport, N. C.

Here They Are Folks

- SKIPPER FLOUR, 24 lb. sack80c
- HARTNESS CHOICE FLOUR, 24 lb. sack 90c
- 3 lb. Can Coffee with cup and saucer75c
- 1 lb. Can LUZIANNE COFFEE25c
- SALMONS, per can10c
- COFFEE, per lb.10c
- LAUNDRY or TOILET SOAP, 5 bars10c
- FAT BACK MEAT, per lb.15c
- FLAKE WHITE LARD 48 lb. can$6.25

GIVE US A CALL. OUR PRICES ARE LOWER THAN THE AVERAGE

Garrell Brothers

Wholesale and Retail WHITEVILLE, N. C. J. F. GARRELL, Mgr.

HOUSE PARTY

Miss Marian St. George took a number of young girls to Caswell Beach last week on a house party. They stayed in Mrs. Robert Jones' cottage. The girls were: Misses Louise Niernse, Marjorie O'Daniel, Dorothy Jones, Lucy Anderson, Helen Dean Sutton, Mary Catherine Northrop and Clyde Fields Swain.

MILLIONAIRES CLUB MEETS

Mr. Robert Jones was host to the Millionaires club last Wednesday night. Two tables of bridge progressed. Mr. H. M. Shannon and Mrs. Robert Jones were high scorers. Chocolate cake, sandwiches and a drink were served.

BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Roy Daniel was hostess to her club Thursday afternoon. After bridge, sandwiches and drinks were served. Those playing were: Mrs. William Doshier, Mrs. Howard Sellers, Mrs. Gus McNeil and Mrs. Daniel.

ICE CREAM PARTY

The following made ice cream at Mr. Morris Cranmer's last Tuesday: Misses Nancy Coughenour, Thelma and Norma Johnson, Evelyn Loughlin, Marina Robinson and Annie Moore Harker, Messrs. Ormand Leggett, James and Otto Frazier and Neil Jergensen.

SOUTHPORT VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Plaxco and children were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plaxco last week. Mr. Plaxco is a school man and has built a beautiful school in the Western part of the State. The Plaxcos enjoyed fishing and boating while here.

CARRS HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carr and children, of Charlotte, visited Mr. Carr's mother, Mrs. Tom Carr, last week. The family enjoyed the cool breeze and the beach after suffering through the hot weather up state during the past few weeks.

VISIT MYRTLE BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. James Carr and daughter, Peggie, spent last week at Myrtle Beach visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Goldwinch.

COLUMBIA VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cranmer and family and Mr. Joe Young Christian left last Friday for Columbia, S. C., to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Arrington. Miss Jeannette Cranmer returned with them.

RETURN HOME

Capt. and Mrs. I. B. Bussels and daughter, Lois Jane, who have been visiting in New York, returned home Friday night. Capt. Bussels' niece accompanied them home.

BRICK STEPS

The nice concrete and brick steps were a valuable addition to the Methodist Church.

ABLE TO BE OUT

Former Mayor Price Furlless is able to be out again after being ill at his home here for several days.

DISCONTINUE MEETINGS

Members of the local chapter of the Eastern Star have discontinued their regular meetings during the summer months.

RALEIGH VISITOR

Mr. Joe Loughlin and Mr. Warren Hood were business visitors in Raleigh Monday and Tuesday of last week in behalf of city projects.

RETURNS HOME

Mr. Ed Denbo left Saturday for his home in Indiana. Mrs. Denbo and daughter will be here until August.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Toralph Tobiasson and little son visited Mr. and Mrs. K. Tobiasson last week.

Mr. B. M. Hornsby of Bolivia has just finished repairing and painting his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wells have moved in Moore's cottage on Atlantic Avenue.

Mr. Taft Lewis of Ward's farm was a business visitor in town Friday.

Mr. John McRoy, of Bolivia, was a business visitor in town Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Mintz and Mrs. Alice Pierce spent last Sun-

ANNOUNCEMENT

and Mrs. Joseph Watters announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, to Mr. Kenneth McDonon. The wedding will take place on July Fourth, at Southport, North Carolina, Trinity Methodist Church, at four o'clock in the afternoon. Special invitations will be sent, but friends are invited to attend.

MISS RUARK HONORED

Miss Marian Ruark of Southport and Wilmington whose marriage to Kenneth McDonald will take place in Southport early in July, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Hall entertained Friday evening at their home, Chestnut street.

The spacious rooms of the low floor were attractive with a profusion of summer flowers and a lovely setting for the evening. At eleven o'clock prospective bride and groom were surprised with a miscellaneous shower of gifts which included many useful and hand-presents.

The guests, numbering about 100, were the friends of the honorees of Wilmington and Southport, then invited into the dining room where a delightful buffet dinner was served.

Southport guests at the party included: Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ruark, Mr. and Mrs. Robert St. George and Mrs. C. G. Ruark.

BOLIVIA VISITORS

The Southport people were glad to see so many visitors from Bolivia last Thursday and Friday. They were: Mrs. John Hand, Mrs. Edna Cox, Eleanor Hand, Mrs. Potter, Mr. S. A. Potter, Mrs. E. G. Danford, Mr. Danford, Mr. Jess Adkinson, Mr. D. P. McKeithan, Mr. McKeithan, Mr. Robert McKeithan, Mrs. R. E. Mercer, Mrs. Annie Robinson, Mrs. E. W. Williams, Mrs. J. McCoy, Mr. L. H. Galloway, Mr. L. G. McKeithan, Mr. Leon Galloway, C. P. Williams, J. D. Danford, J. G. Hick-

BRIDGE PARTY

Mrs. Charlie Rankin was charming hostess Monday evening at her home on Carolina Heights, Wilmington, honoring Miss Marian Ruark of Southport and Wilmington.

The rooms where guests were received were decorated with a profusion of mixed flowers. Bridge was played at three tables. Mrs. Fred Willing of Southport combed high score and received a stork service dish. Mrs. Homer Turner cut the consolation prize and received stork service nut dishes. The honoree received a beautiful shoulder corsage and a canwick spread.

Delicious refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served.

Southport guests were: Mrs. Fred Willing and Mrs. J. W. Ruark.

PINOCHLE CLUB MEETS

Mrs. L. T. Yaskell entertained the Pinochle Club last Monday afternoon at her home on South Shore Street.

Mrs. J. G. Christian was high scorer and received a beautiful stork service picture. Mrs. Ed Denbo was the guest of honor.

Other guests at the hotel were: Mr. J. W. Pegues, Jr., of Laurinburg, lawyer L. G. Britt, of Lumberton, Mr. C. Brown, of Lumberton, J. P. Brown, of Fairmont, W. J. Blanton, of Atlanta, C. F. Tapp and A. B. Tapp, of Raeford and W. W. Thompson of Laurinburg.

GRIMES HOUSE GUESTS

The guests of the Grimes house for the past week were: Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Powell and family, of Raleigh, Bill Pickett, of Raleigh, Mr. McKeithan, of Fayetteville, M. J. White, of Chicago, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Coughenour and family, of Salisbury.

MRS. WINSLOW ILL

Mrs. Park Winslow, of New York, underwent an operation for appendicitis last Monday night. She is reported to be getting along nicely.

Mrs. Winslow is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rob Morse. Mrs. Morse will leave for New York this week to spend a month.