Dutstanding News

(Continued from page one) Thursday. Ward, crazed with dope of some sort, ran amuck last week to decapitate George Stokes, white farmer, and to attempt two other killings. The Franklin county mob apparently acted with no special secrecy, since they neglected to bother about masks or to wait until after dark. Nevertheless, investigation had born no fruit Thursday morning.

GONE SALEM?

It happened in Cleveland, Ohio, not in Salem, where "witches" burned by hundreds in the old days. And it happened on the second day of August, in the enlightened year 1935, when Ameri- home, Bear land Bennett, Mrs. G. A., 100 acres ca boasts of her high degree of civilization. Because she believed Bennett, G. F., 30 acres home. Bennett, H. C., 52 acres Bay that her next-door neighbor, Mrs. Ida Cooper, 62, had bewitched her for years, Mrs. Matilda Waldman, 40, shot and killed her in her grocery store. The shooting was precipitated by Mrs. Cooper's astonished refusal to sign an agreement guaranteeing to her grocery store. The shooting cease her malicious activities, which were apparently a great surprise to her, and which failed to save her life.

NEWSMEN IN DANGER

A "crusade" against foreign newspapermen by the Nazi government of Germany engaged the attention of several powers Saturday. Diplomats conferred with their home offices, and correspondents' personal safety restpondents' personal safety rested on none too stable grounds.
Attacks by the Nazi press tend to discredit the outsiders who are to discredit the outsiders who are to discredit the formula to the formula broadcasting too freely the truth about the present administration. Propaganda is being distributed among tourists, but the harrying of both Catholics and Jews continued.

MIDGET BREAKS

Henry Fernekes, small gunman who had to his credit at least five murders and a number of bank robberies, made his escape from the Illinois state penitentary at Joliet Saturday. His escape was discovered during the evening check-up, when he was missing from his cell. He was believed to have obtained civilian clothes from some source and to have passed out in the guise of a visitor.
