Dr. W. R. Goley Died In Brunswick County Hospital Last Night

Beloved Shallotte
Physician Apparently Brought On By Heart
Condition; Was Patient
In Hospital With Throat Infection

ONE OF COUNTY'S
LEADING CITIZENS

Death Came As Stunning Shock To Citizens Of Shallotte And Surrounding Country; Worked All Day Monday

Dr. W. R. Goley, beloved physician of Shallotte, died shortly after 8 o'clock Tuesday night, death apparently resulting from heart attack. He was 59 years of age.

He had been all day Monday with a throat. Dr. Goley waited his patients until late in the afternoon. Then he went to the hospital and stayed there until Tuesday afternoon, when he came to the hospital to the Brunswick county hospital. Examination revealed that he was suffering from a throat infection and Dr. S. E.
Kermon, of Wilmington, was consulted by Doctors Arthur and W. S.
Kermon for consultation. The end came at 8:10 o'clock.

News of the death of Dr. Goley spread rapidly through the county and within a short time hundreds called at the hospital at the home in Shallotte to confirm the report that their doctor had been claimed by the angel whose efforts he had started on countless occasions.
The body was removed to Wilmington last night to be prepar-

Talks Feature Armistice Day

Brunswick County Post No.
194, American Legion, Sent Speakers To Each
Of Five Consolidated
High Schools

Patriotic chapel programs were conducted Monday morning in each of the five consolidated high schools of Brunswick county as speakers from the Brunswick County Post Number 194, American Legion, spoke on some phase of national defense.

R. W. Davis was the speaker at the Southport chapel exercises; M. B. Watkins was the Bolivia speaker; F. M. Sasser spoke to the children at Shallotte; R.
E. Sentelle was the speaker at Leland; and G. V. Fesperman visited the Waccamaw school.

Patriotic songs and other appropriate contributions to the programs were made by students of the various schools.

At Southport an Armistice day dance at the CCC camp featured the day's celebration. The recreation hall was bedecked with flags and shaded colored lights provided a beautiful background for the dancers. Music was by Jack Paul and his popular orchestra.

Immediately preceding the grand march a minute of silence was observed, honoring the men who lost their lives in the World War.

Zach Williams Is Transferred

Popular Educational Advisor Of Local CCC Camp Transferred To Colored
Camp Near Fort Bragg; Replaced By Lieutenant
King

Zach M. Williams, popular educational advisor at the local CCC camp, has been transferred to Company 429 CCC near Fort Bragg. These orders were received Thursday and Mr. Williams left almost immediately for his new post.

While stationed at the camp in Southport Mr. Williams made a record that stamps him as one of the most efficient educational advisors in CCC work in this corps area. He was popular with the men in the camp and was the host of the camp and guide for visitors.

He has been replaced by Lieutenant Carlisle King, of Hartsville, S. C., who resigned his position as junior officer in charge of the camp at Manteo to come to Southport. He served a previous period as junior officer at the camp in Barnardville.

BIG TIDES AGAIN

The marsh hen hunters have taken to the river and creeks like ducks during the present high tides and good big bags have been reported.

GOOD SIGN-UP

Already there is a 98 per cent sign-up for the new tobacco contracts, according to information released from the office of County Agent J. E. Dodson.

Cutting Scrape Settled Before County Judge

Two Sampson County Men
Involved In Assault Upon Earl Hancock Two Months Ago Tried Wednes-

HOWARD ENTERED
PLEA OF GUILTY

Required To Pay $100 To
The Court For Benefit Of Prosecuting Witness; Case Against Kenneth Jones
Non-Suited

The final chapter of the cutting scrape in which Earl Hancock was seriously injured early in September was written into the Recorder's court record Wednesday in a compromise agreement.

J. G. Howard and Kenneth Jones, young Sampson county white men, were the defendants in the case. Howard entered a plea of guilty of making an assault with a deadly weapon. By consent of the prosecuting witness, Earl Hancock, and his at-

Frink Case Was Settled Tuesday

Warrant Against Local Attorney Amended From "Insulting Lady" To
"Disorderly Conduct";
Assailant Found Guilty

Charges growing out of an af-ray which occurred last Friday night in the Wilmington fair grounds at the Coastal Fair were settled Tuesday morning in Recorder's Court in Wilmington when S. B. Frink, prominent Southport attorney, was convicted on an amended warrant for disorderly conduct and Frank H.
Lichtner, side-show operator who was alleged to have knocked Mr.
Frink down twice during an argument, was found guilty of simple assault.

The costs of the case were taxed against the Southport man, while Lichtner was required to pay a fine of $15 and the costs in his case.

The trial, which lasted for more than two hours, was before Judge Alton A. Lennon. R. W.
Davis, of Southport, and R. M.
Kermon, of Wilmington, were attorneys for Mr. Frink, while Lichtner was represented by Henry Averill, of Wilmington.

Champion

Charles L. Greer, WPA assignment officer for Brunswick county, is seen exhibiting a 45-pound drum which he recently landed in the river channel about 100 yards from the pilot tower in Southport.

W. R. Hinson Died Friday Eve

Deceased Was Widely Known Throughout This County; Death Followed
Illness Of Short Duration

W. R. Hinson, prominent citizen of Brunswick county, died Friday night following a short illness. He was 56 years of age.

The deceased was one of the most widely known citizens of the county. For years he served as an employee of the W. B. & S. railroad. In recent years he has been the proprietor of the Riverside Filling Station on the Wilmington highway near the Brunswick River bridge.

Mr. Hinson is survived by his widow; three sons, E. D. Hinson, of Leland; W. R. Hinson, Jr., and F. D. Hinson, of Garland; a daughter, Mrs. S. C. Reynolds, of Leland; and one granddaughter.

Funeral services for the deceased were conducted Sunday afternoon from the Zion Methodist church, in Town Creek, with the Rev. Mr. Traynham in charge of the final rites. The body was laid to rest in the church cemetery.

Active pallbearers were: R. W.
Davis, Murry Sanders, J. B. Mc-Coy and U. L. Rourk. Honorary pallbearers were: Victor Garner, Henry Zibelin, J. E. Stewart and E. L. Kranka.

The Southport Woman's Club will present the "Dixie Blackbird Minstrels" Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock in the Southport high school auditorium.

The production is under the direction of Miss Lealey Bartlett and the pianist is Miss Mary Lee Norment.

The following Southport boys and girls are members of the play cast: Waters Thompson, Egan Hubbard, David Watson, Jimmie Wolf, John Shannon, Dan Early Wells, Claude Jones, Jack Hickman, Joe Ruark, Ruby Ledford, Helen Ruark, Shine Hinson, Carlton Holden, Delta Walton, Lois Jane Bussels, Anna Taylor, Lionie McDowell, D. I. Watson and several others who take part in a juvenile minstrel show.

Camp Educational Advisors Here

Five men have been in training for the past few days at the local CCC camp under the direction of Zach M. Williams, former educational advisor, for similar positions in other CCC camps.

These men were: H. B. Gaylord, Jamesville; L. H. Fogleman, Greensboro; Richard O. Hunsak-er, Memphis, Tenn.; Loraine B.
Singleton, Candor; C. L. Haney, Marion.

Bolivia Teacher Suicide Victim

E. T. Bright, Jr., Died In Brunswick County Hospital Friday Night From Effects Of Self-Administered Dose Of Poison

E. T. Bright, Jr., vocational agriculture teacher at Bolivia high school, died in the Brunswick county hospital late Friday night from the effects of a self-administered dose of poison. This was his second attempt within three weeks to take his own life.

Poor health and worry over financial difficulties were offered as possible explanations for his rash act. At the time of his death his baby was dangerously ill in a Wilmington hospital.

On Tuesday afternoon Mr.
Bright attended the Coastal Fair in Wilmington, but members of the party with him say that he acted strangely. Wednesday morning he went to the school building but later returned to his home. When he was not present for the chapel exercises Principal O. C. Johnson went to his home to discover the cause of his absence.

When he reached the Bright home, Mr. Johnson found the doors locked. Looking through a window of the house he saw the teacher sitting on the edge of his baby's bed. Nearby was a Bible which he apparently had been reading.

When entrance had been made into the house, Mr. Bright acknowledged drinking a quantity of lysol. He was rushed to the Brunswick county hospital at Southport where everything possible was done to counteract the effects of the dose. He remained conscious during the greater part of the time until his death.

His father arrived in Southport a few hours before Mr. Bright died. The body was prepared for burial by the M. A. Northrop Undertaking establishment and was shipped to his home in Sylacauga, Ala.

The deceased was a graduate of Auburn University and was a good teacher. In addition to his parents he is survived by his wife and one child.

Following the death of Mr.
Bright, J. O. Overcash assumed his duties as high school instructor and Miss Mary McLean, of Laurinburg, graduate of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, has been secured to fill the vacancy resulted in the grammar school faculty.

Flames Destroy Harrelson Home

Home Of Ex-Sheriff I. D.
Harrelson Burned To The Ground Thursday Night;
Only Small Part Of Furniture Saved

The home of ex-Sheriff I. D.
Harrelson in the Funston community was destroyed by fire of unknown origin last Thursday night. The blaze was discovered between 1:00 and 2:00 o'clock almost simultaneously by one of ex-Sheriff Harrelson's daughters and Captain G. C. Arp, one of his neighbors.

Members of the family managed to escape the burning with a few personal belongings but only a small part of the household furniture was saved.

It is understood that the loss of the house was partially covered by insurance, but there was no insurance on the furniture.

The Harrelson's are making their temporary home in a house on the Clyde Beck place.

Narrowly Escapes Serious Injury

A loose board on the cat-walk of the railroad dock flew up and struck W. B. Keziah, local newspaperman, as he stepped on it Sunday afternoon and he plunged head-first into the Cape Fear River.

Rendered unconscious by the terrific blow, the shock of the cold water restored his senses and he swam to safety.

The entire left side of Mr.
Keziah's face was bruised and swollen following the accident and a perfect specimen of a black eye was the basis of his claim of being the best decorated man in Southport for Armistice day.

Red Cross Roll Call Extends To Thanksgiving

C. L. Stevens Is Membership Organizer For Brunswick County And Already Is Active In Securing Members

J. BERG IS THE
COUNTY CHAIRMAN

Mr. Stevens Plans To Reach
Citizens Of The County
Through The School Children; Gwendolyn
St. George His Helper

The annual Red Cross Roll Call began on Armistice day and an active campaign will be waged for new members in Brunswick county until Thanksgiving day.

C. L. Stevens, local insurance man, is in charge of the membership drive for this county for the fifth successive year. J. Berg is county Red Cross chairman.

In announcing plans for the membership drive, Mr. Stevens says that the campaign will be conducted through the schools of the county. He plans to visit each of the schools this week to formally launch the drive for new paid members.

In urging citizens of this county to become members of this worthwhile organization, Mr.
Stevens points to the fine record of service rendered by the Red Cross. In spite of the fact that the membership fee amounts to only $1.00 per year, the nationwide support of this organization allows these contributions to pile up into funds which make it possible for Red Cross service to always be ready in time of need.

Miss Gwendolyn St. George is soliciting memberships in Southport.

Local Man Hears From Peruvians

W. B. Keziah Received Postal Card Last Week From Commander Thornberry
Of The Peruvian Ship
Loretta, Which Visited
Southport

The presence here of the two Peruvian gunboats, the Amazon-as and the Loretta, for 10 days during the summer of 1934 created considerable local and statewide interest. Last week W. B.
Keziah received a post card from Commander William D. Thornberry of the Loretta announcing the safe arrival of the ship and crew in her home port.

The card had been mailed in Peru on October 18, 1934, more than one year before it reached its destination. Other communications from the boats had been received from time to time as they touched at points on their southward journey to Peru.

During their stay in the Southport harbor the two visiting boats were jokingly dubbed the Peruvian Navy and the officers and crews in charge proved to be very interesting visitors.

Little Bits Of Big News

News Events Of State,
Nation and World-Wide Interest During Past Week

Mission Field

Declaring that China is the greatest field in the world for the hearing of the gospel, Dr.
Charles E. Maddrey, secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, made a powerful mission address Tuesday night before a throng of delegates who had gathered in Asheville for the first evening of the 105th session of the Southern Baptist convention.

Armistice Plea

A President leading America's Armistice observance at the sun-drenched tomb of the Unknown Soldier struck sharply Monday at trade restrictions as a cause of discord among nations. To thousands gathered with him on the hallowed heights of Arlington, Mr. Roosevelt stressed "the power of a good example" as the "strongest force in the world," and announced that the United States and Canada further had cemented a century of friendship with an agreement to lift "unreasonable" trade barriers.

College Spirit

About a dozen automobiles and a truck filled with young men who, police say, were Duke University students, visited the University of North Carolina campus about 4:00 o'clock Monday morning and proceeded to tear up goal posts and paint up things, including the Confederate standard on the campus. No arrests were made and no names were ascertained, although the New York license number of one of the cars was secured.
The police admitted, however, they could not be positive that the boys were Duke students.
The prankish invasion was undoubtedly inspired by enthusiasm over the forthcoming Carolina-Duke game.
