Aged Resident Of Southport Died Monday Morning At Home In Southport; Funeral Services Tuesday Morning

Funeral services for Mrs. W. H. Vest were conducted Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Southport Baptist church with the Rev. T. H. Biles in charge. Interment was made in the Southport cemetery.

Active pallbearers were: J. E. Coleman, W. H. Walker, Howard Watts, C. E. Taylor, R. T. Woodside and Tom Holden.

Mrs. Vest had been married twice, but at the time of her death she was a widow. She is survived by one son, A. G. Trunnell, of Charleston, S. C., and two daughters, Mrs. W. T. Fulwood and Mrs. Russell St. George, both of Southport.

Raleigh Visitors Have Good Fishing

Representative Clarence E. Mitchell, of Wake county, Mrs. Mitchell and their young son, Clarence, Jr., together with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Uzzell, of Raleigh, were Southport visitors on Monday.

The party went outside on a fishing trip and landed 230 lbs. of fish in an hour and forty-five minutes before their bait gave out. Their catch included 85 nice trout.

Members of the party were delighted with the fine fishing here and Mr. Mitchell was particularly impressed with the fine possibilities for a port development at Southport. He told a local citizen that he thought it was a shame that so many citizens of North Carolina were ignorant of the natural port facilities here.

Set Record

A gentle landing by the world's largest balloon in a field near White Lake, S. D., late Monday successfully ended man's most sensational venture into the heights of the stratosphere—to an unofficially recorded altitude of 14 miles. Two American Army fliers, Captains Albert W. Stevens and Orvil A. Anderson—if later calibrations sustain their barometer computations of 74,000 feet as the zenith of their soaring—returned to America the world's altitude record and brought back from the high unknown valuable additions to science's knowledge of the super-atmosphere.

Mercy Slayer

A campaign to establish "the right of persons suffering from incurable disease to die" was announced Thursday after an English doctor was reported to have admitted five "mercy slayings." A "kindly faced elderly family doctor," said the Daily Mail, told it in a "confession." "I've taken life on five different occasions. My conscience never pricked me. I still carry with me memories of those cases and the happy faces before they died."

Gangsters

Two men booked as T. N. Norris and Marshall Wichard were held for investigation in Wilson Thursday after officers, acting on a tip from nearby Farmville that they were heavily armed, found their automobile to contain a small arsenal. Norris was said to be from Oklahoma, and Wichard from California, but officers declared they had no further information about them. Their automobile bore California license plate No. S4X-6494.

Masons

President Roosevelt Thursday night participated in the ancient ritual of the free masons and assisted in raising his sons, James and Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., to "the sublime degree of master mason," the highest in the "blue lodge." It was the first time in the history of the order that a chief executive of the United States has taken actual part in inducting his sons into the fraternity. In 1833, when he was president-elect, he assisted in raising his son, Elliott.

War Clouds

Nearly 2,000 Japanese marines marched into a demilitarized section of Shanghai Sunday after the assassination of one of their comrades and a "showdown" in critical Sino-Japanese relations appeared at hand. Bayonets fixed, a battalion was mobilized from three Japanese warships in the harbor and hurriedly sent into the native quarter where the slaying took place.

Report 2 Cases Of Diphtheria

Mrs. Lou H. Smith, County Nurse, Urges Mothers To Help Prevent Spread By Having Their Children Vaccinated

Two cases of diphtheria in Brunswick county have been reported to Mrs. Lou H. Smith, county nurse, who urges mothers who have not already done so to have their children vaccinated at once against this dreaded disease.

A white child in the Mill Creek section has been critically ill for the past few days with diphtheria, according to the report received by Mrs. Smith. A colored child in North West township also has been suffering from this disease.

Toxoid which will immunize a child for life against diphtheria may be obtained from the family doctor or from the county nurse. Vaccinations given by Mrs. Smith before January 1 will be free of charge.

Children between the ages of 6 months and 6 years are the ones most susceptible to diphtheria. "If every mother would see to it that her child was vaccinated before he was 6 months old," said Mrs. Smith, "diphtheria could be entirely stamped out as a menace to child health."

1902 from Virginia Medical College, Richmond, Dr. Goley practiced medicine in Brunswick county for 31 years. The deceased was a Mason, a Woodman and a Junior. He was a trustee of the Shallotte Camp Methodist church and one of its most generous supporters.

FRINK CASE WAS SETTLED TUESDAY

(Continued From Page 1) A mass of conflicting testimony was offered at the trial. Lichtner, his wife and several employees of the Coastal Fair and mid-way attractions declared that Mr. Frink approached the ticket box where Mrs. Lichtner was selling tickets and attempted to snatch some tickets from her. She testified that she heard him curse and that her husband asked him repeatedly to go away. When he refused, she said, her husband knocked him down and called for police. When Mr. Frink got to his feet, she testified that her husband knocked him down again.

Several persons connected with the fair testified that Frink appeared to be drinking, but was not drunk. Mr. Frink testified that he went to the fair with his son, Malcom, County Attorney J. W. Ruark and Ormand Leggett. After reaching the fairgrounds they were joined by U. L. Rourk, of Leland, H. D. Epting, principal of the Leland high school, Harvey White, a member of the Leland school faculty, Romie Lewis and Ernest Stalaland, state highway employees. These men were with Mr. Frink for at least two hours before the trial. Mr. Frink testified that he drank with Lichtner and all the other men. He said that he drank and had no trouble any kind with Mrs. Lichtner. They said that the woman's band came upon Mr. Frink and struck him without saying a word, and for no apparent reason. In the original warrant out for Mr. Frink by the man he was charged with slaying a lady. The warrant was amended to a charge of disorderly conduct.
