

Shallotte Glee Club Successful

This Organization Has Made Good Record This Year In Spite Of Interruptions And Has Taken Part In Commencement Programs

Although the glee club, this year, has suffered from many interruptions caused by the unfavorable weather conditions, it has an enrollment almost double that of last year. They are presenting many numbers during commencement. Since membership in this club is entirely voluntary, the glee club directors have been very pleased to see such a large number of boys and girls take advantage of the training offered in this extra-curricular activity.

The club appreciates the splendid cooperation given them by Mrs. Mabel Rourk Andrews, who has served as pianist. Marion H. Gatlin, science teacher, also a former member of the N. C. State College Glee Club, has worked with the boys, while the girls have been carefully directed by Mrs. Ruth Vick Warren.

The following are members: Christine Hewett, Sherman Register, Della Gae Robinson, Dewey Sellers, Gladys Mintz, Edith Jenette, Stella Mae Hardee, Lucille Fulwood, Johnnie Mae Russ, Odell Stanley, Roney W. Cheers, Lois Brown Russ, Stanley Smith, Annie Elizabeth McKeithan, Agnes Mintz, Eva Mae Brown, Agnes Russ, Arnette Stanland, Mary Leonard, Ruby Lewis, Lillie Hickman, Thurston Mintz, Hubert Leonard, Leola Lewis, Ruby Hewette, Mary Lae Hickman, Vera Belle Long, Gladys Clemmons, Ersell Lewis, Polly Thompson, Riley Sellers, Virginia Bishop, Hurston Hickman, Kathleen High, Bera Elizabeth Arnold, Norma Milliken, Dorothy Holden, Lucille Sellers, Ethel Bert Bennette, Emma Neil Hardee, Clara Bellamy, Edward Williamson, Jennings Hickman, Talmadge Sellers, Erma Earle Edwards, Madeline Carter, Pershing Tripp, also Mrs. Katherine R. White, Miss Susie Kate Swain and Miss Esther Riddle, who are members of the faculty.

Opportunity For Marine Enlistment Offered To 28 Young Men In Savannah District During Month Of May

Opportunity for employment, travel and training has been extended to twenty-eight more young men with the announcement this week of May enlistment quota for the Savannah district recruiting station of the United States Marine Corps by Major Ralph E. Davis, officer in charge.

Young men between 18 and 25 years of age, ranging in height from 5 feet 6 inches to 6 feet 2 inches with corresponding weights, sound physiques, and a fair education come within the category of those eligible to receive the opportunities offered by the U. S. Marine Corps.

In addition to the training, development through travel, medical and dental service, rations and clothing, the Marine Corps Institute provides correspondence courses, free of charge, in engineering, accountancy, languages, and many others, and any Marine who so desires may enroll and receive the benefits of his selected course wherever he may be stationed.

Full information regarding the various opportunities the Marine Corps has to offer young men may be obtained by visiting or writing the Marine Corps Recruiting Station, Post Office Building, Savannah, Ga.

Scholarships To CMTC Enrollees

Rev. T. H. Biles, Chairman Citizens Military Camps Association For Brunswick County, Announces New Inducements

T. H. Biles, of Southport, chairman of the Military Training Camps Association for Brunswick county, announced yesterday that the Commanding General, Fourth Corps Area, has allotted two scholarships to the C.M.T. Camp to be held at Fort Bragg, N. C., August 5-September 3. These scholarships have been given through the efforts of the Military Training Camps Association by institutions of learning for award to this summer's trainees. These scholarships are as follows:

Furman University, Greenville, South Carolina. One scholarship, value $75.00. Period—1 year exclusive course if merited. Additional expenses, $350.00 per year exclusive of books, laboratory fees, and laundry.

Woffard College, Spartanburg, South Carolina. One scholarship, value $65.00. Period—2 years. Estimated additional expenses, $300.

In addition to these, the following described scholarship has been given by the Castle Heights Military Academy, at Lebanon, Tenn., and is open to competition at each of the seven C.M.T. Camps to be held in this corps area during the coming summer: One scholarship, value $250.00. Period—2 years provided recipient maintains a satisfactory academic average and good behavior. Estimated addition expenses approximately $650.00 for the first year. This may be paid for at the rate of $65.00 per month. Approximately $500.00 for the second year. The student must be a graduate of an accredited high school within the Fourth Corps Area and present proper admission certificate and certificate of good character and health.

These scholarships will be awarded in each instance to outstanding trainees who expect to matriculate at the institutions noted. In all cases, the award of scholarships will be dependent upon the trainee's ability to meet the entrance requirements. Applications of all trainees of the camp will be given careful consideration in making the final selections for the award of scholarships.

In previous years, competition for the scholarships awarded has been keen and trainees selected have made creditable records in the institutions in which they have matriculated.

Applicants for C.M.T. Camp this summer should be made at once.

Sentelle Visitor In Several Counties

Representative R. E. Sentelle returned Friday from a visit to 28 eastern North Carolina cities and declared that the political situation is pretty well stirred up.

"It is hard to tell," he said, "just who is leading in the gubernatorial race. You go into one county and everyone is for Clyde Hoey; in the next county you run into a McDonald stronghold and in a third you are likely to find that most of the people are supporters of Sandy Graham."

About the only thing that is consistently true through the section he visited is that farmers everywhere are beginning to feel acutely the need of a rain. They were busy last week setting out tobacco in mighty dry fields.

Revival Begins At Mill Creek Church

Annual revival services began Monday night at the Mill Creek Baptist church with the Rev. John F. Warren, pastor of the Southside Baptist church, of Wilmington, doing the preaching.

Services are being held daily beginning at 7:30 o'clock, the first half-hour being devoted to song and prayer service.

At the conclusion of this meeting the annual daily vacation bible school will begin.

Colored Singing At Cedar Hill

Last Sunday was a big day at Cedar Hill colored Baptist church at Bolivia. Two choirs sang spirituals. One group of songsters were from Johnson Chapel, Leland, and the other was from Cedar Hill church, Bolivia. Rev. C. E. Manuel preached.

Rev. Sam Bryant is pastor of the church.

Commencement At Colored School

Diplomas Awarded Graduates Last Tuesday Night By Miss Annie May Woodside, County Superintendent Of Schools

An overflowing crowd was in attendance at the Brunswick County Training school commencement finals held last week.

Prof. Charles Satchell Morris, noted negro orator, of Virginia, delivered the commencement address Tuesday night. He spoke on "Nobility Brings Obligation."

Miss Annie May Woodside, county superintendent of schools, presented the diplomas, with congratulations to the nine boys and six girls who graduated.

They were: Clarence Bellamy, Edward L. James F., and James Clemmons, Israel Gore, Neal Galloway, Otis Swain, George F. Swain, John M. Gore, Florence E. Bruce, Daisy B. Frink, Mammie Irene Frink, Josephine Greene, Letha Mae Johnson, and Beulah Moore.

Rev. Oscar E. Holder, pastor of St. Mark's Episcopal colored church in Wilmington, preached the baccalaureate sermon in the school auditorium Sunday, May 10th, before a full house.

The two highest ranking students of the senior class were George Swain and James L. Clemmons. They are eligible for scholarships to A. and T. College, of Greensboro.

"I hope you don't think me too young for marriage to your daughter, sir," said the young man, anxiously.

"That's all right, my boy," was the cheerful answer of his betrothed's father. "You'll age rapidly enough when her bills begin to come in."

LITTLE BITS OF BIG NEWS

(Continued from page 1) not a candidate. "That should end such discussion," the statement declared, after relating Mr. Hoover's interest was in the Republican platform and "to get these critical issues before the country."

Bloodless Revolt

Bolivian army officers and civilian members of the socialist party took over the country's government Sunday in a bloodless, shotless coup, forcing President Jose Luis Tejada Sorzano to resign. The officers, veterans of the 3-year Chaco war, went to the home of the chief executive—who himself seized power by a coup in November, 1934—and demanded his written resignation. He quickly gave it.

Auto Massacre

Seven men and boys, speeding from a wedding, died Saturday when the new automobile in which they were riding crashed into the side of an Erie freight train at the West Austintown Ohio crossing. Four were almost instantly killed while three died in the hospital.

"Dead Issue"

Leon Blum, expected to become France's first socialist premier, indicated in a speech Friday that he was anxious to seek "legal death" for France's debts to America. The leader of the people's front, addressing the American club, deplored the existence of what he termed a "misunderstanding" between the United States and France and declared: "In France we believe the question of debts is eliminated."

Three Shot

State police machine gunners killed a crazed negro and his sister in their flaming tenant cottage near Gordonsville, Va., Friday. The negro, William Wales, 65, had killed a sheriff and wounded four men during a 6-hour siege. Wales died when state policeman E. L. Keyser, a stuttering tommygun in his hands, sighted him through a second story window. Cora Wales, silhouetted against flames kindled by thrown flares, died from a pistol bullet. Both bodies were consumed by the fire.

To Hold Territory

Premier Mussolini, in an interview printed Friday in the newspaper Lee Martin, declared Italy is ready to throw its full force against "any one attempting to grasp from us the fruits of victory won with so many sacrifices."

May Bolt

Senator William E. Borah declared Thursday that "no party alignment would control me for a minute" if the republican national convention ignored the issue of monopolies, and followed up with the assertion that "entering the democratic ranks wouldn't stop me."

Six Sentenced

Captured because of their lavish expenditure of nickels and dimes, six youths were convicted of murder of Edwin Esposito, subway collector, in a $245 hold-up. Standing before Judge Peter J. Brancato in Brooklyn, N. Y., they heard themselves sentenced to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing the week of June 22, the greatest number doomed for one crime in 25 years.

Life Sentence

Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., entered a plea of guilty to kidnapping Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll in federal district court in Louisville, Ky., Wednesday and was given a life sentence.
