

"His Brother's Wife" And "The Road To Glory" Film Attractions

"His Brother's Wife," starring Barbara Stanwick and Robert Taylor, is the unusual attraction being offered movie lovers this week, beginning Thursday, at the Carolina Theatre, Wilmington.

Also in the cast are Joseph Calleia, the screen's leading "bad man", John Eldredge, Samuel S. Hinds and Phyllis Clare.

Next Week

Continuing her policy of offering smash hits ahead of time, the Carolina Theatre will present beginning Monday "The Road To Glory," one of the season's truly great pictures.

pair either with his brother, Lawrence Willing, or Bill Styron. The younger Willing is one of the better young players in Southport, and Styron plays tennis that is unbeatable at times.

Dark horses of the tournament, John Shannon and D. I. Watson, have a good chance to upset their rivals to fight their way to the finals.

Carey Reece and James Harper may get somewhere in the tournament if they both have a good afternoon. There is also a possibility that Oliver Cottrell and John D. St. George, infants of the tennis club, will enter the tournament. If they do, their opponents will have no easy time.

Other possible entries will come from the following club members: Gus McNeil, H. M. Shannon, R. I. Mintz, Harold St. George, Lanier Furlless and Malcom Frink. The new lights installed last week made night playing a pleasure, and the courts are a popular attraction for both players and spectators these evenings.

Members of the tennis club are planning to have a dance Saturday night at Caswell Beach, the proceeds to help defray the cost of the lights.

ANNOUNCE CHANGE IN SOIL PROGRAM

explained, is not a payment; it is a figure showing the maximum amount of soil-building payments a grower may earn, and is based on the acreage of soil-conserving crops.

This change will also help farmers meet the minimum requirements for soil-conserving acreage as well as requirements for new seedings of soil-conserving crops this year.

In addition, sowed corn, plowed or disked under, and spring seeded small grains grown with or immediately followed by a legume will be counted as soil-conserving this year. They had been classified as depleting crops.

The other change permits soil-building payments to be made for the seeding of perennial grasses, or growing green manure crops, on land where there has been a failure of a legume or perennial grass seeded earlier in the year.

For example, a producer who seeded a field of lespedeza or clover, but failed to get a crop, may carry out an additional practice by seeding alfalfa or turning under a green manure crop on the same field in August or September. He would receive payment for both practices.

However, his soil-building payments could not exceed the maximum amount of his allowance as determined by his acreage of soil conserving crops.

WPA PAYROLL IS $6,000 MONTHLY

ters of the merchants of the county."

WPA payrolls have declined from the peak which they reached during the winter months. WPA officials have found that project workers are turning to jobs in private employment where they can receive more than the "security wage" paid by the WPA.

"The wage paid by the Works Progress Administration, although it is based upon the prevailing rate in the community, is designed to furnish only the necessities of life," Caldwell said. "On a monthly basis the WPA wage is enough to maintain the worker and his family, but it is not so high as to attract workers from private jobs which may be available. The fact that the WPA in this district has not reached its quota of 3,200 persons at work is an illustration of the fact that men are not inclined to turn to WPA when they can find work elsewhere."

Even with fewer people at work, however, WPA payrolls have been large enough to offer a real stimulus to business in the community, Caldwell said. "Although our rolls have been reduced, $6,000.00 is still enough money to help in the regular course of business transactions in Brunswick county," he pointed out. "The WPA workers are helping themselves and at the same time helping the people of the place in which they live by doing valuable public work and spending their money at home."

HUNTING SEASON TO OPEN EARLIER THAN LAST YEAR

of western counties where the opening is October 20.

In seven counties there is no open season for deer but in all the others except some on the seacoast the dates are October 1 to January 1. In Brunswick county, as in other section on the coast, the season opens September 15. The bag limit is one a day or three a season.

Ruffed grouse, with a bag limitation of two per day or ten per season, may be taken between November 20 and December 15. The hunting season for opossum and raccoon opens October 1 and ends February 1 with the trapping season for them as well as mink, muskrat and otter being November 1 to February 15.

PRESS DISPATCH REVIVES INTEREST IN AIRPLANE BASE

command came ashore to take some additional pictures on land. This officer in command was contacted by a local coast guard official and he stated he was sent here to get pictures to show the practicability of Southport for a Coast Guard Air Base.

Subsequently guarded inquiries were made by local people and it was discovered that the planes were not sent to any other point on the coast except Southport.

Noticing press dispatches in reference to the base, Louis T. Moore, of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, wrote Rear Admiral Russell R. Woesche, commander of the Coast Guard at Washington Monday, pointing out Southport as a desirable location for such a base and urging consideration.

In a letter to W. B. Keziah here Tuesday, Mr. Moore expressed the opinion that the Southport city officials, county commissioners, civic club and other agencies should vigorously prosecute the effort to secure the base here by writing to Senators Bailey and Reynolds and Congressman Clark and have them urge the consideration of Admiral Woesche towards Southport.

KEEP EYE ON COAST GUARD LOOKOUT

what was wrong.

From Cape Fear, many miles away, the watch had caught a speck of light flashing on and off, on and off. The little fish boat rolling in the swells would turn until the tiny light under the top was visible to the station, rolling back it would be just as quickly extinguished.

The Cape Fear boys promptly called Oak Island and the boat from there went out at all speed to render assistance. They did not even cuss when they discovered that the rolling of the boat of a lot of fishermen had produced a false alarm and called them out on a 30 mile round trip to render aid that was not needed.

COUNTY OFFICIALS ATTENDING MEET

who will address the gathering are Governor Nominee Clyde R. Hoey; George Ross Pou, democratic nominee for state, Frank Parker, state senator, local government, H. H. Daniels, assistant director of Institute of Government, D. W. Daniels, of Clemson.
