BOLIVIA SCHOOL NEWS

LARGE OFFERING
 In making up her quarterly and yearly report to send to Recorder Building, Raleigh, Mrs. B. R. Page, Superintendent Brunswick Baptist Woman's Missionary Union, found that Southport Baptist church gave more to the Lotte Moon Christmas offering than they have ever given, and as usual leads the Baptist churches of Brunswick in their offering which is given in honor of Miss Lottie Moon, Missionary to China. She reached China near Christmas time, refused to accept a furlough at Christmas because there was no one to take her place, gave her long life to save many Chinese and died one Christmas eve.

NEW BUILDING
 Everyone has been pleased to know that material for our new agricultural building is being delivered and that construction begins this week.

DOUBLE VICTORY
 The Bolivia boys and girls' basketball teams added another victory to their list when they defeated Dixon high school in a double header on the Bolivia floor.

The Bolivia girls, led by Stone and Mercer as forwards, ran the score up on the Dixon sextet, 32-7. The first team guards, So-well, Mills and Johnson, held the Dixon score to three points through the third quarter. The Bolivia second team took over the game at the beginning of the fourth quarter and played on even terms for the rest of the game.

The Bolivia boys defeated the strong and fast Dixon team 19-14, Lesh leading in the victory with 12 points.

NEXT WEEK
 The girls' basketball team expects to battle with the New Hanover high school girls on the Wilmington court next Friday night, February 3. We don't expect our girls to let us down.

CHAPEL PROGRAM
 The seventh grade will conduct chapel next Friday morning.

PLAY CAST
 The cast of the Junior Class play, "Her Honor the Mayor", which is to be presented on February 24, includes the following: Elizabeth Lewis, Kemp Holden, Mills Mercer, Alton McKeithan, Gladys Hiburn, Mavis Brown, Lucy Hand, and Ina Glenn Maulsby.

The class is most enthusiastic over the play and plans to make it the best performance of the year.

P.-T. A.
 The regular meeting of the P.-T. A. will be held in the school auditorium on February 2 at 7:30 o'clock. All patrons of the school are invited to attend as the program is on "Founder's Day" and a most interesting program has been arranged. The choir of Antioch, Mt. Olive and Bolivia churches will sing, and a pageant, "Along the Way" will be presented. A silver offering will be taken.

CONTEST
 The high school, grammar grade, and elementary departments are competing to see which will have the lowest percentage of absences during the month. Each grade in the school is competing against all other grades for the same honor.

LELAND SCHOOL NEWS

LELAND, Feb. 1—Miss Gertrude Maulsby's first grade class is busily engaged in improving the looks of their room. They have painted their sandtable and are now painting pictures to hang in their room.

The other first grade class, with Mrs. Knox as teacher, is now taking up the study of Eskimos. They are also planning to learn some new songs.

The fourth grade has gained six new pupils since the Christmas holidays. Marion Barefoot and Effie Konetis from Wilmington, Mary Suggs from Shallotte, Doris Padgett from Acme-Delco, James Cox from South Carolina, and L. D. Potter from Magnolia. We are very glad to have these new members with us.

We are very busy preparing for our fifth month tests. One of the members of 7th grade, Eloise Skipper, has recently undergone an operation for appendicitis. We are very glad that she is improving and will soon be in school with us again.

The ninth grade will have charge of our Chapel program tomorrow, Feb. 1. We are looking forward to an enjoyable program, concerning historical men.

The tenth grade class is about to begin planning the Junior-Senior Banquet, now that the Junior play is over. They received their class rings
