WHEEL CLUB

The T. Yaskell-entertained...
The home was most attractively decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and white tapers. Delicious refreshments were served at the conclusion of the playing, on each plate of congealed fruit salad with cookies was a miniature glass candle holder with green candle, when the plates were brought in the candles gave a lovely and soft lighting effect to the room.

Those present were: Mesdames J. C. Christian, W. S. Davis, Dick Brendle, Charles Wells, Williams Wells, W. R. McAuley, Lois Dixon, James Carr, L. C. Ferguson, R. B. Thompson, Wiley Wells, William Styron, Elizabeth Gilbert, A. E. Huntley, R. I. Mintz, Carey Reece, Fred Willing, Ormond Butler, William Jorgensen and Misses Winnie Willis, Nancie Hood, Lella Hubbard, Evelyn Loughlin, and Lois Jane Bussells.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's Club held its first musical of the year on Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. I. Davis, when Mrs. William Styron presented a most interesting and enjoyable program of negro spirituals.

Mrs. R. C. Daniel read an introductory and explanatory paper on "The Origin and History of Negro Spirituals".

The first musical number was by a quartet composed of Mesdames E. M. Hall, J. I. Davis, H. C. Corlette and William Styron, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. I. B. Bussells. They sang "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot". A trio composed of the above with the exception of Mrs. Davis sang another of the well known spirituals, "So Sad". Mesdames Davis, Hall and Styron then sang "I Want to Be a Christian".

Miss Lella Hubbard played a medley of negro songs including "Steal Away", "Heaven", "Roll Jordan, Roll", and "Shortenin Bread".

The quartet then sang "Were you There?" followed by a solo, "Goin Home", by Mrs. Styron. The last and perhaps the best liked of the afternoon was "I

SOUTHPORT SCHOOL NEWS

CONGRATULATIONS

In our own way in our school column we would like to offer congratulations to our Mr. and Mrs. Citizen of the past week. The honor this time goes to Bill Willis of the high school and Gretchen Brown of the elementary school for their all around work in benefiting the school. Again we say—congratulations, winners. With regrets we say we are sorry there aren't more in your shoes.

SIXTH GRADE

On November 15, the sixth grade gave its first chapel program. The subject of the program was "Health".

The program was as follows: Scripture, Betty Lee Oliver; prayer, The Lord's Prayer by all the school; song, "Holy, Holy, Holy"; health acrostic, eleven members of the sixth grade; play, "The Fight for Health".

We had several visitors present at our program including some parents. We thank them for coming and hope that all enjoyed our program.

The sixth grade received a letter from a little boy in Exeter, Nebraska, telling about where he lived and what his school was like. He asked that some of the pupils answer it telling about what we do here. Miss Welborn, our teacher, decided that the entire class would write him and choose about ten of the best letters to send. We decided that the very best letter would have a picture of the class in it. We have been very busy writing these letters.

The sixth grade had its third Citizenship Club meeting Monday, November 13. During the business meeting we elected a new vice-president, Sally Ann McNeil, in place of Carol Johnson, who has moved away. We also decided upon our pledge. During the program told us about "Cooperation is Necessary for Good Citizenship". We have our meeting every other Monday.

WE OBSERVE THAT

The ninth grade history class is very much interested in their subject—The Decline of the Roman Empire. They are comparing it in some ways with the European conflict of today.

The dramatic club deserves a lot of credit for their fine performance last Friday night.

The teachers are taking an interest in bowling.

Some of the boys and girls did a nice job in cleaning the gym.

Our basketball season opens with a real show in store when the faculty and the fat men will be the opponents. (By Joe V. Christian)

ODDS AND ENDS

The girls and boys of the two basketball teams have improved greatly. They are beginning to learn the art and skill of the game. Each day the team members shoot twenty-five fouls. Jack Christian has the high score as a result of dropping in twenty-one out of twenty-five.

The teams will get new warm-up suits this year. We are not only going to have a good team but also a nice looking team.

Everyone is cordially invited to the basketball game this Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock. It will be a double header. The girls play the teachers and the boys play the fat men. Come one; come all; and enjoy yourselves.

CLUBS AND CLASSES

The Outdoor Girls are progressing all the while. They are planning on entertaining the Aviation boys one night soon and an account of the event will follow later.

The senior class held a class meeting last Friday morning to discuss the possibility of publishing an annual. They plan to announce in the near future their decision. Discussed also at the
