

Summer School If There Is Demand

If there is sufficient demand, a six-weeks summer school will be taught in Southport during August and the first part of September, according to W. R. Lingle, principal of Southport high school.

All students, either of the high school or the grammar grades, interested in making up lost work, should contact Mr. Lingle within the next few days in order that plans for the school may be shaped to care for their needs.

FLOWER SHOW TEA

The Woman's Club entertained guests of the Flower Show at tea on Friday afternoon from 3:30 until 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Annie K. Vitou and Mrs. C. Ed. Taylor poured tea and coffee at the beautifully appointed table which was lighted by tapers in silver candelabra. Guests were served cake and sandwiches.

During the tea a musical background was provided by Mrs. R. I. Mintz and Miss Lela Hubbard at the piano. Mrs. William Styron, Mrs. J. W. Ruark, Mrs. L. C. Ferguson, and Mrs. H. C. Corlette gave several vocal selections at intervals. H. Churchill Bragaw, of Orton Gardens, showed colored movies of Orton and following this answered questions in regard to the care of azaleas.

The tea was under the direction of Mrs. Allen C. Ewing and she had assisting her Mesdames C. C. Cannon, I. B. Bussells, Claude Willing, D. E. Arthur, Cronley Ruark, James Prevatt, H. I. Mintz, James Carr, E. H. Cranmer, and Miss Susie Newton.

Much enthusiasm was shown and interest manifested by the group. The school is sponsored by the ministers of churches in the community.

The organization: A. C. Coor-ness, principal; Rev. J. B. Howell pastor, Royce Howell, pianist. The instruction staff: Beginners and primary dept. Estelle Swain and Christine McKay; Juniors, Ella Mitchell and Holly Bryant; Inter-mediate, Eva V. Lee and Ernest Swain.

Visitors Here On Fishing Trip

Judge Henry Danehl and F. A. Lont of Fredericksburg, Va., George H. Melville of New York and T. G. Melville of Baltimore, Maryland, are here on a three or four days salt and fresh water fishing trip.

Today they are out for the freshwater denizens under the guidance of W. B. Keziah of the Chamber of Commerce. For tomorrow, if the weather permits, they embark with Captain Hulan Watts on the Sea Girl for a day with the trout off Bald Head island. Judge Danehl is the living embodiment of the Tutt and Mr. Tutt character in the Saturday post.

Expect Maps Of Island Survey

Sometime ago the Fairchild Aerial Survey of New York had a plane making surveys in this section. Among other aerial views taken were some of Bald Head island. The corporation has written Mr. Sherrill offering to send the pictures if he desired to see them.

Pigeons Released Here Saturday Reached Home

Through first of all the birds. W. B. Keziah, who seems to have had a tip, contended that Barracuda, alias Studbaker, would win through first. There seems to have been a jackpot in the matter with all birds having an advocate and Keziah pocketing the jackpot by virtue of his private knowledge that Bar acuda, alias Studbaker, was a prize winning racer who has come through as top-hand in a lot of events from Montgomery, Ala., Tallahassee, Fla., Atlanta, G., and other points to Greensboro.

WAR NEWS

(Continued from page one) An American correspondent for the New York Times cabled today, that "It is the opinion of this correspondent that due to the remarkable success of the parachute troops, the marvelous efficiency of the German army, and the large scale sabotage of the Fifth Column operating behind the lines, and supported by the greatest air force the world has ever seen, it will be little short of a miracle if the Ger-mans are stopped short of the French frontier.

The English have weathered their political storm, and are now firmly united with a strong coalition cabinet.

Neville Chamberlain has resigned as Prime Minister, and Winston Churchill was appointed in his place. Yesterday he received an overwhelming vote of confidence, and pledged him self to the vigorous prosecution of the war "until victory is assured, because if England is defeated, the struggle for liberty through the ages, will have been in vain".

W. F. Ward, Procure Broker, Is Drowned

(Continued From Page 1) the water's surface. All efforts to rescue the man failed. Relatives said here yesterday that Mr. Ward slipped and fell overboard from the small motor launch which he was using. Soon after he disappeared beneath the surface of the water, a squall came up, and searchers fear that his body was swept seaward.

Mr. Ward was widely known over the county. He had been salesman for a tobacco curer concern for a number of years, and was the largest single fur buyer in the county.

He was also in the produce brokerage business, and operated extensive farm holdings. He was a member of the Mount Tabor Baptist church, and otherwise took an active part in the community life around Tabor City. His untimely death brought a shock to the entire Tabor City area, as well as the rest of Columbus county.

Mr. Ward, who is a native of the Nakina area, is survived by his widow and three children.

Ethridge, Hilda Gray and Horace Ward, all of Tabor City; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Ward, of Nakina, and the following brothers and sisters: Tom Ward, of Longwood; Ernest and Joe Ward, of Nakina; Mack Ward, of Elizabethtown; Howard Ward, of Greenville; Mrs. Percy McKeithan, Mrs. Herbert Sasser, and Miss Ruth Ward all of Nakina.

Mrs. Davis won the prize for this class and Mrs. E. H. Cranmer drew the prize for which she was tied with Mrs. Hewett and Mrs. Finch.

The Southport School was given two pottery vases for its exhibitions.

A community prize was awarded to Calabash for their entry, the prize being an attractive vase. Class H: Shadow Boxes, was won by Mrs. R. I. Mintz with Mrs. C. Ed. Taylor placing second.

Searchers spent that night not knowing whether they were looking for a fugitive or a corpse, but early Tuesday morning grappling hooks brought the body to the surface. It was then that it was discovered that Galloway had used the boat anchor to make sure that his life was ended.

Varnum was 22 years of age and Galloway was 45 years old. Both are married and are survived by numerous relatives in this county.

The jury empaneled by Coroner Caison for the investigation included C. M. Trott, A. C. Dixon, J. H. Mintz, Lee Clemmons, Malcolm King and C. D. Dixon.

LIST FARMS FOR SALE WITH FSA

(Continued from page one) farms for sale at the FSA office in Room No. 11, Post Office Building, Wilmington. Funds for the sale of farm lands to tenants seeking to become owners under the FSA program have been appropriated by Congress under the Bandhead-Jones Act, and purchase of these farms is under supervision of the Farm Security Administration.

Mr. Ginn said each office wanted as large a selection of farms as possible in aiding tenants to purchase farms, and asked that local farm real estate men file their list of suitable farms for sale with the FSA office. The prospective purchasers, who expect to borrow from FSA, will be referred to the owners and agents of suitable farm lands.

REYNOLDS WRITES ABOUT DEFENSE

(Continued From Page 1) powerful interest which deemed the matter so potent that it was indicated a trip would be made to Washington and a conference sought with parties who are in a position to know something about the local situation, and whose word would carry much weight with respect to action at Southport.

The situation is regarded as rather encouraging. Certainly encouraging at the present moment to justify further vigorous effort, even if the matter is one in which no one can foretell in which direction War Department officials will nod their heads.

OVER $10,000.00 FREE COMMODITIES

(Continued From Page 1.) be worth about $3,842.85. There has also been a total of 5,991 garments of various kinds distributed during that period. The value of these garments is something like $6,436.55. The above mentioned items, along with a number of smaller miscellaneous items, total in value something like $10,295.40.

It is very interesting to note that over a period of a year, the surplus commodities distributed to the under-privileged and unfortunate people of this county have amounted to quite a considerable item. These commodities which have been donated to the state board of charities and public welfare by the federal surplus commodities corporation and distributed through the Brunswick county surplus commodities warehouse have gone a long way in assisting the department of welfare in taking care of the needs with which it has to deal.

John Robert Suggs, white, was found guilty of reckless operation. He was required to pay the costs, his fine of $25.00 being remitted.

Howard Lewis, a white, was found guilty on charges of entering the highway without stopping. Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs, which were remitted.

WPA SETS ASIDE WEEK OF MAY 20

(Continued from page one) munity Week" will be opened on all Professional and Service projects Monday morning, May 20, at the beginning of the work day. That evening the Week will be celebrated by a dinner, at twenty-five cents a plate, when sponsors, project workers, project heads, and citizens in general will get together for an evening of good fellowship and understanding. Observance of the Week will end at project closing time Saturday, May 25.

The Professional and Service Division Projects operating in Brunswick County at the present time are Library, Mrs. Norma R. Sawyer, Supervisor; and Sewing, Mrs. Hattie Thwait, Supervisor. The purpose of the Sewing project is two-fold; the employment and training of needy women, and the production of clothing and household needed by Public Welfare Agencies for full distribution to needy families and tax supported and charitable institutions in Brunswick County.

This unit has an average employment of 18 women who produce approximately 800 play suits a month. The library project was planned in response to widespread demands for WPA assistance in libraries for WPA assistance in supplementing the limited services which existed in many localities due to insufficient budgetary funds. Its services include mending books which otherwise would be discarded, maintaining libraries and small reading rooms in communities where there is no established library service. Book-keeping service was provided Brunswick County the past winter. The workers on this project are of a high type of interservice training.

The Gardening, Canning, Lunch Room project has closed with the termination of school year. This project provided employment for women for purpose of planting, growing, canning of foodstuffs for use in the preparation of serving lunches to undernourished children in the public schools.

There were five school cafeterias in county the past school year, employing approximately 46,000 lunches. Children have the privilege of bringing produce home and receiving hot lunches in exchange. Over 5,000 lunches of this type were served during the year.
