SEAGRAVES-WILLETTS

WINNABOW July 9.—In a beautiful candle light ceremony at Mill Creek Baptist Church on Friday, June 27 at 7:30 o'clock Miss Evelyn Willetts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Willetts, became the bride of William Henry Seagraves, Rev. A. L. Brown of Southport, pastor of the church, officiated.

The bride was spoken for by an arch decorated with white roses and smilax. Pines were banded on both sides and tall white canopies gave the only light. Family pews were marked with white satin bows.

Miss Elizabeth Lewis, pianist, and Roths Hickman soloist, rendered a program of nuptial music. Before the ceremony Mr. Hickman sang "O Promise Me" and "Beautiful Dreamer". Traditional Marches were used and "Liebestraum" was played during the ceremony. The impressive ring ceremony of the Baptist church was used.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. Her gown was of white marquisette and lace fashioned with short puffed sleeves and with small collars. The skirt was very full. The waist was made to fit with buttons from the neckline to the waist line. Her veil was of bridal illusion with a crown of lace. Her bridal bouquet was of white and pink gladioli tied with white ribbon.

Miss Catherine Willetts, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a full dress of white organza with short sleeves and a full skirt. Her hat was white straw and she wore white gloves. Her corsage was an orchid.

Miss Helen Willetts, sister of the bride and Miss Elaine Willetts, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore dresses of blue taffeta with white hats and gloves. Their bouquets were of mixed summer flowers tied with white ribbon.

Mr. Seagraves was attended by Webster Swain as best man. Usher for the ceremony was Barney Lewis. Mrs. Willetts wore for her daughter's wedding a dress of beige print with racy accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Little Bobby Smith celebrated his third birthday on Monday afternoon with a party in his home.

His guests played with toys until they were asked into the dining room where they had ice cream and cake. Favors were pink baskets filled with mints and all-day suckers. The mothers were served cake with cocoa cola.

Bobby received a number of gifts from his guests. Children present were, Charlene Newton, Carol Ann Wolfe, Jean Thompson, Betty McGlamery, Neal Lewis, Clarke Ferguson, Jaunita Couser and Jimmy Harper.

MRS. THOMAS HOSTESS

On Saturday afternoon at Caswell Lodge Mrs. H. H. Thomas entertained her friends at a bridge and Chinese checkers party. Tables were placed on the wide porch and flowers in bowls and baskets were used to decorate for the occasion.

Mrs. William Styron was high scorer among those playing bridge and she received a set of silver corn holders. Mrs. Frank Niernsee, Sr., was high in Chinese checkers and received a flower container with holder. Mrs. H. C. Corlette was low bridge scorer and received a miniature flower bowl. Low score in Chinese checkers was held by Mrs. R. S. Harrison who was presented with a pair of floral plaques. Mrs. Pearce Cranmer also received floral plaques for bingo prize.

Mrs. Thomas was assisted with the serving by Mrs. Dan Sadler and Mrs. Sammy Odum. Iced coffee was served with sandwiches and cakes.

The Lighter Side Of Life

By Our Helpmate

A most enjoyable event of last week was the trip down the inland waterway Tuesday on the good ship "Kitty Hawk" with Col. and Mrs. Earl I. Brown as host and hostess. Their guests were relatives and friends who were in town for the Brown-Taylor wedding.

The party boarded about 9:30 and by lunch time had reached Little River. A delicious picnic was spread while the boat continued south.

It was time to start home before Georgetown was reached and the trip back was made by dark. It was the loveliest trip imaginable, especially for one who has never been on the waterway before. A day of rest such as that one was a welcome one, should be prescribed for the day after all weddings.

Points were all familiar with Holden's Beach, Gause Landing, the Swain Cut, Lockwood's Folly Inlet, look different when viewed from this water highway.

Ruth Hood's hollyhocks are still lovely. We wondered how she got them to do so well.

Those who were there are: Mesdames G. Y. Watson, Richard St. George, Frank Niernsee, Sr., Frank Niernsee, Jr., C. Ed. Taylor, J. I. Davis, R. S. Harrison, C. G. Ruark, W. G. Butler, R. L. Thompson, and Miss Mary Weeks.

Mesdames Percy J. Farrell, Henry Goodwin, R. I. Mintz, R. J. Kiddoo, James Harper, E. H. Cranmer, E. H. Arrington, Pearce Cranmer, M. R. Sanders, J. W. Ruark, Warren Hood, A. K. Vitou, B. B.
