STUDENT HONORED

On the eve of his departure last week for the Central Academy of Commercial Art in Cincinnati, Edmund Newton, popular Southport boy, was honored with a surprise party at the home of Mrs. Harry Weeks.

Included among the guests were fellow members of the Junior Choir and the adult choir of Trinity Methodist Church, the honoree being a member of his Sunday school class, schoolmates from Southport high school and other associates, came to wish him well in his new field of study. He was the recipient of many useful gifts.

During this an evening of fellowship, delicious punch and cookies were served.

SHOWER FOR BRIDE

Miss Emma Lou Harrelson entertained at Camellia Inn Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Evelyn Loughlin, bride elect. The occasion was a miscellaneous shower, and

McCRARY-WOODBURY

The wedding of Miss Susan Frances Woodbury and Robert Emmitt McCrary was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at Zion Methodist church in Brunswick county. The church was arranged with palms, ferns and smilax. Large white chrysanthemums and burning candles in candelabra were used on the altar. Rev. A. S. Parker performed the ceremony assisted by Rev. Walter Pavy.

The bride had as her maid of honor her sister, Miss Mabel Elizabeth Woodbury, and matron of honor was Mrs. Robert McDougall, another sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Louise McCrary, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. R. F. Nurnberger of Richmond, Va.

Mr. McCrary was attended by his brother, Walter Bruce McCrary, as best man. Ushers were Cannon Woodbury, brother of the bride, Harris Evans, A. E. Burnette and Steadman Vick.

The bride entered the church with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a wedding gown of white duchess satin. The sweetheart necklace had insets of lace and seed-pearls. The long full sleeves had insets of matching lace at the shoulders. From the long waistline a very full skirt fell gracefully into a train. She wore a halo effect of orange blossoms from which her veil of bridal illusion fell. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses centered with a white orchid and tied with white satin.

The maid of honor was gowned in aqua satin fashioned with sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves and a full skirt forming a slight bustle. She carried a bouquet of mixed fall flowers tied with matching satin ribbon. She wore a flower arrangement in her hair. The matron of honor was gowned in a frock made on identical lines as that worn by the maid of honor only in fuchsia and wore a flower arrangement in her hair. She carried a similar bouquet. The bridesmaids wore similar gowns only in pink satin and wore flowers in their hair and carried bouquets of mixed flowers tied with pink satin.

While the guests assembled and during the ceremony a program of popular music was rendered by Mrs. G. H. Cannon, aunt of the bride. Among the selections rendered were: Intermezzo, Evening Star, Venetian Love Song, Schubert's Serenade, Liebestraum and the traditional bridal marches. Miss Sallie Betts Knox sang Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life, To Have, To Hold, To Love and Will You Remember.

Mrs. Woodbury, mother of the bride, wore black crepe with matching accessories and a corsage of white roses. Mrs. McCrary, mother of the bridegroom, wore blue with black hat and matching accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents. The bridal party received the guests in the living room which was decorated with ivy and chrysanthemums. The dining table was centered with a bride's cake and burning tapers. Later in the evening the couple left for a wedding trip. Mrs. McCrary wore for traveling a light-weight wool suit, of mulberry with black coat and accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Charles Woodbury. She received her education at East Carolina Teachers college in Greenville. Mr. McCrary is the son of Mrs. Robert Emmitt McCrary and the late Mr. McCrary. He holds a position with Swift and Company.

Those entertaining for the bride were Mrs. Odell Evans, Mrs. A. E. Burnette, Mrs. Harris Evans, Mrs. R. B. Howard, Miss Louise McCrary, Miss Mary Frances McCrary, of Fayetteville, Miss Sallie Betts Knox, Miss Evelyn Knox, Miss Mabel Elizabeth Woodbury, Mrs. Robert McDougall, Mrs. T. M. Sumner, Miss Elizabeth Frank Cannon and Mrs. R. F. Nurnberger of Richmond, Va.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. T. G. Martin and Miss Ann Elsie Martin, of Florence, S. C., Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Goodman of Durham, Capt. Guy E. Pigford of Fort Screven, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Pemberton and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Newland of Rocky Mount, Mrs. R. F. Nurnberger of Richmond, Va., Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Knox of Raleigh, Mrs. J. E. Pearson of Goldsboro, Miss Mary Frances McCrary, Mrs. James Applewhite, Miss Miriam Applewhite and Jimmie Applewhite of Fayetteville.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Miss Florine Thomason, R. N. representing the Nurse's division of the American Red Cross, was the guest speaker before the Southport Woman's Club on Wednesday afternoon. The program was arranged by Miss Ethel Farrell who introduced Miss Thomason to her audience.

Miss Thomason made a most interesting talk on Red Cross activities which have been increased by the state of National Emergency. She told of the great work which Red Cross nurses are doing in the army camps and said that even more were needed right away. She urged that the club co-operate with the Red Cross Chapter in establishing home nursing and nurse's aides classes in Brunswick county. Two club members who are graduate nurses volunteered to teach these courses, Mrs. L. C. Ferguson and Mrs. A. L. Lewis. These classes will be formed soon and more detailed information will be given in an early issue of the Pilot.

Mrs. H. T. St. George was unanimously elected to membership in the club. Reports of the district meeting in Faison, where the local club won the $5.00 prize for attendance, were heard. A letter from Miss Elizabeth Lewis, of Winnabow, who recently received a Sallie Southall Cotton scholarship given by the North Carolina Federation, was read.
