

Winnabow Lady Buried Yesterday

Mrs. Ruth Jane Henry Died Sunday In Wilmington Hospital After A Long Illness

Mrs. Ruth Jane Henry, 36, wife of T. A. Henry, who lives on one of the rural mail routes from Leeland, near Winnabow, died Sunday morning in the James Walker Memorial hospital in Wilmington. She had been ill for a long time and her death was not unexpected.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at five o'clock from Zion church at Winnabow. Rev. Woodrow Robbins being in charge. Pallbearers were: T. L. Henry, Francis Skipper, Harold Watkins, Lacy Dawkins, Rob Ration, Floyd Atkinson and Harvey Smith.

Surviving in addition to the husband is a son, T. A. Henry, Jr., and four daughters, Hilda Jane, Josephine, Mary Katherine and Katie Mae Henry.

Last fall President Roosevelt received a letter from a newly classified "I-A" who wrote that he'd like the Army to send him to the field artillery. Moreover, he wanted to join a battalion which had already claimed his son. Somehow, the wheels of the War Department moved as requested, and now Private Joe Fusco cooks at Fort Jackson, where Private Joe Fusco Junior mans a fifty-calibre machine gun. As the younger Fusco puts it: "I feel the gang's sense of security and top feeds their faces."

SOME SEASONABLE JUNE IDEAS FOR BETTER FARMING

SUDAN GRASS

Plant as early as possible, if not planted in May. Broadcast 30 to 35 lbs. per acre, or seed 15 lbs. in 2 foot rows. Fertilize with around 300 lbs. 6-8-6 per acre in the Coastal Plain; 5-10-5 in the Piedmont and Mountains. Top-dress earlier planting with 100 to 200 lbs. nitrate of soda per acre, or its equivalent. A second top-dressing may be profitable under favorable seasonal conditions.

SOYBEANS

Continue planting through June; until June 15 in the Mountains. For late seedings and following small grains, fertilize with 200 to 300 lbs. 3-12-6 or 3-9-9.

COWPEAS

Plant 1/2 bu. per acre, when corn is laid by, for grazing the latter part of October through December.

TOBACCO (FLUE-CURED)

Start topping when blossoms come out and the leaf formation is set. Finish topping before the stalks get hard. The rows should be ridged or built up at each cultivation. Cultivate both sides of the row and scatter the middles. Stop cultivation 7 to 10 days before 2-3 of the tobacco is ready for topping. Save seed from plants with evenly spaced, broad leaves.

TOBACCO (BURLEY)

Start cultivation as soon as plants show signs of growth. Continue cultivation every 7 to 10 days. Throw as much soil as possible around the plant at each cultivation. Ridging without disturbing the root system gives a better root development, quicker maturity, better quality tobacco, and the plants stand up better during wind storms.

Honor Memory Of Men Killed In World War II

(Continued From Page One) Judge Burney the Colors were brought in by Legionaires Adjutant Crawford Rourke and 2nd Vice-Commander Prince O'Brien. As they marched down the aisle all on the platform and the audience stood at attention. Those on the platform, including an armed honor guard of nine men, dressed in spotless white, from the Navy Base, stood at salute. The squad was in command of Petty Officer Tamplin.

The presentation of citations to relatives of Brunswick men who have given their lives to their country during the present war was by L. T. Yaskell, Americanization Chairman of the Legion. Mr. Yaskell presented or has since mailed out, 9 Gold Star Citations. These are for the following men and were given to the designated relatives:

For Captain Henry Churchill Bragaw to Mrs. Helen G. Bragaw of Southport.
For Colonel Kenneth Kinsler, to Mrs. Katherine Kinsler, of Southport.
For Lt. Chas. B. Fodale, to Paul R. Fodale, of Southport.
For Rupert Wayne Walton, to Mr. and Mrs. Amos J. Walton, of Ash.
For Jess Bowen, to Mr. and Mrs. Bowen, of Bolivia.
For Barney Lewis, to Mr. and Mrs. Dunn Lewis, of Winnabow.
For John Leon Williamson, to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Williamson, of Ash.
For Robert Leroy Reynolds to Mr. and Mrs. Isaac E. Reynolds, of Shalotte.
For Harlee Hickman, to Mr. and Mrs. John Hickman, of Longwood.

The above forms the full list of Brunswick men who have given their lives, so far as the American Legion has been able to learn. However, it is felt here that are at least two others, one from Leeland and one from Bolivia who are not included in the above. It will be greatly appreciated if friends or relatives of any men whose names are not listed in the above, will send the name of the man and his parents, together with their address, to the American Legion at Southport. This will permit a permanent registry or recording of his name and the Legion will immediately send a Gold Star Citation to the nearest relatives.

VOTE LARGER THAN EXPECTED

Valie Frederic, Ed Weeks, Dick Brendle, W. E. Bell and one or two other local fellows have been getting better acquainted with foxes, not rabid ones, and at the same time are obtaining some sport and relaxation. They go over the inland canal to the neighborhood of Caswell and Long Beach and engage in a fox hunt. So far they're said to have killed around ten of the little animals.

J. T. Hickman, who lives on the rural route from Bolivia, had to leave his farm last week and spend five days in town as juror. Mr. Hickman remarked that the harvesting of his small grain crop was about finished. He did not say how he was able to get it done, but anybody who knows Mrs. Hickman will have no trouble in believing she had a hand in it. One of the not so many regular working couples are to be found in Mr. and Mrs. Hickman. Recently Mrs. Hickman had the misfortune to break her arm. For the most of the time she worked right on with the injured limb in a sling.
