GIBSON-CHADWICK

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chadwick, of Shallotte Village, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lena Ivy, to T. Sgt. William Ralph Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Gibson of Freeman, W. Va.

T. Sgt. Gibson has just returned to the states after serving six months in the European theatre of war and is now stationed at the Wilson General Hospital in Staunton, Va.

ARNOLD-WILKERSON

A wedding of charming simplicity was that of Miss Muzette Wilkerson and Charlie Guthrey Arnold, Petty Officer 1-c B. M. U. S. N. R. which took place Saturday, February 10, at 8 p. m. in the Military Chapel at Camp Endicott, Davisville, Rhode Island.

Chaplain John Raymond Tufft, U. S. N. R., performed the candle-light double ring ceremony in the presence of a few friends.

The music was rendered by the organist, Rex Charlesworth, Sp. 4c U. S. N. R. The "Bridal Chorus" from Wagner was played for the processional, and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" by Schubert was played during the service.

Cathedral white tapers, greenery, white carnations and tall baskets of white gladioli were combined in the chapel to form the background for an altar.

The bride was attended by Patricia Ashley, S. F. 1-c, of Columbia, Tenn., friend of the groom. She wore two piece navy blue tulle suit with navy accessories. Her corsage was of orchids. She was met at the improvised altar by the bridegroom and the Bestman, William Davis, Q. M. 1-c, of Jacksonville, Fla. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilkerson of Oxford, N. C. She is a graduate of Oxford High School and Appalachian State Teacher's College at Boone. For the past few years she has been a member of the Shallotte High School faculty.

The bridegroom is the son of J. U. Arnold and the late Katy White Arnold. He is an alumnus of Shallotte High School. Before entering service Mr. Arnold was employed by the U. S. Government in Charleston, S. C. He entered the Seabees in 1942 and served twenty-five months in the Pacific war zone. He returned to the states and was stationed at Camp Parks, Calif., and Camp Endicott, Davisville, R. I. At the present he is sailing for overseas duty again in the Pacific theater.

After the wedding the party was entertained in the Palermo in East Greenwich.

The bride and bridegroom spent their short honeymoon in Providence, R. I.

The bride returned to Shallotte to resume her duties.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's club met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. E. Arthur for the literature program which was presented by Mrs. E. M. McEachern. Her subject was Dumbarton Oaks and the talk which she gave was clearly presented and very informative.

Mrs. Walter Lewis rendered four musical numbers on her piano-harp which were enjoyed by all present.

It was unanimously decided to ask the ministers of the Southport churches to offer prayers for wise guidance at the San Francisco conference.

Delicious fruit punch and cake were served by the following hostesses, Mrs. Arthur, Mrs. W. G. Butler and Mrs. R. C. St. George.

WINNABOW CLUB

The Winnabow Home Demonstration club met at the home of Miss Josie Reid on April 19th. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. W. Osborne. Following a song the Collected was reported and Miss Reid read the minutes of the last meeting. This was followed by the treasurer's report and the roll call. Dates for future meetings were assigned.

Nine of the members were present, these Mrs. C. W. Osborne, Mrs. E. W. Taylor, Mrs. G. T. Reid, Mrs. Mary Potter, Mrs. J. L. Roberson, Mrs. Lee Kye, Sr., Misses Bertha and Josie Reid and Miss Kate Johnson.

Five visitors were present from Bolivia, these being Miss Hammond, Miss Gibbs, Mrs. Chadwick, Mrs. Tucker and Mrs. Eakins. Four children were also present.

Since the new Home Demonstrator was unable to be present at this meeting there was no demonstration of work now being carried on or planned for later in the year.

Following a pleasant social hour, with delicious refreshments being served the meeting adjourned with the next meeting being set to be held with Mrs. G. T. Reid.

Scouts Receive Their Charter

Sea Scouts Of Southport Presented Charter In Ceremony On Saturday Night

On Saturday night at the Community club the Sea Scouts of Southport were presented their charter by Carroll Tinsley, Assistant Scout Executive of Wilmington, the charter being accepted by E. M. McEachern, Skipper of Ship No. 35. Registration cards were presented to each Scout by Clayton Hellner, who is mate.

An impressive flag ceremony, as a part of the ceremony of coming aboard ship, was put on outside by the crew of Ship No. 24 of Wrightsville, about 20 of whom came down for a cruise of several days. Immediately following the presentation was made inside the building with Charlie Trott, chairman of the Committee, presiding.

The affair was well attended. Those present including girls brought by Sea Scouts of Southport, men and women connected with or interested in scouting in Southport and Wilmington, and representatives of the American Legion, which sponsors scouting in Southport. Brief talks were
