COME TO SEE ME

We come to the start of another tobacco selling season. It has been my privilege before the tire and gas shortage to call on most of my customers, but for the past few years I have not been able to visit you. However, you realize why I haven't been calling on you and feel sure that you will continue to sell your tobacco with me and bring new customers to me because you like the service and HIGH PRICES you are sure to get at the NEW FARMERS WAREHOUSE. I thank each of you for the patronage you've given me during the past years and hope that you will let me sell your entire crop this year. I'll be looking for you on opening day, August 1st.
