WOMAN'S CLUB

Southport Woman's Club held its February meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Landis Brown. The program was under the supervision of Mrs. A. E. Downing, who was asked to prove to be an interesting one from several angles. Each member had been asked to prepare and bring a salad to the meeting. This provided a variety and tasty collection. Mrs. Corrine Green, home agent for Brunswick county, was the center of the afternoon. She told the historical background of the club and the essential requirements of a successful salad. A number of suggestions for making salads both whole and attractive.

Mrs. Green and Mrs. Felton acted as judges and selected the salad prepared by Mrs. Cranner as the most attractive. This was in the shape of a white rose, made of cream over a stuffed tomato. The center of the rose was made of egg yolk.

Special mention was given to the salad prepared by Mrs. G. C. Strick, an attractive Dutch made of stuffed tomatoes. The upper portion of cream and the hair of the dutch girl made of celery and the whole was novel and attractive. Special mention was also

SOPHISTICATION

Exciting and sophisticated, this dark cotton is ideal for important occasions—an evening in town or a wedding in the country. It's available in black, brown, green, purple or navy, aqua, blue and pink. It is worn with a padra straw with Russian mesh veiling.

Collect of the Club Women of America. Miss Greene, the home agent, gave a very interesting talk on the use of milk as a part of the diet, and its care, as well as care of the cow.

Games led by Mrs. Potter, the recreational leader, were enjoyed. Mrs. Reid, the hostess, with the assistance of her daughters, Betty Jo and Mabel Jean Reid, served appetizing refreshments.

The members present at the gathering were, Mrs. Jack Potter, Mrs. Aldin Potter, Mrs. Tyler Potter, Mrs. Ruth Kye, Mrs. Sarah Kye, Mrs. Bessie Wolfe, Mrs. E. W. Taylor, Miss Kate Johnson, Mrs. A. P. Henry, Jr., Misses Bertha and Josie Reid, Mrs. G. T. Reid and Miss Helen Taylor.

Following a pleasant social hour the meeting adjourned with the club to meet with Mrs. E. W. Taylor in March.

Mrs. Hewett Is Hostess To Club

The Shallotte Village Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Earl Hewett for the February meeting. Mrs. Hewett called the meeting to order. The Collect of the Club Women of America was repeated and "America the Beautiful" was sung. The roll was called by Mrs. W. K. Usher, the secretary. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Money was collected for the new books. Meeting places and project leaders for the year were appointed and Miss Corrine Greene, the home agent, led an interesting discussion on the care of milk in the home.

Ten games of bingo were played with the prize going to Miss Greene as the high scorer. Cake and coffee were served the following members: Mrs. James Chadwick, Mrs. W. K. Usher, Miss Lottie Sellers, Mrs. Wilbur Register, Mrs. Boyd Robinson, Mrs. L. J. Williamson, Mrs. Lawrence Leonard, Miss Corrine Greene, Mrs. Lula Sellers, Mrs. Hewett and Mrs. Kelly.

The March meeting will be held with Mrs. Boyd Robinson as hostess at her home at Shallotte Village Point.

Mrs. Simmons Is Hostess To Club

The Ash home demonstration club held its regular meeting on Wednesday evening, February 11th, at the home of Mrs. Olivia Simmons.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Hazel Purvis. The members stood and sang "America the Beautiful." Following this the Club Collect was read by all.

Mrs. Cleyon Evans was elected vice-president of the club. The year books were filled out of the county officers.

Mrs. Mary Long gave an interesting talk on how to manage and when to plant garden and shrubbery. Miss Greene gave as the demonstration of the evening "Taking Care Of and Handling
