Recent Bride

MRS. BILLIE EDWARD DEW, who before her marriage on February 22 was Miss Frances Burris, daughter of Mrs. Letha Jenrette Burris and the late Lawrence Burris of Southport. She is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jenrette, of Ash.

Portsmouth, Va. Chaplain Ivan L. Bennette, U. S. A., cousin of the bride, officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white Alencon lace gown with a hoop skirt with a long train. Her Colonial bonnet of lace held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid.

Miss Marion Jenrette was maid of honor, wearing a light blue taffeta dress and carrying a bouquet of talisman roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Rose Galligher and Miss Anna Stelock, were similarly costumed in rose taffeta. A. J. Gargis of Raleigh was best man and the ushers were Milton Brown and Robert Moore of Fayetteville. A reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Michael Stelock.

ENJOY EGG HUNT
Mrs. Ralph Clemmons and Mrs. Margaret Bagley of the Antioch community entertained a number of children and grown-up friends at an Easter egg hunt Sunday at the home of Mrs. Clemmons.

After the egg hunt, during which Lillie White received the prize for finding the greatest number of eggs, the gathering adjourned indoors because of the bad weather. After playing games and singing they went to the dining room where they were served refreshments of candy and lemonade, along with their eggs. Those enjoying this event were: Lillie

White, Roxie White, Elizabeth Hewett, Gertrude Hewett, Erma Lou Lewis, Alvie Earl Lewis, Betty Clemmons, Fred Clemmons, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Baker, Alvin Mrs. Bagly and Mrs. Clemmons, Clemmons, Norman Simmons, them.

Mrs. Ramseur Is Hostess To Club

The Cape Fear Home Demonstration Club held its regular monthly meeting last Wednesday afternoon at Pleasant Oaks Plantation. The meeting was called to order by the president Mrs. Joe Ramseur, and the collect of the club was repeated after singing a song. The minutes were then read and collection taken. Miss Corinne Green gave a discussion on the "Teen-Agers And Their Problems" which was enjoyed by all.

Afterwards Mrs. Ramseur asked about novelty Easter favors which were to be presented at this meeting. Mrs. Robinson had a lovely little girl made from an egg and Mrs. Herman Smith had Micky Mouse. Miss Green had little bunnies made from baby socks and Mr. and Mrs. Bunny Rabbit made from knitting thread.

Several visitors were present, with Mrs. Catherine Russ from the Supply office and Mrs. Bachelor from Wilmington among

New Red Cross Slogan Stresses World Situation

"Keep The Red Cross Ready" Is Seen As Vital As Result Of Recent Events On Globe

With approximately half of their quota unreported, volunteer workers today adopted "Keep the Red Cross Strong" as their slogan for the final days of the annual Red Cross roll call in Brunswick County.

"Recent events make it necessary to adjust our approach to the fund campaign," Mrs. Pearce Cranmer, co-chairman of the county campaign, said in commenting on new developments. "It is important that all communities which have reached the minimum goal continue the drive for maximum subscriptions, and it is doubly important that those still short of their goal shall renew their efforts for success," he continued. The extra emphasis results from the present world situation which increases the need for "keeping the Red Cross ready as the voluntary auxiliary to the armed forces as the nation's agency for disaster relief."

One of the early reports from the nation came from Texas City, Texas, scene of 1947's greatest disaster, where volunteer workers raised double their goal.

20,000 Bushels Of Yams Dipped

TABOR CITY, March 29.— Nearly 20 thousand bushels of seed sweet potatoes have been treated against disease during the first 10 days of the Tabor City Marketing Company, Inc. program, according to Hubert B. Davis, executive secretary of the Merchants Association here. The estimate was based upon
