WEDDING

Wedding ceremony was held at 12 noon at the Methodist church, Wilmington, last Wednesday at 12 noon, Miss Cornelia Jane Holden became the bride of Marion Edward Smith. The Rev. B. C. Reavis, Pastor of the church officiated.

The vows were spoken before a background of floor baskets containing mixed white spring flowers.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. J. J. Fowler, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music including "The Rosary", "Because", "Serrade", during the ceremony. The bridal party entered to the strains of Wagner's "Bridal Procession" from Lohengrin. Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was used as a recessional.

The bride and groom entered the church together and were attended by Mrs. Roger Inman as matron-of-honor and John Herbert Holden as best man.

The bride was attired in a two-piece suit of soldier blue wool gabardine with black accessories. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid.

SMITH-HOLDEN

Mrs. Inman wore a moss green wool suit with neutral and green accessories. Her corsage was of sunburst roses.

The bride is the daughter of Grover T. Holden and the late Mrs. Holden of Holden's Beach, Supply. She has for the past six years made her home in Wilmington where she was employed in the District Office of the Corps of Engineers.

Mr. Smith is the son of Mrs. James C. Smith and the late Mr. Smith of Furman, S. C. He is Commissioned Warrant Officer in the U. S. Marine Corps and is stationed at Quantico, Va.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for a wedding trip to points of interest in Florida after which they will be at home in Quantico.

Among those entertaining for the bride were: Miss Mildred Hilburn, Mrs. S. E. Holden, Mrs. George F. Tienken and fellow office employees.
