SHALLOTTE, N. C.

an off-shoulder blue dress covered with a full pink net skirt. Miss Hewett wore a pink taffeta dress covered with pink net, with a very full skirt trimmed with rosettes edged in blue. The bridesmaids all wore matching miffs, floral designs in their hair and carried old fashioned nosegays with matching satin streamers.

L. O. Baker of Marietta, S. C., father of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Jack Baker, brother of the bridegroom, of Greenville, S. C. Robert Ward, cousin of the bride, Nakina, Lewis Batson, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Greenville, S. C. and Howard Parker, Ash.

Miss Anne Denning, Southport, was ring bearer and wore a white organdy dress fashioned along lines of the bride's and wore a corsage of tuberose.

Mrs. Baker, mother of the bridegroom, chose a pink afternoon dress and wore a corsage of purple orchids.

The bride is a graduate of Mars Hill college and the Woman's college, University of N. C. For the past year she has been employed as vocational home making teacher, Waccamaw high school, Ash. She began graduate work this summer at the University of N. C.

Mr. Baker is a graduate of Clemson college and for the past 2 years has been employed as vocational agriculture teacher, Waccamaw high school. He is now at N. C. State college in graduate work.

Immediately after the ceremony, the wedding guests were received at the bride's home. The home was beautifully decorated with arrangements of colorful flowers.

Those introducing the receiving line and assisting in serving during the reception were Miss Florence Evans, Mrs. Lewis Batson, Mrs. M. L. Evans, Mrs. J. A. Purvis and Mrs. Houston Hewett.

After the reception, the couple left for a trip to the mountains of western N. C., Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia, and S. C. For traveling, the bride changed to a dusty rose suit of wool crepe and wore a small panama hat edged in brown with other brown and white accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bouquet.

HONORS BRIDE-ELECT

Mrs. Jesse Purvis of Ash entertained at a kitchen shower at her home Saturday evening, July 31, honoring Miss Wilma Phelps, bride-elect of August.

Upon arriving the honoree was presented a corsage of sweetheart roses by the hostess.

The large number of guests present registered in the bride's book and offered advice to the bride.

The Purvis home was attractively decorated, carrying out the bridal colors. The table was covered with a lace cloth with candles burning in crystal holders. The centerpiece was composed of Stars of Bethlehem and fern in a crystal bowl, flanked with lace ribbon.

With the guests assembled on the lawn, games and contests were engaged in and greatly enjoyed. Prizes were awarded to the winners. The winner of the honeymoon contest was Mrs. Mary Long, and Miss Corrine Greene won the floral wedding contest.

Mints were passed around during the evening and following the contests brick ice cream and cake were served.

Miss Phelps was presented with many useful and attractive gifts for the kitchen. Around 30 guests were present for the evening.
