Shalotte Point Home Is Burned

Home Of Mrs. Mary Milligan Destroyed By Fire During Early Morning Hours Saturday

A good seven room home owned by Mrs. Mary Milligan of the Shalotte Point community was completely destroyed by fire at 3:30 a. m. Saturday. The fire is supposed to have originated from a heater that was left burning as the night was cold. Mrs. Milligan, who is 70 years old, and her grandson, James Robert Chadwick, 20 years old, were the only occupants of the house. They escaped only in the clothes in which they were sleeping, not even being able to save as much as a pair of shoes. According to residents of the community, there was not a cent of insurance on either the building or its contents. The loss was a heavy one to Mrs. Milligan.

New Orleans Man Sees Advantages

George W. Rappleyea Praises Work Of Local Publicity Man And Urges More Work Along That Line

George W. Rappleyea, war-time vice-president of the great Higgins Industries in New Orleans, La., was in this office Friday. He appropriated the typewriter of our Revlon Reporter and left the following note for the regular user of the machine. Mr. Rappleyea said: "Bill: You are doing a good job. I read the other day where Wilmington asked for $10,000 for publicity. You are doing more to promote Southport and Brunswick county than any $10,000 could ever do for Wilmington. Keep up the good work. Preach Southport and Brunswick county, the climate. Half way between New York and Miami. At the beginning of the Low Country, a land of beautiful flowers. "Near in to Gulf Stream, offering year-round sport fishing, superior to that found anywhere east of Florida. Fine farming and trucking lands, healthy living conditions, good schools, churches and roads. The finest of people to live among. "A town and county rich in history. Southport Pilots were the greatest Blockade Runners of the Civil War, of all wars, with what they had at their command. Without them the South would have been crushed a year sooner than it was. Hollywood could find enough true history material around here for a dozen pictures like Gone With the Wind, only more dramatic. "This should be a mecca for the tourists," concluded the note left by Rappleyea.

Tax Collections Holding Up Well

Citizens Paying In Better Spirit Now That It Is Apparent That Everyone Must Pay Alike

Tax collector Edward Redwine states that Brunswick county tax collections have been unusually good for the months of January and February. This applies both to the collection of current and delinquent taxes.

It is said that the determined stand to collect delinquent taxes is largely responsible for the current collections being above normal. For several years the number of delinquents has been increasing steadily. This is believed to have been partly due to the fact that many people resented seeing their neighbors get away without paying taxes. This created the feeling that if the other fellow was not going to have to pay, they would not either. The present situation is one where all property owners must either pay or have their property foreclosed upon. With no other choice left most of them are paying up and the number of delinquents is decreasing. Auditor W. P. Jorgensen, former tax collector, says that folks are paying in a great deal better spirit because they know the other fellow is paying.

Trawler Towed In By Lifeboat

Crew At Oak Island Makes Trip Off-Shore Monday Afternoon To Bring In Stranded Sea Boys

At work twenty miles or more off Southport Monday at about noon the Lewis J. Hardee Trawler Sea Boys, Captain Kenwood Varnum, developed engine trouble.

A considerable fleet of trawlers were working further offshore but as high seas were beginning to run Captain Varnum decided not to wait for their return and a tow in. He called Oak Island Coast Guard station and the big lifeboat responded promptly, getting the disabled craft to her dock here just at sundown. The lifeboat was in charge of Walter Lewis, E. N. C., Officer in Charge at Oak Island. The officer stated to a newsman that with a convenient Extension Telephone in your own room

Ever wished for the privacy of a desert island when you're on the telephone? It's all yours with an extension telephone.

This is one of the many advantages an extension telephone provides for the home and family. An extension saves time and steps. It improves your service and makes your telephone more valuable by increasing its usefulness. Extension telephones can now be installed in homes at small cost. You don't need to write or come to the office. Just call our Business Office.

Orders for main telephone service are sometimes delayed because of shortages of central office and other equipment, which are not involved in the installation of extension telephones. That's why you can now get extension telephones, though there may still be delays in furnishing main telephone service.
