The B-Hive

Back again this week to tell you the news around Bolivia high.

We didn't have much news last week and it seems as though some of the high school students took that seriously because this week there is plenty.

Seen around enjoying school this week were, Patsy Caison, sitting in the back of the ninth grand room in English class, Flossie Faulk and Harriet Yount, headed for Wilmington, dressed like millionaires.

The eighth grade had a wonderful time at the weiner roast that they gave last Tuesday night at the high school gym. Those seen enjoying the gala occasion were Billie Jane Caison, June Gray, Sylvia Leonard and Virginia Long. Polly Lewis was also having a good time.

Well, folks, this is about all we have for now; so be looking for us next week!

The slow-growing yew tree is found so often in England because it was once the prized wood used in making bows.

REA READY TO

Present plans are to run the line from Lebanon church to the pond, a distance of about 1.6 miles. Girl Scouts of four coun-whipped Southport in the Y.M.C.A. basketball tournament Wednesday night. We really have good ball teams at Bolivia. The girls played ball Wednesday night as they have never played before. We're really proud of our teams.

Bolivia boys team won over the Clarkton quint with the final scores 24 to 20 in favor of Bolivia at the Y.M.C.A. tournament Wednesday night. It was the tourney's seventh game. Hugh Danford, a sharp shooting forward for Bolivia sparked his team to the win by scoring three field goals in the final quarter of play.

Danford and Lindsey Walton were the leading scorers for the winners, each hitting the basket for eight points.

Last Wednesday brought disappointment to some of the high school students. What we mean is that the report cards came out that day. Everybody that didn't pass a subject for this six weeks was wondering if they deserved the low grades they got and believe us, there was a lot of wondering going on!

do a masterful job of freezing until the time ran out.

Southport's trip to the finals was over the rough route of two Brunswick county opponents who refused to be easy. On Friday they faced an inspired Bolivia team which carried them to the limit before dropping a 38-32 decision. Shallotte was the Thursday opponent, and was only during the final quarter that Southport widened the gap for their 35-25 decision.

A third Brunswick county team in Friday night's semi-finals was Leland, whose girls put up a game scrap against the championship Elizabethtown sextet before losing 40 to 19. This was the first loss of the season for the Northwest township lassies, who had defeated Long Creek-Grady the night before.

Long Creek had eliminated Shallotte in opening round play.

Bolivia boys won an opening round verdict over Clarkton, 24-20, and upset Long Creek 23 to 19 to reach the semi-finals. Shallotte boys scored a first-round victory over Rose Hill 31 to 19. Leland boys tripped Waccamaw

Southport Girls Win

Southport girls went down before Bolivia Thursday afternoon and Dixon eliminated the Bolivia sextet the following day 25 to 19. Long Creek was too strong for Shallotte girls in the first round, winning a free-scoring contest 33 to 32. Waccamaw went down before Burgaw 25 to 16 on opening day.

In addition to the championship trophy for the Southport boys two of their players, Tommy Bowmer and Richard Brendle, made the all-tournament team. Johnny Wooten of Leland was a third Brunswick player on the first team for the boys while Pauline Williams earned a second spot on the girls line-up.

Bolivia boys won the sportsmanship trophy in the boys division.
