Star Egg Hunt

James Wolfe and Mrs. Hickman took their Sunday school classes on an Easter hunt at the Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon. One of the features of the hunt occurred when Dr. J. M. Waggett, the Presbyterian church sent a quantity of ice cream for the young folks. They were very appreciative of this treat.

Little Larson won the prize for finding the most eggs and St. George walked off with the honor of finding the egg. The event was very enjoyed.

Seen Around: Hats, suits, dresses, shoes and everything else that comes with Easter. The whole year compared to the sights of Easter is nothing. Since we're sure you all want to know what some of our local boys and girls wore, here goes. Sunday schools all over town were alive when such girls as Lattitia Hickman in her lovely pink bonnet; Nancy Swan in her outfit including a pink gardenia; Mary Ann Loughlin who was dressed just right in her suit and blue accessories; Karen Swan real Easterly from the top of her feather to the tip of her toes; Sue Williamson awfully cute hat and all; and Bernice Phelps dressed in green with white. The McRacken twins also looked mighty nice. After Sunday school we saw Janice Swain in her navy blue; Harriett Corlette in her brown, with white; Stuart Arrington in her navy blue and pink and Elizabeth Lupton in navy blue with white. Don't think our boys didn't dress up because Sonny Hickman had on a new shirt with a lovely tie; Billy McDowell had on a brown suit and an awfully flashy tie and all of our boys looked nice. Sunday morning didn't end Easter however, because in the afternoon we saw Lena Ward, who had a beautiful suit with red accessories; and Linda Hickman, who

As you all may already have guessed, our news this week consists mostly of Easter happenings. Our fellow students have done nothing but chatter and buzz this week, so lend us your attention and we'll begin with the gossip.

Monday we saw Catherine McRacken taking names during second period. We saw Kay Moore on her way to the baseball game in Wilmington. And by the way, we lost by the score of 6 to 3. We saw Darrell Fisher all by himself in the corner reading. Friday night we saw Harriett Corlette, Karen Swan, Nancy Swan, Janice Swan, Lattitia Hickman, Lena Ward, Peggy Arnold and Bernice Phelps watching and listening to our school band practice. Douglas Watts was deeply interested in the sport page of the paper Monday. A few freshmen were discussing what they thought they made on the 6 weeks English test. We saw Agnew Fulcher Sunday afternoon on his way to the hospital to see his mother. We all hope that she will be well and home again soon. Bernice Phelps was showing her cousin, Betty Johnson, our local park Sunday. We saw Lena Ward coming from music class all smiles. We saw some of Richard Brendle's great poetry on the black board of Mr. Sanders' class room. We heard Bobby Spencer telling everyone about stealing home during the game Sunday.

In school we saw Bertram Burris, our Public Pest No. 1, living up to his name by pestering Julia Brown, Martha Buckman and Joan Marie. The seniors and juniors are becoming anxious over the forthcoming banquet. Jackie Marsh, Gloria Hewett, Billy Doshier, Billy Smith and several other young people were seen going to Wilmington to the skating rink. Everyone had a nice time. George Stanley was seen stealing more pencils. Iris Rabon spent the week-end at Winnabow with one of her girl friends. Sue Williamson was seen recuperating from her chicken pox. The sophomores are becoming mighty worried over a biology test. The Freshman girls who are to be waitress at the Junior-Senior banquet have been seen making preparation for the costumes.
