Menhaden Fishermen From Up The Coast Are Working Off Southport And Hauling Catches Back Home For Processing

A number of the Morehead City and Beaufort menhaden boats are working off Southport this week, taking their catches back to their factory when they load up. When only a partial load is taken during a day they come in and remain here overnight, finishing the loading next day. The larger Southport boats, Plaxco, Brunswick, Nickerson and Gifford are all working and good catches were reported Monday and Tuesday. Two other boats, the John M. Morehead and W. P. Anderson, will have their overhauling completed thos week and will join up with the fleet, according to reports. With the factory greatly enlarged and new machinery installed during the winter, the Brunswick Navigation Company is Fletcher Ruark Visited said to be able to handle about double its previous production. The resumption of fishing operations after about three months of suspension is providing considerable

NOTICE OF SPECIAL

BOND ELECTION

To Be Held On June 4, 1949, On The Issuance Of Two Hundred Million Dollars State Secondary Road Bonds, And Twenty-Five Million Dollars State School Plant Construction And Repair Bonds.

The people of Brunswick county will take notice that Governor Scott has called a special election to be held on June 4th, 1949, on the two propositions of whether the State of North Carolina shall issue two hundred million dollars in bonds for paving and repairing secondary roads in the state, and the issuance of twenty-five million dollars to be used by the counties for school plant construction and repairs. Under instructions from the State Board of Elections the registration books for this special election will open on Saturday, May 7th, at 9:00 o'clock, and remain open until sunset on Saturday, May 21st. The various registrars in the county will be at their polling places for registering voters on the three Saturdays of May 7th, May 14th and May 21st.

This is not a special registration, therefore all persons who are now registered on the general election registration books will not have to register a gain for this special election. If you are not now registered in the general election registration book in your residence precinct, you will have to register to vote in this special road and school bond election. If you are not certain you are properly registered now, you had better check with your precinct registrar on one of the three Saturdays mentioned above."
