Women Wedding

and Mrs. W. E. Doshier celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday at their home in Southport, with scores of guests calling to pay their respects between the hours of 3:30 in the afternoon and 9:30 in the evening.

The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and the presence of the dining room was a tiered wedding cake. The scheme of white and pink was carried out in decorations and refreshments.

Gifts were received by Mrs. Brown and Mrs. George Johnson. Mrs. C. C. Kilpatrick, Mrs. C. Cannon and Mrs. Joel W. G. Butler and Mrs. L. Syron.

The couple received many lovely gifts.

The out-of-town guest list included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Seagrove, Mrs. J. and daughter, Mrs. W. and children, Wallace Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. and Mrs. Warren Doshier and seven branch candelabrum holding tall white tapers formed a wedding background for the exchange of vows.

Miss Betty Lou Bryant of Greensboro, a college friend of the bride, was organist and Miss Helen Boone of Albemarle was soprano soloist. Miss Bryant played "To a Wild Rose", "O Promise Me" and Tchaikovsky's Concerto No. 2 during the ceremony and the traditional wedding processional and recessional marches. Miss Boone, accompanied by Miss Bryant, sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Always".

The bride was escorted into the church by her father who gave her in marriage. Miss Purvis wore a ballerina-length gown of white taffeta featuring a sweetheart neckline, scalloped waistline, sleeves ending in calla lily points and fully gathered skirt. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was draped from a half crown of pearl orange blossoms and small calla lilies. She wore a tiny cap of taffeta and matching mitts. Her full gathered skirt was ballerina-length and she carried a nosegay of mixed pastel flowers.

The bride's sister, Miss Mary Joyce Purvis of Ash, was maid-of-honor. She was attired in a gown of peach taffeta, designed with a lace yoke and accented by a scalloped shoulder line. She wore a tiny cap of taffeta and matching mitts. Her full gathered skirt was ballerina-length and she carried a nosegay of mixed pastel flowers.

Other bridal attendants, Miss Janet Bruher and Miss Marian Reeves, both of Salisbury, were dressed in Easter blue gowns, identical to that of the maid-of-honor and held bouquets of mixed flowers.

Mrs. Purvis, the bride's mother enhanced her navy blue dress with a corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Trexler was dressed in gray crepe, black and pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The bridegroom chose as his best man, his brother, John William Trexler. Serving as ushers were: Jesse A. Purvis, Jr., brother of the bride; Harold Melton, Jr., and L. B. Eller, Jr., both of Granite Quarry; and Lee Barger of Salisbury. Frederic Trexler, the groom's brother, was junior usher.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony, Mrs. Trexler changed for travel to a navy blue taffeta dress, navy accessories and white hat trimmed in navy. She wore the orchid from her prayer book as a corsage. The couple motored on their wedding trip to unannounced points. Upon their return they made their home at 109 1/2 Baron boulevard, Lancaster, S. C.

Mrs. Trexler attended Waccamaw and Rocky Mount high schools. At Woman's college, Greensboro, Mrs. Trexler was a member of the Commercial club. Until recently, she held a position in the office of the N. C. Finishing company.

Mr. Trexler was graduated from Granite Quarry high school and studied at Catawba and King's Business colleges.

Among out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Winstead, Jr., Mrs. B. E. Winstead, Miss Vivian Robbins, Miss Sarah Lee Smith, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Robbins and son, Dan, Mrs. A. Eason, Mrs. Herbert Valentine all of Rocky Mount; Mrs. H. E. Cranford of Wilmington; Roscoe Hughes of Ash; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Walker, Jr., of Marion, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Z. G. Ray of Wingate.

Woman's Club

The last business meeting of the Southport Woman's Club for the year was held Wednesday in the library. An interesting feature of the meeting was the report Mrs. James M. Harper, the president gave on the State Federation meeting at Goldsboro in April. She described the incoming and outgoing State Federation Presidents and told of the forceful personality of Mrs. Buck, National Federation President.

Members of the club also decided that the club flower be changed from golden rod to Azalea.

The meeting was adjourned to convene again in September.

House Party

The juniors of Southport high school had an enjoyable house party at Holden's Beach during the week-end. The group left Southport about 1:30 Friday, packed in three cars like sardines. They arrived at the beach about 2:30. After cleaning the house and putting screens in the windows, the girls and boys sat down to a wonderful supper of baked beans, slaw, hot-dogs, drinks and, most important, Lena War's chocolate cake.

After supper they amused themselves by walking along the beach and enjoying the cool breeze. While part of the girls were curling their hair getting ready to get their beauty sleep the boys went on the beach with flashlights chasing sand-crabs. By about 3:30 all except four were settled down for a few hours of sleep. With the help of G. W. Fisher's knowledge of cooking, breakfast was served about 6:30 and was enjoyed by all.

After breakfast, all were seen walking down to the inlet. On the way back, crabs were found and taken to be cooked for lunch. Finally getting home, about half went swimming to cool off. Then while the juniors were taking a good sun-bath the grade-mothers were preparing lunch. After lunch everyone tuned in to Joe and Jimmy Cox over WMFD. Finally supper was served and all enjoyed the meal. A little later Billy McDowell was missed and was found enjoying himself on an airplane ride. The class returned to Southport about 7:45 Saturday night. The members want to express their many thanks to the grade-mothers, Mrs. W. B. Ward, Mrs. G. W. Fisher, Mrs. P. G. Hickman and Mrs. M. T. McRackan.

Given Shower

On Saturday Mrs. Nettie Krox of Bolivia honored her daughter, Mrs. Harold Ray Lewis, with a stork shower.

Games were played and the honoree received many very lovely gifts. Refreshments of lemonade and cake were served to the following guests: Mrs. Harold Ray Lewis, honoree, Mrs. Amelia Achorn, Mrs. Tom Lewis, Mrs. Florence Lewis, Mrs. Edith Reynolds, Mrs. Bertha Bullard, Mrs. Mildred Howes, Mrs. Elbert Knox, Mrs. Minnie Reynolds, Mrs. Claude Leonard, Mrs. Elizabeth Hilburn, Mrs. Arthur Knox, Mrs. Aleese Knox, Mrs. Kenneth McKeithan, Mrs. Thelma Bullard, Mrs. Lloyd Knox, of Whiteville; Mrs. F.
