Pirate Log

This week we have plenty of news for you. It's true that it might not be considered news now because you probably have heard it, but we would like to give you the inside story.

Tuesday morning everything was peaceful until the news began to spread around that Mr. Stone was not re-elected. The studentbody knew what this meant. The school had been running smoothly each year and to change from the principal whom we all love and respect and who has been our helper for many years was too much. It isn't that we wanted a half-holiday or to let the people of Shallotte know there was still a school across the river, but we wanted Mr. Stone back for principal. Neither did the bus drivers and students go on strike for publicity but for the good of our school. The seniors, too, were thinking of their younger brothers and sisters and their future.

Yes, it's true that our committee elected the principal, but it is we that go to school nine months out of each year under his supervision and control.

The three statements: The teachers knew about the parade and strike; school students were forced to sign the petition for Mr. Stone, and the students do not respect Mr. Stone are false. The teachers knew nothing of the parade and strike until both were on their way. Students were asked, but not forced, to sign the petitions. The student body did this on their own accord and the teachers were not concerned. By now anyone should be able to see that we respect Mr. Stone. We as students realize that we owe much to him for the things he has done for the school.

Wednesday the school committee was supposed to meet with the bus drivers and class officers of the high school to give reasons for our principal's release. Only one of the committee came and no reasons were given. After getting no response at all the bus drivers decided to strike.

Wednesday night many parents, students and friends including five representatives from the school attended the meeting of the board of education at Southport.

Audrey Gore spoke in behalf of the studentbody.

With a new committee and the promise of Mr. Stone being back next year, school opened again Thursday morning to many smiling faces. Friday the students were even more happy when they learned that Mr. Stone has been re-elected by the committee Thursday night.

Tuesday night, amid all the excitement, our May Day program was presented in the high school auditorium, instead of the gymnasium as announced before. Songs by the glee club and voice students and dances by the high school and grammar grade students were presented. The highlight of the program was the marching in of the king, queen and attendants. Hilda Hewett, the queen, was very lovely in her white gown. Her attendants were dressed in pastel gowns. Walban Thomas, the king, was handsome in his suit which was appropriate for the occasion. His attendants were dressed accordingly. The program was enjoyed by all.

Friday was quite an exciting day for the juniors and seniors. They, accompanied by a few friends, attended a party given by L. L. Hewett, a senior, at Ocean Drive.

Movies, skating, swimming and a delicious dinner was enjoyed by all.

The seniors entertained the studentbody with their class play, "Kay Meets The Band", Friday morning. It was really a "killer diller" comedy.

We were sorry to hear about Audrey Gore getting spiked while playing baseball Sunday afternoon. Audrey was first baseman on the team. We hope he will soon be able to throw away those crutches.

Wonder why Albert Parker and Jack Robinson won't discuss their hunt Thursday night? Could it be that they weren't successful or they were both a little on the nervous side? Tell us the secret. Boys. Who shot at what?

The winners of the dress show (held 2 weeks ago) and a description of their dresses are as follows: Carol Ann Sellers in a lavender dress-up dress; Norma Jean Lancaster in a sun-back dress; Betty Ann Hewett in a green play dress; Carolyn Holden in a blue school dress; and Victoria Roach in a sunback dress. To the winners "Congratulations" and to the ones who didn't win "better luck next time."

Seen on the camps: Louise Hewett with a new permanent . . . Jan LeHue talking about her vacation at the beach this summer . . . The glee club practicing for the May Day program . . . Miss Gasque working hard . . . Music students practicing for the recital. Oliver White acting in real life, her part in the senior play as a kid sister . . . "Goody" Holden making wise cracks . . . Betty Ruth Sermons showing her new ring . . . The freshmen adding the finishing touches to their dresses in home economics . . . Lois Pigott losing her balance in the store . . . James Hewett talking about the baseball hitting him on his ear . . . Rudy Dell Carter reading during study period . . . A visitor with the nickname "shorty" at school Friday . . . The sophomore economics girls failing a test . . . Mary Fyna Clemmons walking while she supposed to be in study hall . . . James Robbins, W. J. McLamb, Roy Hewett and Joe Carter telling yarns during lunch.

Don't forget to look for "The Pirate Log" next week, Folks.
