Featherless Bird

The young man wired home from his job, saying, "Made foreman. Feather in my cap." A few weeks later he wired again, saying, "Made manager. Another feather in my cap." After some weeks, he wired again saying, "Fired. Send money for train fare home."

His wife unfeelingly telegraphed back. "Use feathers and fly home."

Why Bother?

A famous psychologist had finished his lecture and was answering questions from the floor. A meek little man asked: "Did you say that a good poker player could hold down any kind of executive job?" "That's right," answered the lecturer. "Does that raise a question in your mind?" "Yes," was the reply. "What would a good poker player want with a job?"

Dead And Buried

The children had all been photographed and the teacher was trying to persuade them to buy a copy of the group. "Just think how nice it will be to look at it when you are all grown up and say, 'Rose, she's married.' 'Billy, he's a sailor.'" A small voice at the back of the room piped up: "And the teacher, she's dead."
