

Free Supper At Legion Meeting

Commander E. H. Redwine, American Legion Post 247 at Shallotte, urges all members of the post to attend the regular meeting Friday night.

Preceding the meeting the auxiliary will serve a free supper in the hut beginning at 7 o'clock for all members and their wives.

Mrs. Redwine, president of the auxiliary, also states that Friday night is the time for the regular monthly meeting. She says there will be plenty of food for all guests.

The American Legion is sponsoring Nick Ponos and his orchestra for a dance at the American Legion hut September 14th.

In May the Legion sponsored this same orchestra and everyone enjoyed it so well that they requested a return engagement.

Proceeds from this dance will go for rehabilitation and child welfare work of the auxiliary.

Singing Convention Planned At Bolivia

The Womans Missionary Society of Bolivia Baptist church is sponsoring a singing convention at Bolivia high school on Sunday afternoon, September 11, beginning at 2 o'clock.

Following a short devotional by the Rev. W. R. Moorehead the program will be devoted entirely to singing by the various choirs and other groups.

A general invitation has been extended to have these singers come and participate in the program. The public is invited to attend this event, which it is hoped will become an annual affair. A silver offering will be taken for the benefit of the building fund.

He Says He Does Not Need A Checking Account ...

Only progressive, up-to-date folks see the benefits in depositing their money and paying it out by check.

They know it is hard to make money these days using "Model T" methods. They realize that a dependable source of credit enables them to take advantage of profit making opportunities. And that a checking account protects their money, saves time, and keeps a record of income and expenses.

Most of these smart folks do business with the Waccamaw Bank because they know it will stand by them in bad times as well as good.

You can join the ranks of these prosperous folks by depositing all your tobacco money in the nearest Waccamaw Bank this fall. That's the safe way. And that's the best way to build your credit here.
