OUTMAN - HAWES

Elba Raye Hawes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hawes of Shallotte, and William F. Outman, Jr. of Boiling Springs, S. C., and William F. Troutman, Sr. of Asheville, were married at Chapel Hill Baptist Church at Shallotte, The Reverend J. Bennett, uncle of the bride, officiating using the double ring ceremony.

The ceremony was held in the morning and the bride wore a gown of white satin with a background of native greenery. The center arrangement of the gladioli flanked by seven white candles holding burners. The pews for family and special guests were decorated with bows of white satin.

The music was presented by Miss Ellen Gray, pianist, and Ramona Frink, soloist. Mrs. Frink played "I Love You Truly", "Serenade", "I Love Because" and "Oh, Promise Me". The traditional wedding vows were used. During the ceremony "Claire de Lune" was played by Miss Frink and "The Prayer" for the bene-dicted bride, given in marriage by the brother, Douglas Hawes, wore a blue sharkskin suit with which he used white accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of lavender. The bride had as her bridesmaid her twin sister, Mrs. A. C. Gore. Mrs. Gore was dressed in a blue sharkskin suit with which she used white accessories. Her corsage was of pink rose and white. The ushers were Mr. and Mrs. Merrell Hawes, brother of the bride, and Columbus Outman, a brother-in-law. The mother of the bride was dressed in a navy crepe dress. Her bridesmaids were black and white. Her corsage was of white gladioli. The mother of the bride wore a sheer dress of black and pink gladioli. The wedding was entertained at a reception at home. Mixed flowers and music were used throughout the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and was centered with an arrangement of white gladioli flanked by white tapers in crystal holders. The three-tiered wedding cake, banked by ivy and topped with a miniature bride and groom, was on one end of the table; at the other end was the punch bowl encircled by ivy.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Saunders greeted guests at the door; and Mrs. E. V. Leonard kept the bride's book. Mrs. B. A. Sabiston presided in the gift room. Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Robert Hawes, sister-in-law of the bride. Others assisting in serving were Mrs. Douglas Hawes, Mrs. D. G. Hewette, Mrs. Ernest Parker and Miss Billie Kate Leonard.

Later in the afternoon the couple left for a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. They are now at home in Boiling Springs.

The bride was graduated from Shallotte high school and attended Meredith College in Raleigh for three years.

The bridegroom was graduated from Western Carolina Teachers College and later completed three years of graduate study at Duke University. He was awarded the degree of Master of Arts and is now a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. Presently he is serving as a member of the faculty of Gardner-Webb College at Boiling Springs.
