ny by her father, wore a classic wedding gown fashioned of pale ivory slipper satin. It was designed with a deep portrait neckline and tapered sleeves ending in calla lily points over the hands. The fitted elongated bodice had a corded waist and a bouffant skirt ending in a long train. Her finger-tip two tiered veil of imported French illusion was worn with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses tied with white ribbon.

The maid-of-honor Miss Mary McGill, sister of the bride, wore a gown of burnished gold satin designed with standing cuffs framing the shoulder, fitted bodice and bouffant hoop skirt picked up to show satin ruffles. She wore a matching ruffled bandeau of satin. Her bouquet was of Johanna Hill roses with turquoise satin fashioned like that of the bride's.

The bridesmaids, Miss Helen Davis and Miss Elizabeth Henderson, wore dresses of the same design as that of the maid-of-honor but in peacock blue. They carried colonial type bouquets of pink asters with pink ribbon.

Mr. Parker had as his best man, Charles Campbell of Reidsville. Ushers were Dan Barker of Oxford, Tom Culbreath of Chapel Hill, Gilbert Leonard of Raleigh and Phillip McGill.

The B-Hive

BY TWO-BETTYS

The second week of school went off fine with the students drawing their books and telling all about their vacations while teachers were distributing books to the students.

We have a new supervisor at the school lunch room this year. She is Mrs. Frank Mintz. We are mighty lucky to have such nice folks at the lunch room.

There has been a great improvement in several of the school rooms of Bolivia high since last year. They have been painted light green and dark green and it shows up mighty pretty. We are very thankful for the job being done.

Another great improvement is the paved road around the school campus. That's one of the greatest improvements that has happened around Bolivia in many years.

pended around Bolivia in many years.

Come one, come all to the Bolivia high school auditorium Friday night, September 23, to see the program to be presented by Slim Mims and his Dream Ranch boys. Fun for all folks from 1 to 100 yrs. of age. The show starts at 8 o'clock.

We guess that's about all the news we have this week, but we will be back next week with more for you to read. So look for us then.
