Disabled Vet Movie Coming

Amuzu Theatre Will Show "How Much Do We Owe?" Starring James Stewart

Southport residents will soon see at the Amuzu theater a 10 minute educational movie short dramatizing the story of the Disabled American Veterans.

The film, titled "How Much Do You Owe?" stars James Stewart, famous motion picture actor, and General Jonathan M. Wainwright, hero of Bataan and Corregidor.

With Jimmy Stewart contributing his services and the entire motion picture industry cooperating to make the film and its distribution possible, movie goers will see a dramatic, alive and realistic presentation of the rehabilitation of the disabled veteran.

The recent 28th national convention of the Disabled American Veterans in Cleveland unanimously adopted a resolution commending the motion picture industry for its contribution and a special citation was awarded Stewart.

The story was written by Col. Owen Crump, well known Hollywood writer and producer and was directed by Ralph Staub, able Columbia Pictures director.

Step by step, through the thread of the plot of the short, is the courageous story of the problem facing the disabled veteran. A realistic presentation is made of the problems that every community faces and the manner in which the DAV serves.

DAV FILM TO BE SHOWN HERE

A 10 minute educational movie short dramatizing the story of the Disabled American Veterans will soon be seen in local theaters. Titled "How Much Do You Owe?" the film stars James Stewart, famous motion picture actor, and General Jonathan M. Wainwright, hero of Bataan and Corregidor. Gen. Wainwright is shown presenting Stewart, who contributed his services along with the entire motion picture industry which made possible the film, with special DAV citation. Interested onlooker is the new Mrs. Stewart.

2. The chemistry class skinning him.

3. The home economics classes making baby clothes.

4. The hard-working football team.

Our basketball twins, Catherine and Rebecca McRackan, Nancy Swan, Jan Swan, Linda Hickman, Claire Potter, Lena Ward, Glo Hewett, Toog Phelps, Stuart Arrington, Peggy Arnold, Loretta Spencer, Latitia Hickman, Kay Moore, Juliette Smith and Lib Lupton actually are sewing baby slippers in home economics. We could mention Joan James and Patricia Adams but they sew too good for us.

The football boys of Southport high have amazed everyone with the progress they have made. Just watch Bobby, Boyce and Harold Spencer, G. W. and Darrell Fisher, Tommy Bowmer, Danny Harrelson, Robin Hood, Stud McKeithan, Agnew Fulcher, Paul Arnold, Merle Muncey, William Robbins, Bill Cranmer, Frankie Creech, Albert Doshier, Gene Russ, Billy Sanders, Roger Ward, Billy Cullis and Bill McDowell, practicing on our new football field.

One important event which we can't fail to mention is that Mr. Robinson has found a way to keep Karen Swan, Harriet Corlette, Mary Ann Loughlin and all of his students quiet. Don't tell anyone, but the secret is 150-page themes.

Excitement is running high in Southport this week because of our football game and many other happenings, so here is the news which we have gathered.

Highlights of the week:

1. The biology class killing and cutting up a cat.
