High Times Inquiries About Farms Continue

By: Lib, Jan, Toog and Glo
 This is a week of gossip and nonsense, so lend an ear.

The excitement of Thanksgiving is running high now that we know there will be no school from Wednesday afternoon till Monday. Ain't it wonderful?

The charter members of the Beta Club have seen their pins, and are they classy! You lucky things!

Monday morning we had as our guest speaker the Rev. H. M. Baker and we say on behalf of the entire high school that his talk was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Friday night we saw a few of the teen-ages attending the square dance at the U. S. O. Some of these were Jackie Marsh, Stuart Arrington, Marsha Dilsaver, Louise Gore, a new schoolmate from Florida, and an old schoolmate this (Newton) Hardee...

Gene Watts and Sammy Reese were also seen trying out the new square dance steps... Sunday night at fellowship we heard Patricia Adams, Gloria Lee Hewitt, Catherine and Rebecca McCracken, Nancy and Karen Swan and Elizabeth Lupton singing to the top of their voices and Bobby Spencer going away on the base notes... Monday morning we saw Harold Spencer enjoying an apple during study period (trying to keep the doctor away, no doubt)... Everyone is looking forward to Wednesday so they may see the well known movie "Come With the Wind". We also start our Thanksgiving holidays then... Monday second period we saw the senior class struggling through their six-weeks English exam, and with high hopes of passing... We see Sonny Hickman, Robin Hood, Stud McKeithan, Peter Larsen and a quiet a few others trying their best to finish their book-keeping assignment before the last minute is up.

Well, Folks, so long for this week and here's wishing you a happy Thanksgiving.

ENTERTAINING FRIENDS
 Everett H. Sheppard of Shiloh, N. J. will have several New Jersey friends at his tomato plant farm on the River Road over Thanksgiving. Staying in Southport and at camp, Mr. Sheppard will serve them with a turkey dinner Thursday. Friday the plans are for the party to go to the gulf stream on a fishing trip aboard the Idle-On.

At least three New Jersey truckers are known to be definitely interested in Brunswick county lands that will grow truck, if they can buy or lease at a reasonable price. None of them are hit and miss farmers. They know the kind of land they want and are making no decisions until they have samples of soil for testing and have made a thorough inspection. One young New Jersey man is making definite inquiries regarding about a thousand acres of Brunswick land that he can clear, put in pasture and use for cattle raising.

Long Funeral Is Held In Brunswick

J. C. Long, a native of this county and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Long of the Grissetown section, died in Raleigh Thursday from a hemorrhage. He was about 44 years of age and is survived by his parents, his widow and several brothers and sisters.

The remains were brought to Southport Saturday and taken to the Grissetown cemetery, where burial was held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Gillard Lewis officiated at the funeral services.

Shalotte Man Buying Cattle

Claude Gore has several pure bred Holsteins to add to his dairy herd at Shalotte.

Attending the dairy meeting at Bolivia Monday night and afterwards spending two days with Mr. Knowles visiting and advising farmers who are interested in raising milk cows, R. R. Rich, extension specialist in dairying for State College, was both surprised and pleased at the general interest in dairying and the foundation already laid for such activities by the planting of permanent pastures.

Claude Gore of Shalotte appears to have gotten the jump on all of farmers in the Winnabow, Bolivia and Shalotte sections interested in starting dairy herds.

After milking six cows for the past two years or so and finding a ready sale for all he produced at Shalotte, Mr. Gore recently added 8 purebred holstein cows to his herd and is planning to sell wholesale in Wilmington.

Mr. Gore purchased the cows in Wisconsin, two of them have dropped their calves since he purchased them three weeks or so ago. All of the others are to come fresh in a very short time. He expects to begin regular and continuous deliveries of grade A milk soon.

County Agent A. S. Knowles says that Mr. Gore has his milking barn completed, except for the freezer unit. That will be installed in about a week.

Earl Earp of Winnabow has been putting in more pastures and building towards a dairy herd. His son is in his 3rd year at State College, studying dairying. When he finishes there the Earp farm will be well started with both pastures and cows. It is understood that they will then begin to really increase their herd.

Training School Has Good Squads

Prospects Good For Both Girls And Boys This Season; First Game Results In Victory

Basketball, the major sport of the students of the Brunswick County Training School at Southport, promises to be doubly interesting this winter. The school has what looks very much like a winning boys team, nearly all members regulars from last year.

The girls lost five of their varsity players by graduation. Still unseasoned by practice; a likely looking bunch of girls are coming from last year's junior varsity to weave a strong team around Laurie McCracken and Elizabeth Williams of last year's team. The probable first team for this year will be the above two, Odessa Jackson, Elaine Wortham, Georgianna King and Peggy Davis. The above include a couple of tall girls, something that was needed with last year's girls team.

The stalwarts among the boys this year are about the same as last, Waldo Price, Ted King, Donald Galloway, McKinley Galloway and George Parker. All are extremely fast and good at passing. For substitutes they will have English Jackson, Clinton Parker, Richard Clemmons, Carl Morris, Charles McDowell and Robert Moore.

Coach W. T. Johnson, in charge of both the boys and girls teams has placed basketball at the school on a high plane. A game invariably results in the gymnasium being packed with spectators.

Ash Man Goes Back Into Army

Henry C. Mintz, Route 2, Ash, was enlisted in the U. S. Army Medical Department, November 1, as a sergeant, T/Sgt. Walter K. Malinowski, recruiting Sergeant for Brunswick county, announced this week.

Sgt. Mintz is a veteran with six years service, having been discharged as a sergeant (formerly staff sergeant). His wife and two children will remain at their home in Ash until such time as he receives his permanent assignment.

Sgt. Malinowski also stated that men interested in the Army and Air Force may see him at the following places and times any Wednesday: Southport post office from 9 until 9:30 a. m.; Shalotte post office from 10:30 until 11:30 a. m.; and Ash post office from 2 until 3 p. m. Or they may go to the Air Force Recruiting Station, Room 205, post office building, Wilmington, any Monday through Friday between 8 a. m. until 5 p. m.

CATHOLIC INFORMATION

Gratias Agamus
 That's Latin for "Let us give God."—It comes over and over again, in the sonorous Latin of every devout person, so with us Catholics, too, every day is Thanksgiving.

Each morning, in his Holy Mass, the priest calls on his congregation to give thanks to Almighty God. Standing at the altar, he has just offered bread and wine to the Most High, and now before going on to the sacrifice, he pauses to exhort the people.

"Gratias agamus Domino, Deo nostro,"
 "Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God."
 "It is fitting and just," they reply.

"It is truly fitting and just," he goes on, "right and fruitful unto salvation, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks unto Thee, O Holy Lord, Father Almighty and Everlasting God, through Christ, Our Lord."

The refrain of grateful adoration echoes and re-echoes throughout the consecrated players of our Church.

"We give thanks," says the Angelic Hymn, sung at Mass, "because of Thy great glory."
 "Deo gratias"—"Thanks be to God."

Our Catholic scholars throughout the ages have always taught that the perfect worship of God must include thanksgiving. First, there is adoration, or the acknowledgment of our utter dependence on God; next in order comes thanksgiving; then comes reparation or satisfaction for our sins; and finally there is petition, or the asking of what we need from the good God. None of these should be omitted.

No doubt special Masses of Thanksgiving will be offered in our churches throughout the United States this Thursday, but they will only underscore the belief which is close to every Catholic heart: that of ourselves we have nothing. Our life, health, prosperity, and all the blessings of freedom under the Constitution have come to us from the generous hand of Almighty God, to whom be blessing and thanksgiving forever. Amen.

If it's anything Catholic, ask a Catholic!
