

High Times

By: Lib, Jan, Toog and Glo

Well, folks, here we are again to tell you the highlights and happenings around Southport high school.

To begin with, we would like to tell you about the election of the new cheerleaders. As you probably noticed at the beginning, we still have two of the old ones, Bernice Phelps and Gloria Hewett. But still something new has been added. We have two boy cheerleaders, Agnew Fulcher and Boyce Spencer. Maybe they will help the other boys to yell for the teams this year. We went to chapel Thursday morning and nominations were made. Those being nominated were, Patricia Adams, Harriett Corlette, Bernice Phelps, Gloria Hewett, Doris Bogy, Mary Lib Stanley, Bobby Spencer, Agnew Fulcher and Boyce Spencer. We would like to mention that if Bobby Spencer has not been a ball player, he would have been a cheerleader, because he was voted on unanimously. Mr. Sanders explained that Bobby couldn't be both very well.

One of the great events of last week was the tacky party given by the senior grade mothers at the community building Friday night. There were games, dancing and refreshments. Marcia Dil-saver won a cake for being "the tackiest girl". Linda Hickman and G. W. Fisher was the couple who won a cake for the cake walk.

Ronnie Hood was back visiting us last week and spent Friday afternoon in school with his old friends. We hope that he had a nice time and will come back soon.

On Thursday, December 17, the members of the Dramatics Club are giving their first performance which will be "Dickens's Christmas Carol". It will be given at the school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

On Thursday night the Southport high school Beta Club held a meeting which was followed with their Christmas party. As co-sponsor, Miss Bobbie Long was presented with a Beta pin and the officers were pledged to their duties. Songs were sung, short stories were told and games were played. After the program the members were served by their hostess, Mrs. J. T. Denning. Those present were: Rebecca and Catherine McRackan, Joan James, Lena Ward, Linda Hickman, Peggy Arnold, Doris Stephens, Claire Potter, Bobby Spencer, G. W. Fisher, Mrs. Denning, co-sponsor Miss Bobbie Long.

Seen Around: We saw Miss Long absent from school Friday but we think that anybody who teaches the Junior class deserves a day off occasionally. . . . We saw the girls belonging to glee club going to the auditorium to practice for a special Christmas program. . . . Also the boys were seen going to boy's glee club which has just been started this year. . . . We saw the sophomores drawing names during their homeroom period. . . . Stuart Arrington was seen wearing carnations taken from her corsage that she wore to the R. O. T. C. Christmas dance Saturday night. . . . Latitia Hickman was seen walking around school carrying mistletoe in her hand. . . . Billy Dosher, Billy McDowell, Douglas Watts and Bobby Spencer have started a new fad around school. They've been wearing new twenty-five cent derby's. . . . Every one has been seen using the new pencil sharpener which has been put in the library. Thanks goodness. . . . The seniors were seen ordering their invitation, caps and gowns.

Guess that is all for this week.

Bolivia Juniors To Present Play

How would you like to be in a mountain cabin—miles from the nearest town—and suddenly see a woman who had died months before come walking down the stairs in an evening gown, singing a beautiful song?

"The Singing Ghost" will be produced by the Junior Class of Bolivia high school on the evening of December 15, in the Bolivia school auditorium. This is an unusual mystery play—a play wherein there are plots and counterplots, and enough suspense to keep the audience sitting on the edge of their seat from the beginning to the final curtain.

The story concerns the daughter of a famous opera star who died under mysterious circumstances. Norma, the daughter, is certain that her mother was murdered and sets out to prove it. How this is accomplished forms the major portion of the story. The supernatural element creeps in when the voice of the murdered woman comes out of the empty air, singing an operatic aria that almost drives the various suspects to distraction. The comedy element is furnished by a young colored girl, who "didn't hire out to work for spooks" and who is always trying to get out of the house, only to find things happening outside that are worse than the interior. The curtain will go up promptly at 7:30.

when I surprised her with an EXTENSION TELEPHONE

"Sue was as thrilled as a kid when we had an Extension Telephone put in our bedroom. It certainly is a big help to her in running the house — makes the work go faster — saves trips up and down stairs — is so handy when someone's ill or when she's bathing the baby. I feel a lot safer about Sue when I'm out of town now that she has a telephone close at hand, for emergencies."
