

Choo-Choo Gains Over 5,000 Yds. In UNC Career

On Busy Little All-American Shows That Justice Moved More Than 10 Miles

CHARLIE HILL—Charlie Choo-Choo, the University of Carolina's brilliant All-American punter, has run and passed back more than 5,000 yards during his four-year career, which ended up with the Cotton Bowl against Rice at Dallas last night.

His punting average for four years is 42.6 yards, which also well could be the nation's highest, although statistics are not available. No other Carolina player has been close to this astronomical figure.

Justice Hit the All-America Lists

Justice hit the All-America lists his freshman year, when he made his most remarkable punts. In 1948 he was close to a unanimous choice on the various All-America teams. He has repeated that distinction this year, despite the fact that for the first time injuries and sickness have hampered his punting. This season he had to sit out the Notre Dame game, played the last two contests on one good leg and, before the season opened, was out for three weeks with a virus seige.

All-the-Way Choo-Choo has been second in the balloting for the Heisman Memorial Award the past two seasons. He has won many, many other honors.

Justice, who is 25 years old, weighs 167 pounds, and is married with a sixteen-months old son, has been playing football for 11 years. He consistently maintains that he will not play professional football, that he plans either to coach or go into business.

His wife is pretty Sarah Hunter, a childhood sweetheart in Asheville, his home town. His son is named Charles Ronald. Devoted to both, he lives a quiet life in Chapel Hill as he seeks his diploma in physical education. He hopes to graduate in June. If credits are lacking, he will stick to the classroom until he acquires his sheepskin.

Charlie's father is a railroad man, who wanted the Choo-Choo to play baseball, rather than football. He did play baseball in high school, also basketball. His only monograms that he has

Whiteville Man Elected Head Of District Lawyers

Junius B. Lee, E. Knox Proctor and R. H. Burns, Jr., Honored At Bar Meeting In Wilmington

Junius B. Lee, latest newcomer to the Columbus County bar, was elected Friday night as president of the Eighth District Bar Association which is comprised of Columbus, Brunswick, Pender and New Hanover counties.

Approximately 50 lawyers from the four counties attended the annual meeting which was held at the Famous Club on the road between Wilmington and Carolina Beach.

John Best of Burgaw was named vice president and Nathan Cole, Jr. of Wilmington was elected secretary-treasurer.

Thomas W. Davis of Whiteville was elected counselor, succeeding Lewis Poisson of Wilmington.

Two Whiteville attorneys were named to the district executive committee. The full committee consists of E. K. Proctor and R.

IN MEMORIAM

Benjamin Bennett of the Charlotte section of Brunswick county departed this life at his home November 9, 1949, at the age of eighty-three years, seven months and twenty-four days, having spent his entire life in the county of Brunswick.

He was one of the best known and most highly respected citizens a devoted member of Andrews Chapel Methodist church for seventy-five years, serving in various official capacities with the church he loved. He was a devoted husband and father, loved and respected by everyone who knew him. His life was an inspiration and example and he will be greatly missed.

Mr. Bennett possessed a keen mind, a fine sense of humor and was very companionable. He lived justly towards his fellow men and in the fear of God. He was a Christian gentleman who leaves behind him a devoted wife who walked beside him in his earthly journeys for fifty-six years, through sunshine and shadows, exemplifying a beautiful life, broken only by the death that comes in God's great plans. He awaits the day when they will again be united in the better land.

Funeral services were conducted at the home by the Rev. Edgar Fisher, pastor of Trinity Methodist church, Wilmington; burial in the Bennett family cemetery, floral offerings were beautiful and profuse.

He is survived by his faithful companion, Mrs. Maggie C. Bennett; five sons, G. L. Bennett of Wilmington; M. V. Bennett, Wilmington; Sam T. Bennett, Southport; H. C. and L. B. Bennett, Charlotte. Two daughters, Mrs. L. C. Norris and Mrs. J. B. Smith, Charlotte.

A LOVED ONE

Bar President

JUNIUS B. LEE, young Whiteville attorney who is a member of the law firm of Powell, Lee & Lee, was elected president of the Eighth District Bar Association at the annual meeting in Wilmington Friday evening.
