girls to wear shorts but by Friday they were freezing in wool slacks.

All the talk this week was about the issuing of basketball suits. Among the girls getting new suits were Amelia Kirby, Bernice Cumbee, Mary Emma Tripp, Faye Hewett, Geraldine Browning and Mary Gwen Chadwick as forwards; and Lois Pigott, Marie Fulford, Sammie Boyd, Myrna Clemmons, Evelyn Parish and Kathleen Clemmons as guards. The boys getting new suits were Jack Robinson, Billy Gray, Elmer Dance, Bobby Stanley, Floyd Kirby, Jr., Albert Parker, Scott McKeithan, Thomas Gray, Roy Hewett and James A. Hewett. To keep these suits the players will have to do their best. If they don't and someone without a suit gets to be better than they are, the best player will get the uniform.

Speaking of basketball there was a thrilling game at Shallotte on Tuesday night. The opponents were the Myrtle Beach teams. The girls game was really a killer! At the end of the third quarter the score was a tie of 21 to 21. When the game ended the score was 39 to 28 in favor of the Shallotte girls. When time for the boys game came, the Myrtle Beach boys got the jump. The game ended with a score of 40 to 18 in favor of Myrtle Beach.

Wednesday group pictures were taken for the annual.

All this week there was a drive on for the lunch room. We would like to get money to build a new one but now we'll settle to have it enlarged. Practically everyone in high school has guessed the number of beans in a par or the date of money to get a box of candy. This is the way some of the grammar grade students are raising money. In high school there have been cake walks, turkeys given away to the person with the lucky number and of all things the freshmen boys sold fortunes.

Friday night the Bolivia teams took over both of our teams at Shallotte. The girls game ended with a score of 30 to 22 while the boys score was 30 to 25 in favor of Bolivia.

For those interested in the Shallotte teams, there will be a list of all the games of these teams, some time soon in this paper.

Farm Bureau Slates Brannon Plan Fight

National Organization Resolves To Oppose Subsidy Proposal Advocated By Secretary Of Agriculture

FAIR TRIAL FOR 1949 FARM ACT IS SOUGHT

Flexible Price Supports Is Seen As Preferable To "Handout" From The Federal Government

CHICAGO, Dec. 19—(AP)—The powerful American Farm Bureau last week resolved to fight the Brannon farm plan backed by President Truman.

Instead of Brannon's plan for big direct subsidies, the bureau voted in favor of flexible price supports along lines of the compromise farm bill enacted this year by Congress.

The 5,000 farm leaders from 48 states declared Brannon's plan would cost a staggering sum and make farmers dependent on federal handouts.

The convention urged farmers to cooperate with programs of the 1949 farm law and said it will seek "any necessary revisions" after it has been given "a fair trial."

Thursday's formal action climaxed several days of convention speeches blasting the Brannon plan. The plan's author, Secretary of Agriculture Brannon, was cold shoulder when he indirectly asked for a chance to plead his case.

The convention adopted a resolution saying Brannon's plan would have the government "pay part of the grocery bill of every citizen."

The Brannon plan would let perishable farm product prices find their natural level. If such prices failed to give farmers a pre-determined fair return, the government would pay the difference in subsidies.

The 1949 farm law provides for flexible price supports on basic commodities, ranging from 75 to 90 per cent of parity instead of 72 to 90 per cent as provided in the 1948 law. It follows farm bureau recommendations.

The parity concept measures a fair exchange relationship between the price of commodities the farmer sells, and the price of things he buys.

and Myrna Clemmons enjoying basketball practice very much Saturday morning. . . . Glenda Summerset and Mary Emma Mintz having to divide the cake with Billy Gray and Elmer Dance since it was a tie. Two eighth graders won the other cake. . . . The students who were lucky enough to get one of the new rooms in the auditorium having classes since the weather changed. There isn't any heat in the rooms. . . . The boys with bells on their hats. This fad doesn't altogether belong to the boys because the girls started it. . . . Floyd Kirby, Jr., and Huey Hewett putting up new lights. Now windows have also been put in the gym. . . . and everybody dreaming of the Christmas holidays.

Since this is the last Pirate Log to be printed before the holidays we would like to wish you a very Merry Christmas.
