Death Enters Home of Sheriff Marley-- Personal Mention.

Mrs. Fred Kinney, of Winston, is visiting relatives and friends here this week.

Miss Montie Jennings gave a nice little party Saturday night in honor of Mrs. Kinney, which was enjoyed very much by all.

A number of our young people gave a surprise "Pounding" party at the home of Mr. William Johnson. Mr. Johnson's sister, Miss Elma, is sick and her friends gave this party as a token of their sympathy and friendship. Their act is very commendable.

Misses Fannie Kinney and Mamie Elkins, of Franklinville, spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cox.

Mr. T. H. Brown, of Greensboro, has moved here and accepted a place in the mill.

Fred Glass has accepted the Railway agency here, effective Saturday February 9th.

There are several cases of gripe in and near town.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, of Staley, were here a few days the latter part of last week.

W. P. Moon went to Greensboro Friday morning.

Mr. J. C. Parrish, Foreman of Carpenters on the Southern Railway is here with a force covering and repairing the depot.

Saturday morning we were grieved to learn that during the early vigil of the morning grim death had visited the home of Sheriff Marley and placed his icy fingers on the frail form of little Hornie. Little Hornie had been sick for only a short time but really had never quite recovered from the severe attack he had last summer when he was operated upon by Dr. Men. Johnson, now of Greensboro. The remains of the deceased were interred in Deep River Cemetery. The Rev. Mr. John Rouse performed the last honors by the grave side where the gentle waters of Sapona seemed to sing a sad farewell to this little bud of hope, this little bit of sunshine. The bereaved family have our heartfelt sympathy.

The Rev. Mr. J. J. Eads preached an excellent sermon in the M. E. Church here Sunday night. This is the first sermon preached in the new church.

Mrs. W. T. Wrens has been quite sick but is some better at this writing.

Death of Mrs. Sexton.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sexton, wife of Mr. Pegrum Sexton, died at her home in New Hope township February 1st and was buried at Mt Ebal church by her pastor Mr. Reynolds February 2nd. Mrs. Sexton was 34 years old.

She was a good neighbor, a loving wife and a good mother and loved by all who knew her. She leaves a husband, one son and four daughters to mourn their loss besides a host of relatives and friends. The family have the sympathy of the county.

A FRIEND

Gray's Chapel.

Engene Heath, who has been with the Freeman Mill for some time, has moved back to this community.

J. W. Heath went to Greensboro last week on business.

John Wilkinson, who sold his interest in the store at Wilkesboro to Mr. C. C. Kane, of Mt. Grove, has sold his farm here to Messrs. J. M. Johnson and J. W. Heath, the consideration being $10,000.00.

Miss L. Nix is the popular "Girl Teacher" of Hardwick school in the community.

Extensive preparations is being made for an entertainment to be given on the closing day of Bethel school on Ashboro R.F.D. No 1.

Carthage Blade.

Mrs. Elizabeth Larkin died at the home of her son, J. V. Larkin at Carthage, last week. Mrs. Larkin leaves two sons, Messrs. J. V. and J. C. Larkin.

Another buggy factory is proposed for Carthage, to manufacture a cheaper grade of buggies than are now being made by Messrs. Tysor & Jones Buggy Co., also of that place.

The following jurors have been drawn for the term of March court:

J. D. Armstrong, R. W. Cole, Levi Maness, J. W. Caddell, D. M. Phillips, M. N. Suggs, Geo. P. Markham, K. E. Craven, J. H. McDonald, B. L. Brady, Allie McNeill, Eli Williamson, R. T. Cole, A. E. Kelly, W. B. Webster, W. J. Wade, C. C. Phillips, M. McKilly, Malcom Brown, J. C. Campbell, J. A. McBryde, J. C. Blue, E. P. Pearce, T. M. Gross.

Keep In Good Health.

There are many thousands of people all over the world who can attribute their good health to taking one or two Brandreth's Pills every night. These pills cleanse the stomach and bowels, stimulate the kidneys and liver and purify the blood. They are the same laxative tonic pill your grandparents used, and being purely vegetable they are adapted to children and old people, as well as to those in the vigor of manhood and womanhood.

Brandreth's Pills have been in use for over a century and can be obtained in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar-coated.

An Explanation.

Several months ago I was engaged for a bridge to be built over a small stream. David Thomas, Superintendent of the bridge, was informed that the bridge was to be built of bridge timbers and other timbers for use at the site. I was present when the bridge was built and I preferred the term "bridge" to the term "timbers" as it was the plain and simple term used in the past.

Very respectfully,
J. M. Vance,
March 5, 1907.
