At one stage of my life I was At one single of my life 1 was rather ashamed to admit that I was gluomy on cloudy days because I thought it was a sign of weakness or perhaps of sentimentalism. Since careful consideration of the matter I amglad to recognize the fact that some days may be a sign of sentimentalism. matter I amglad to recognize the fact that g owny days make me gloomy, and that I am imper on bright days, unless I have material cause to be otherwise. Aslamed, Arr. Thom.

Let usue of us be ashamed of our allivity with nature, of the case with which heraspects move as, for it speaks of our affinity with life and beauty, and God. Some people are beauty, and God. Some proud of their immovable matures. they boast of their steadiness with alacrity. I tell you that only the hare-brained are unmovable. Don't hare-brained are tunnovable. Don't boast of your adamant feelings, or that you can't be moved by the sweet and touching things of life, because it is a sure sign that you are either hare brained or stubborn, And I would rather be hare-brained than stobborn. Remember that "The wind will rock a tower, while it whistles right through an old empty hut."

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON X, FIRST QUARTER, INTERNA TIONAL SERIES, MARCH 10.

Text of the Lesson, Gen. xxvi. 12-23. Memory Verses, 10, 17-Golden Text. Matt. v. b - Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1975, by American Press That we should be asked to omit all these intervening chapters and specially chapters xxii and xxiv seems too had indeed, and we simply can't do it and have the mind of God. The weakness and wickedness of man are seen in Abraham's siming again because he gave way to thoughts and fears (xx, 11). The birth of Isane when his father Abraham was 100 years eld, the casting out of Hagar and Ishmael, the angel's cure of Hagar and the new name of God, the everiasting God (El-olam), are found in <text><text><text><text><text> xx). Chapter xxli gives us the most wonderful peture in the whole Bible of the father offering up his only son, the father carrying the fire and the knits, and the bay carrying the wood and asking. "Where is the limb for a burnt offering?" Abraham re-ceiving Isnas buck from the dead in a frame disclosed by an the therd day General theory of the first day, in nis earlier career, when he did not on Mount Moriah, where the forme to dream that inst former would and on Mound Moriah, where the foun-dation of Solomon's temple was after-ward laid, the ram offered in Isnae's stead, the new name of the place de-heralit Just, the Lord will see or pro-vides.
