MANY POINTS OF INTEREST.

Points of Historic Interest—Jamestown Exposition Building.

At Hampton Roads, just off the Exposition grounds, was fought the great battle between the Monitor and the Merrimac, during the Civil War, the first battle between iron-clads. The fortifications from which a land force of Confederates participated in this battle are on the Exposition grounds.

Williamsburg, the second capital of Virginia, seat of the second oldest college in the United States.

Richmond, the capital of the Southern Confederacy, and an important point in history, is only a few hours' ride from the grounds.

Petersburg, where the Civil War were fought, is near by, and Appomattox, where General Lee surrendered, is about three hours distant.

Jamestown Island; where the first permanent settlement of English-speaking people was made in America, is two hours run from Norfolk. Here are still to be seen remains of the old settlement of three centuries ago and a museum of old historic relics of the early days of America.

Craney Island, at the mouth of Elizabeth River, near Norfolk, is another point in American history.

CHAMP CLARK ON DEMOCRATS.

What they Accomplished in the Congress just ended.

The performances of Congress remind me of the piece in the old reader of how the grasshopper sings the summer away and comes to grief in the winter. Congress fooled away the first five weeks of the three months' session, and then rushed, jammed, banged things through in the last ten days.

Little was done at the short session except to pass the great supply bill. The most important measure passed was the sixteen hour bill, and the most of the credit of that belongs to the Democrats.

We forced the fight; we won the victory; and it is the most brilliant victory achieved by a minority in many a day.

The most important measure defeated was the ship subsidy bill! The Democrats aided by a few Republicans, came within three votes of doing it to death in the House. It was a battle royal from start to finish, and I shall always regret that the honors of beating it so narrowly escaped the House, but there's no sense in crying over spilt milk. What the House failed to do by a "Georgetown graze," as they say in Kentucky, Senator Carmack, of Tennessee, aided and abetted by certain of his Democratic brethren, accomplished in the Senate, where debate is unlimited.

Mr. Carmack deserves praise. This ship subsidy was the camel's nose to be inserted in the tent and would have been followed by similar bills appropriating hundreds of millions to hire people to do a thing which they would be glad to do if we would repeal the idiotic laws which drove our merchant marine from the high seas. The chances are that this is the last charge of the old ship subsidy guard.

The worst bill passed at this session, and one of the worst ever passed, was the so called Aldrich currency bill, which makes a present, as it was intended to do, of millions annually to certain pet national banks in and about New York, which no doubt will furnish the Republicans with sinews of war in future campaigns.

The denatured alcohol bill is a tip top measure, and will enable the farmers to make up surplus products into denatured alcohol, which will revolutionize heating, lighting, and motive power. In order to get a bill that would do any good it was necessary to overthrow Senator Aldrich temporarily at least which was done by the Democratic Senators, aided by certain Republican Senators from great agricultural States.

These are the principal measures, good, bad, or indifferent.

Earth's Angels.

None ever saw an angel
Except the ones in books,
I don't believe a mortal
Knows how an angel looks.
We guess at something misty,
With trailing wings of white,
With amber tresses floating,
And garments strangely bright.

But I believe that angels
Walk here in mortal guise;
Through we discern but faintly
Though heavy lidded eyes,
Or see them as they leave us,
Who walked before us here,
Their angelhood quite hidden
Because it lived so near.

I can remember angels
Who seemed but common folks,
Who wore old fashioned bonnets
And faded winter cloaks;
Who came when dire disaster
Crowned lesser home mishaps,
Or when new claimants crowded
The dear maternal lap:

With curving arms wide open
To take the weary in,
With patient love to listen
To childish want and sin,
What better thing could angel
For childish sinners do
Than listen to their story,
And bid them strive anew?

And there are fireside angels
Upon whose faded hair
We see no crown of glory—
And yet the crown is there!
Then, there are mother angels—
With patient love and true,
Whose loving hand upholds us
The darkest trials through.

Alas! the childish angel
Who beckons as I write—
Perchance I should not know him
In mystic robe of white,
He wears a schoolboy's jacket,
And where the shadows fall,
I wait, through long and lonely years
To catch the long lashed call.

MRS. SARAH J. WINDROM

Mrs. Sarah J. Windrom of Chicago, cousin of Zachary Taylor, twelfth president of the United States, and grandniece of Alexander Hamilton, who signed the Declaration of Independence, says:

"Vinol is a Godsend to old people. I am 76 years old, but have a hearty appetite, sleep soundly, and feel active and well today, thanks to Vinol. When I was young cod liver oil was dispensed in a greasy, unpalatable form, and it fairly gagged me to get it down. Vinol is entirely different, very palatable and nourishing to impoverished blood. It is the finest tonic and strength creator I ever used in my life."

Vinol is a real cod liver preparation, from which the useless oil has been eliminated and tonic iron added. Try Vinol on our guarantee.

The Pages Lease Th. D. & C.

The following from News & Observer of Saturday March 9th, throws light upon the reason why Mr. Blair withdrew his bill which he had introduced. The Asheboro and Aberdeen Railroad has made a contract to operate the Durham and Charlotte for a long term of years, and Mr. Henry Page president of that railroad, some days ago sent a bill to Senator Blair, of Montgomery, which if it passed, would give an authority to take up the track of a portion of the Asheboro and Aberdeen Railroad serving the people of a portion of Montgomery county. When Mr. Blair got the bill, he notified the leading business men of Troy and other portions of the county and they immediately telegraphed, saying that, as shippers, they opposed the bill permitting taking up any portion of the track. A mass-meeting at Troy was held and resolutions adopted against the bill proposed by Mr. Page, where upon Senator Blair withdrew the bill which he had been holding up until he could ascertain the views of the people of his county.

The Durham & Charlotte Railroad is completed from Gulf on the old C. F. & Y. V. line across the upper edge of Moore County into Montgomery County at Star, and the grading is completed almost to Troy and will soon be to Troy.

Greatest Foe to Physical Beauty.

If I were asked what was the greatest foe to beauty in both man and woman, I would say, not errors in diet, not lack of exercise, not overwork, not coarseness, not any one of these, but bad mental habits. If we observe closely the faces of the people we meet at random on the street, at the theater or in the great shops, we will observe that nearly all of them are characterized by the lined mouth, the drawn brows and other facial disfigurements which accompany bad mental states.

What do I mean by bad mental states? I mean anger, fear, worry, anxiety, irritability, regret, envy, jealousy, lack of trust in oneself and in the Great Good—all these are bad mental states; and all these destroy beauty, not only by interfering with the action of the vital organs, but by directly disfiguring the expression of the face.

Unless the beauty seeking young woman is prepared to deliberately cultivate good nature, kindness, calmness, cheerfulness even to hilarity—unless she is prepared to deliberately conquer all tendencies to the bad mental states above mentioned, there will be little or no results from her efforts to develop in herself that most divine gift of beauty. —From "Health the Basis of Womanly Beauty," by Dr. W. R. C. Latson, in The Outing Magazine for January.
