MOORE COUNTY NEWS.

N. R. Lewis' saw Mill at Glendon was burned last Friday night; also a lot of lumber; loss about $500.

The Carthage and Pinehurst R. R. expect to be running trains into Carthage by July 15th.

The little three-year old child of John Henry Carrington, colored, was badly burned at Carthage Monday. The mother was doing some washing, and had a fire around the wash-pot in the yard. The child got too close to the fire, and was quickly enveloped in flames.

Tuesday of last week while digging a well for Ed Leonard, near Pilgrim, Davidson county, Ed Clark, colored, was seriously injured by a bucket of stone descending 50 feet on the top of his head.

Jake Haines, of Denton, was married a few days ago to Mrs. Eula Rogers Tate, of St. Petersburg, Fla. They will make their home at Denton where Mr. Haines has extensive timber interests. Mr. Haines is a business partner of A. E. Davis of this county.

Simmons for National Chairmanship.

Special to The Observer.

As a matter of course the national committee of the Democratic party will change its chairmanship next year. There have been suggestions of Senator Martin, of Virginia, by papers of that State for the succession. We do not know of his qualifications for the national chairmanship, but there is one man whose qualifications we do know of and of whom we can speak with confidence. This is Senator Simmons, of North Carolina. He has the genius of politics and is big enough and skillful enough as a captain for the place.

To Prevent Consumption.

Physicians of Tuft's Medical School, of Boston, Mass., have been experimenting for months with vaccine inoculation as a remedy and cure for consumption. The object of the study is to prepare a vaccine that will sufficiently strengthen the resisting powers of the blood that death from the great White Plague will be occasional instead of common. They claim success in their efforts, several cures having been affected.

The American Magazine.

The most interesting thing in The American Magazine current is the first installment of Ray Stannard Baker's studies of the race question in the South, "Following the Color Line." This article is confined to Atlanta and treats for the most part the recent riots in that city giving the point of view of both races. It is very good reading and is illustrated. The title of another article especially thrills The Observer, "At Last We Can Fly." There is much other good matter in this number.

Mrs. Carr Improving.

Mrs. Lula B. Carr, who suffered serious injury by being thrown from a buggy at Greensboro, in which she was riding four weeks ago, is recovering very satisfactorily and her physician says she will be able to leave St. Leo's Hospital in about ten days.

Run Away To Wed.

Durham, April 17.—Mr. Louis A. Sears, of Independence, Missouri, and Miss Kate Sears, of Chatham county, came here to get married last week. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Harmon Sears, a prominent farmer of Chatham, and she is a very popular young woman.

Every woman appreciates a beautiful complexion, so much desired by men. Such complexions come to all who use Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Sold by Standard Drug Co.

A man never boasts that he dosen't know the meaning of fear when his wife is present.

Thousands have pronounced Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea the greatest healing power on earth. When medical science fails, it succeeds. Makes you well and keeps you well. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Sold by Standard Drug Co.

Mix This at Home.

The following simple home-made mixture is said to readily relieve and overcome any form of Rheumatism by forcing the kidneys to filter from the blood and system all the uric acid and poisonous waste matter, relieving at once such symptoms as backache, weak kidneys and bladder and blood diseases.

Try it, as it doesn't cost much to make, and is said to be absolutely harmless to the stomach.

Get the following harmless ingredients from any good pharmacy: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and again at bedtime.

This simple mixture is said to give prompt relief, and there are very few cases of Rheumatism and Kidney trouble it will fail to cure permanently.

These are all harmless, every day drugs, and your druggist should keep them in the prescription department; if not, have him order them from the wholesale drug houses for you, rather than fail to use this, if you are afflicted.

DAUGHTER OF C. W. STUMP

Mrs. C. W. Stump of Canton, Ohio, writes: "I wish I could induce every mother who has a weak, sickly child to try that delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol. Our little daughter was pale, thin and sickly.

"We tried various medicines, but without any benefit whatever, and she could not take cod liver oil or emulsions, as they nauseated her and upset her stomach.

"Learning that Vinol contains all the medicinal and strength-creating properties of cod liver oil, but without the disagreeable oil, we decided to try it, and the results were marvelous, so quickly was she restored to health and strength.

"We have never sold a medicine equal to Vinol for delicate children.

Saw Moon Over Right Shoulder.

A man saw the recent new moon over his right shoulder, and he has expected trouble ever since. It came the other morning, when he fell over the railing of the back porch with a pan of ashes in his hand. There was just ice enough on the porch to throw him against the railing which was just high enough to give him the necessary tip and the law of gravitation and the ashes did the rest. The neighbor who saw him alight and said it resembled the firing of some old Fourth of July cannon loaded with the old fashioned smoky powder and charged with ash pan, grief and profanity. It is said the man cussed everything from the new moon to breakfast. That's what he got for believing in signs.

Renunciation.

The penalties of a "fast life" are thus portrayed by the Moore County News:

The man who takes the red, red wine,
Can never glue his lips to mine.
The man who chews the navy plug
Will in our parlor get no hug.
Who smokes, drinks or cuts a deck
Shall never, never bite my neck.
Don't you monkey with those cards
Or never can we be pards.
The man who gurgles lager beer,
Can never, never chew my ear.
Drink nothing stronger than red, pop,
Or in your lap I'll never flop
If aught but water you ever taste
Just keep your arms off my waist.
If you drink wine or other slop,
You can never hear my corset pop.
The man who smokes a cigarette"
Can never squeeze me you can bet.

What's ster Name.

Moved by the grief of a man who's wife had just died, and seeking to console the mourner the minister said "My brother I know this is a great grief that has overtaken you and although you are compelled to mourn the loss of one who was your companion and partner in life, I would console you with the assurance that there is another who sympathizes with you and seeks to embrace you in the unfailing arms of love." At this the bereaved man looked up quickly and asked "what's her name?"—Ex.

Selected.

The sweetest lives are those to duty wed,
Whose deeds, both great and small,
Are close-knitted strands of an unbroken thread;
Where love ennobles all.

The world may sound no trumpets, ring no bells
The Book of Life the shining record tells,
Thy love shall chant its own beatitudes
After its own working. A child's kiss
Set on thy singing lips shall make thee glad;
A poor man helped by thee shall make thee strong;
Then shalt be served thyself every sense
Of service that thou rendered.
