Crotts-Briles.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized at the home of J. L. Briles Wednesday evening, April 10, when Miss Osa Briles and Charles Crotts were pronounced man and wife by David Farlow, minister of the Friends Church.

The bride and groom are popular among a large circle of friends. The bride was beautifully dressed in white silk and lace.

The house had been beautifully decorated for the event and it was a happy scene when the bride and groom were seated at the altar, surrounded by only immediate friends of the young couple. The bride attendant was Miss Florence Rush, of High Point, and the groom attendant was Mr. Gurney Boyles, of Thonassville.

After the ceremony the party retired to the dining room where a beautiful feast was spread. The bride is a popular and accomplished daughter of J. L. Briles of Trinity, and will be missed in their neighborhood by her friends. The groom is highly esteemed and is engaged in the lumber business. On Thursday a dinner was tendered by the bridal party at the home of the groom's brother, Mr. Thomas Crotts.

SCHOOL ELECTION.

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of an act of the General Assembly at its session of 1905 (entitled) An Act to Authorize and Empower the Board of Graded School Trustees of Ashboro, to issue bonds to provide for the payment of the bonds issued under Chapter 413 Private Acts of 1905, and ratified on the 21st day of March, 1905, an order was made and adopted by the board of town commissioners of the town of Ashboro at a meeting held on April 14th, 1905, providing for an election to be held at the courthouse in Ashboro, and said election will be held at said place on the 28th day of May, 1905, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of said town of Ashboro the question on issuing bonds in the amount of five thousand dollars ($5000), with interest coupons, as set out in sections one and five of said act, which sections are as follows:

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA DO ENACT:

Section 1. That the Board of Graded School Trustees of Ashboro shall be and are hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds of said graded school district to an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars, subject to such determination and in such proportion as said board of trustees may deem advisable bearing interest from date of issue at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum with interest coupons attached, payable half yearly at any time and place as may be deemed advisable by the board of trustees, and the date of such form and bond and transferable in such way and the principal thereof payable or redeemable at such time or times not exceeding twenty years from the date thereof, and at their place of issue as said board of trustees may determine. Provided, that the said board of trustees shall issue such bonds at such time or times, and in such an order and amount, as may be required in order to meet the expenditure hereinafter provided for in section two of this act.

Section 2. That for the purpose of providing for the payment of said bonds and interest thereon and of defraying the expenses of the public graded school district, the Board of Commissioners of the town of Ashboro shall annually and at the time of levying the municipal taxes commencing with the fiscal year beginning the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seven, levy and pay for a particular tax on all persons and subjects of taxation within the limits of said graded school district, on which said board of commissioners may now or hereafter be authorized to lay and levy taxes for any purpose whatsoever, said particular taxes to be not less than one cent on the one hundred dollars assessed valuation of property in addition to the body vote authorized under chapter 413 of the Private Acts of 1905, and not more than ten cents on each taxable poll in addition to the amount authorized under chapter 413 of the Private Acts of 1905.

That for the purpose of holding this election an entire new registration is hereby ordered, and L. C. Anderson is hereby appointed registrar and said registrar shall be furnished with the registration books of the town of Ashboro and shall give due notice, said registration books shall be kept open and closed for registration as required by law.

The following are hereby appointed judges for said election: F. B. Morris and W. A. Pafford, who shall provide box for said election, hold registration and make returns as required by law.

By order of the board of commissioners of the town of Ashboro. This April 15, 1907. ELIJAH MOFFITT, Mayor.
