No greater mistake can be made than to consider lightly the evidence of disease in your system. Don't take desperate chances on ordinary medicines. Use Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents Tea or Tablets.—Watkins-Leonard, Co. Rameur N. C.

DEATH OF MRS. BULLA.

Community Feels Deeply The Loss—Host of Sympathizing Friends.

Mrs. Tilatha Bulla, wife of the late B. B. Bulla, died Sunday afternoon at her home on Academy street after a short illness. Mrs. Bulla had been in declining health for several months, but her illness was not critical until about three weeks ago, when she took a rapid decline.

Mrs. Bulla was 77 years old and was highly esteemed by those who knew her. Her whole life was wrapped up in devotion to her children and her home, where happiness was the chief aim. She will not only be missed at home, but the host of friends will deeply mourn her demise.

The deceased is survived by four children, Miss Nannie Bulla, who lived with her aged mother; Lewis D. Bulla, also of Asheboro; Jno. D. Bulla, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Lura Brower, of Atlanta. Mrs. Bulla's husband, who was at one time clerk of the Superior Court of Randolph county, preceded her to the grave many years ago.

The funeral was conducted Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock from the M. E. Church.

The death cast a gloom over the entire community, and a host of friends of the bereaved family gathered in a last tribute to the lovely life now ended.

MARRIAGE AT LIBERTY.

Mr. Womble and Miss Love, of Raleigh, United in Holy Bonds.

Jno. M. Womble and Miss Ora J. Love, of Raleigh, were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. West, at Liberty last Friday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. L. Grisson, of this city, pastor of the M. E. Church, South, at Liberty. The bride was becomingly attired in a blue traveling dress. The wedding march was played by Miss Minnie Causey, of Liberty. The wedding was a quiet affair, only a few relatives and friends attending. The bride and groom were the recipients of a large number of handsome and useful presents.

The bride is an attractive and lovable young woman, and for several years has made her home in Raleigh, holding a position in the store of Dobbin-Ferrall Company. She is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. West. Mr. Womble is a member of that firm and is one of Raleigh's most successful and enterprising young business men.

IN GUILFORD COURT.

C. B. Craven, Administrator, Given a Verdict For Twenty-five Hundred Dollars.

The case of C. B. Craven, administrator, against the North Carolina Railroad Company was given to the jury at Greensboro Friday, and a verdict was rendered in an hour giving the plaintiff $2500 for the death of his son who was killed in September of the year 1905 by a shifting engine near Beck's Crossing. At the same time with Mr. Craven's son was killed Leslie Geringer whose case was tried at a previous term, and a verdict given for $8,000. In the Geringer case, although similar in circumstances to the Craven case, the defendant had no witnesses to testify, and an appeal has been taken.

Base Ball at Flynt Hill.

The game of ball between Flynt Hill and Back Creek teams Saturday afternoon on the Flynt Hill diamond resulted in a score of 18 to 20 in favor of the Back Creek boys. The feature of the game was a park hit by Robert Millikan, which landed the ball in the woods back of the diamond, the ball being lost for one hour.

THE NEW FOUNTAIN.

"Innovation". The Handsome Fountain of W. A. Underwood at Randleman.

The new Soda Fountain installed by W. A. Underwood at Randleman, in his down-town store is a marvel of beauty and is one of the handsomest in the State.

It is the "Innovation" made by the Liquid Carbonic Mfg. Co. of Chicago.

The counter is fifteen feet long with an 18in. wide marble slab to cover. The base board is white marble, while the counter proper is mahogany.

The draft tube is solid Mexican onyx with six drafts. It is connected to a jewel carbonator which does away with the old fashioned steel fountains.

The super-structure rests against the wall and has a French plate mirror, 8ft. high by 12ft. long. The base is fitted with a large refrigerator which is porcelain lined, while on either side are cold storage for all kinds of fruits and etc.

The syrup jars are porcelain throughout with gutta percha pumps in each.

The syrup is drawn and carbonated water drawn in glasses without the operator turning his back to the customer.

The fountain is something entirely new for Randolph county and attracts the attention of all visitors to Randleman.

Jefferson Memorial

The Randolph Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy held an interesting meeting in the Academy Monday of last week. The program was appropriately arranged as a memorial to the late President Jefferson Davis, of the Confederacy.

An interesting sketch of the life of Mr. Davis was read by Mrs. Wm. C. Hammer. Mrs. C. O. McAlister read a paper on the trial of Mrs. Davis, after which Mrs. Stedman read a poem, an original tribute to the dead Chief.

Miss McAlister, who, with her father, attended the Confederate Reunion at Richmond, made an interesting report of the Veteran's meeting.

Much Building Going On.

Reports from Pleasant Garden show that little village rapidly developing. The new dormitory is about completed. It will be furnished and ready for occupation by September 1st. Mr. R. M. Riley has laid the foundation for a nice six room cottage on the principle thoroughfare. He will press this to completion.

Mr. O. F. Ross has been awarded the contract for the remodeling and completion of the old Riley home and will during summer push this through. In addition to these new homes Dr. Robt. Fentress and others have bought lots and will build in the near future.

After many annoying waits the chair factory is now ready to start.
