ROSS-MCKAY.

Prominent and Popular Young Couple Wed Yesterday at Summerville.

Charlotte Observer.

Summerville, N. C., June 12.—There took place here this afternoon at 6 o'clock in the Summerville Presbyterian church the wedding of Mr. Chas. Ross, of Lillington, and Miss Frances Reed McKay. There were in attendance large numbers of the friends of the popular young couple, and the scene in the church was a pretty one, the decorations being effected in pink and white. The wedding vows were given by Rev. Watson Fairly.

The dame of honor was Mrs. Curtis Muse, of Lillington, who was attired in pink chiffon. The maid of honor, Miss Nannie Williams Holladay, of Wilmington, was gowned in white chiffon and the bridesmaids, Misses Marguerite Holladay, of Wilmington; Esther Ross, of Asheboro; Annie Foy, of New Bern; and Margaret Etheridge, of Selma were each attired in white organdies. The ushers were Messrs. Tom Worth, of Durham; Alfred McLean, of Lillington; Gilmer McAlister, of Asheboro, and Dr. L. J. Arnold, of Lillington. The best man was Mr. Joseph Ross, of Asheboro.

Preceding the bride was little Miss Julia Ross of Asheboro, who was all in white, and who made a charming picture as the ring bearer. The bride, who was most beautifully gowned in white liberty satin, trimmed with princess lace, entered with her cousin, Dr. Wilson McKay, of Mayville, S. C., who gave her away, these being met at the altar by the groom and his best man.

The bride is a most charming and attractive young woman, whose many sweet qualities have won for her a host of friends. The groom is a prominent and a progressive young North Carolinian, who at one time represented Randolph county in the House of Representatives with ability. He is now a member of the firm of McAlister-Ross Lumber Company at Lillington and has a large circle of friends. The great number of beautiful wedding gifts were but slight tokens of the love and esteem in which the young couple were held.

On Tuesday night the bridal party were most happily entertained at the home of Mrs. Neil McKay, mother of the bride, and immediately after the wedding there was a brilliant reception at her home which was greatly enjoyed by a great throng of visitors who extended congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ross.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Dense Smoke Aroused Family In Time To Avert Serious Fire.

Fire was narrowly averted at the home of Mr. A. Auman, in West Asheboro early Monday morning. About three o'clock the sleeping family was awakened by the dense smoke which filled the house, and investigation showed that two quilts in the servants room were burning, but had only charred a part of the floor, and the fire was extinguished without much damage being done.

The cook says she retired about midnight. That when she lighted the lamps portion of the match flew to one side, but she thought it went out before reaching the floor. It is believed the quilts were ignited by the fragment of the match.

PROGRESSIVE PEANUTS.

Feature of Reception In Honor of Miss Tull, Kinston.

The Misses Moring entertained a number of friends at their home Friday evening in honor of Miss Tull Kinston, who has been their guest for several days.

About thirty were present and pronounced it a happy occasion indeed.

The reception rooms were decorated with old field daisies, which scheme was carried out in every feature of the evening—the principal game being that of progressive peanuts. The score was kept on hand painted cards, in the shape similar to the daisy. As each player progressed the card was purchased. The prize was awarded to Mr. Robt. Noble.

The Misses Moring sustained the name of "charming hostesses." Miss Tull, the guest of honor, has a large circle of friends in Asheboro, who regretted her departure for her home last Sunday.

Frogs Eat Young Turkeys.

Capt. W. S. Lineberry was in town Friday and reports that Alfred Alfred shot and killed a large bull frog in Capt. Lineberry's meadow. The frog was in the act of swallowing a young turkey. Mrs. Lineberry has been missing young turkeys from her flock for some time, and this discovery by Mr. Alfred has solved the mystery. The frog killed the little one by mashing its head. The turkey was three or four weeks old.
