
ENTRANCE TO TRANSPORTATION BUILDING, JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION.

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION.

Ohio Commissioner Pronounces it a Wonderful Fair--Complete July 1st.

Norfolk, Va.—Executive Commissioner Bolin, of the Ohio commission to the Jamestown Exposition has made an interesting report to the members of the commission regarding affairs at the Exposition.

Mr. Bolin says "The newspaper reports which are being published in the north and west seem to me to be very unjust, and I know in a great many instances the long bow has been drawn pretty freely. The outside work of the Exposition building is now I believe complete in every detail that is required to make the proper showing. All the buildings have been completed and the park about the plaza as well.

"The greatest delay is on the government pier and this probably gives a more incomplete effect to the exposition than anything else because the company's office, tool sheds and other temporary structures are still needed. The pier when completed will be the greatest feature of this or any other exposition, I believe and should be fully accomplished in all its details by the first of July.

"On the 30th of May the War Path was formally opened, so that this is now a feature of the exposition. Many of the attractions of the War Path are recognized by those who have seen them and pretend to know to be of the very finest that have ever been shown at any Exposition. Mr. Buchanan, the right-hand man of Governor Francis of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis was here the other day and he pronounces this in many respects the most interesting and well planned Exposition that has ever been shown to the people. He says that it is now further advanced than the one at Buffalo was during the same period after the opening date.

TOBACCO SMOKING.

The Good And Bad Side of The Use of The Weed.

New York Herald.

The Herald's special medical article, by Prof. H. Senator, of Berlin, treats of a subject always of interest to persons of all classes and ages. It is the question whether to smoke or not to smoke. Whatever may be said pro or con, it is an undeniable fact that, as Prof. Senator says, tobacco is perhaps the most universally used luxury of all those that minister to the steady progressive nervous strain of advancing civilization.

According to the view, which is sensible enough, smoking can be called a luxury when indulged in proper moderation—the same as tea, coffee, and various other diffusible stimulants. Like all neurotic excitors of its kind, the habitue should discreetly moderate the dose to suit individual requirements.

The main trouble is overcultivation of the habit. "Therein lies the temptation and also its danger." While it is hard to convince the moderate smoker the error of his ways, when he experiences that "pleasant feeling or even is claimed when his nerves are excited," it is equally difficult to persuade the incessent user of the weed of the positive harm he is inflicting on himself.

Prof. Senator is judiciously emphatic on this latter point, and therein lies one of the chief merits of his article.

The mischief in most of such cases is a permanent and irreparable one. The moral is to know when to stop and think. The distinguished professor endeavors to give due point to it by reference to well established scientific facts bearing on the ultimate damage to certain organs, and the warning symptoms that accompany such derangements. The injurious effects are most dangerous in the case of the heart and blood vessels and in that of the digestive and nervous systems.

The heart is usually the first to suffer and more or less persistent palpitation is the first indication. The loss of appetite, restlessness, insomia, feeble memory, imperfect vision, and actual disease of the arteries (arterio sclerosis) follow. All this because the deluded habitue persists in experimenting with the essential vital processes that are the very foundations of his being, merely because his will is weak and his good sense hopelessly paralyzed.

The Prof. also lays proper stress on the manner of smoking, as well as on the amount of tobacco used. Rapid puffing is always deleterious. But the best of advice is that young people should be forbidden to smoke before they have attained full growth, the reasons for which are obvious enough.

Siler City Grit.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fox, of Siler City, spent last week with her sister, Mrs. James Jones, of near Stanley; now she has gone to visit her daughter, Mrs. Nan Richardson, on Route 2

Our community was saddened by the death of Mrs. William Thompson, near Staley, who died Sunday morning about 3 o'clock and was buried at the Friends Rocky River church Monday at 10 a. m. She leaves a husband and two daughters and one son and relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

While prospecting for coal last week the promoters tapped a gushing oil well.

THINK OF IT.

Ex-Senator Marion Butler Will Be Invited to Salisbury.

Rowan Republicans are evidently not satisfied with their treatment at the pie counter by the National Machine, and to improve their condition they have struck a happy thought. They will by special invitation entertain former Senator Butler at Salisbury, at an early date.

Thus they declare their opposition to State Chairman Adams and while they claim they will not ask Mr. Butler to land Mr. Adams a heavy blow on the fifth rib, they are, however, expecting and hoping that he will deliver himself of a warm rebuke to the Judge.

A leading Republican declares that seventy five per cent of Rowan Republicans are for Senator Butler.

Character Building.

Character building must be done by one individual alone. It is dull, slow, hard work, many a burden to carry.

No matter how lowly the sphere in which he may be, no matter how limited the environments, character can be built at will.

There are people of brains, wealth and station who are failures and there are those of limited abilities and humble position who are yet successful inasmuch as they have made the utmost of themselves and their opportunities. There is no satisfaction that compares with looking back across the years and finding that you have grown in self control, in charity of judgment, in a sense of justice, in generosity and unselfishness.

To possess character is to be useful and to be useful is to be entirely independent.—Exchange.

The report of Treasurer Brown, of the N. C. Methodist opening shows the institution is caring for 113 orphans, and that $7,600 has been added to the endowment fund since December. R. N. Page, of Biscoe attended a meeting of the Trustees at Raleigh last week.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.
