

MOST TRAGIC DEATH NEAR CHARLOTTE.

Mr. Helms Falls From Drill and Clothes Catch in Teeth.

Charlotte, July 11.—One of the most tragic deaths which has occurred in this county for years was that to-day of Mr. T. E. Helms, of Sharon township. Last evening while driving a wheat drill to the place of Mr. Crosbit, the mule to the machine became frightened and ran away. Helms fell under the wheels and as the teeth of the drill passed over him, his clothes were caught and he was dragged over a mile, while the animal was running at break neck speed. He was unconscious but regained his senses long enough this morning to speak to each member of his family. He survived only a short time after this.

MEDLEY OF RELATIONS.

A Man in Chatham County Married the Widow of His Son.

(Chatham Record.)

Did you ever hear of a man marrying the widow of his son? There is a man in this county who married his deceased son's widow, and is the stepfather of his own grandchildren. Such a marriage brings about a medley of mixed kinship. For instance, the children of such a marriage are the uncles and aunts of their half brothers and sisters.

Dr. Zeb Caviness Stabbed by Drunken Negro.

Dr. Zeb Caviness, a prominent physician of Wakefield, Wake county was seriously cut Thursday morning July 11 by a drunken painter. Dr. Caviness was approached by the fellow, who asked in his drunken rage, if the doctor was the painter's friend, if the doctor was the painter's friend, if the doctor was the painter's friend. The reply was that the doctor supposed he was. Then the fellow drew a knife with an oath and declaration that the doctor was not his friend, and inflicted a long wound across Dr. Caviness' abdomen.

Dr. Caviness is a native of Randolph county, a son of Mr. Isaac Caviness and is a fine physician, enjoying a large and lucrative practice.

Save Young Timber by Cutting Old.

Reserve your good timber. Cut your trees that show signs of decay; but be careful not to let them fall on the young trees. Such was the advice given by a well-known lumberman. The old tree can be sawed up and marketed, and the young will mature in due time when the timber becomes more valuable. The attention given the shrubs and young trees now will determine the supply of the future. Some farmers who are cutting down cedar trees and building ordinary fences therefrom will find a few years hence that the cedar trees thus destroyed would have become more valuable than the old itself. Choice timber is growing scarce, and walnut, oak, cedar and other timbers used for veneering are made to bring from $20 to $50 or thousand feet. Let us look to the growing forests.—Stanly Enterprise.

Obituary.

Ernest Erwell, the little daughter of Mr. W. B. Cox, died Wednesday, June 26th, and was buried in the S. church cemetery Thursday, Rev. C. Wood conducting the funeral service. She was thirteen months and 20 days old. Another little angel is in heaven. Little Erwell cannot come to us but we can go to her. Blessed thought, only separated for a while then you can meet her on the banks of Sweet Deliverance. Little Erwell is gone, her little face and loving eyes will see us no more. Her spirit has gone back to the blessed Saviour who gave her tender childlike words calling, "Dear, no more on earth is heard. No more will she call Papa in accents kind and suffering never comes, there to meet Jesus. Then call her, call her not as dead.

ARRANGEMENT OF COURIER CONTEST PRIZES.

Contest Closes July 31, 1907.

To avoid any misunderstanding about the arrangement of the prizes to be awarded at the close of the contest, August 1st 1907, we publish the list below.

The capital prize is a $400 Kimball piano to the person anywhere who secures the largest number of votes during the contest.

The next is a $150 piano certificate, worth its face value in part payment of a new piano of the Kimball make.

The third and fourth prizes are scholarships in King's Business College at Raleigh. The fifth and sixth prizes are scholarships in the best schools in the state, given to the two persons who receive the next highest votes.

These are the grand prizes. Then come the Jamestown Exposition trips.

To equalize the territory and to give every section a chance to be represented in the party, we have arranged the trips into the following districts, the person getting the largest vote in each district will be awarded the trip, provided, however that they have not won one of the first six prizes mentioned above. The districts are shown in the big advertisement on the third page of this issue.

The seventeenth to the twentieth inclusive will each be awarded a piano certificate valued at $100.

The twenty-first and twenty-second each a New Home Champion sewing machine.

The twenty-third and twenty-fourth highest will be awarded ladies' hunting case gold watches, warranted for 20 years, and valued at $25.00.

To the next four piano certificates valued at $75 each.

Then there are forty-five certificates valued at fifty dollars each for those below the twenty-eighth.

Persons who win the piano certificates of one hundred and fifty dollars, or the four one hundred dollar certificates, or the scholarships who desire to do so may exchange them for either a sewing machine or a lady's gold watch.

We have arranged to secure some sewing machines and watches for this special purpose, so that every one may be satisfied.

Our townsman, W. M. Coble, brought to this office Monday, 1 dozen onions which tipped the scales at 12 pounds, making an average of one pound each. These onions were grown in Mr. Coble's garden in Randleman, and neither barn yard manure, or commercial fertilizers were used in their cultivation, who can beat this.—Central North Carolinian.

Mrs. J. A. Kelly died at her home in Troy on Monday night July 8th.

It was a good example that our men set before our boys on the 4th. The boys were shown that there can be real pleasure and enjoyment without whiskey drinking and rowdiness. Boys, remember July 4th 1907.

One of our oldest citizens remarked, the day after the 4th "Do you suppose we could have had any such good order here if the "Watts Law" had not been in force?" We are bound to answer, no. While it may not be perfect, the "Watts Law" is a great benefit to our community.—Central North Carolinian.

Special attorney, McReynolds, has filed a petition in the United States Court in New York, with the ultimate object of asking for a receiver for the American Tobacco Company. He charges conspiracy and unfair business methods.

The grand jury, of Wake County, has formed a true bill against Dr. and Mrs. Rowland for murder.
