

DEATH OF MRS. PEARCE.

Was a Devoted Christian Worker at Age of 87.

A good woman is gone. Mrs. Elizabeth Pearce, Aunt Betsy as she was generally called, died at her home in Brower township Sunday morning at half past 6 o'clock.

Miss Emma Mann, from Saxapahaw, is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. Herbert Tyson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Tysor have a fine baby boy at their house.

ARCHDALE CONVENTION.

Quaker Village Entertained Sunday School Workers.

I learned some time before hand that on the first Sunday in July there would be a Sunday School Convention in the Quaker Village of Archdale.

The day was in all respects a typical July day. The birds sang, the flowers blossomed on all sides, and all nature proclaimed a glorious ideal summer day.

COLORED PEOPLE CELEBRATE.

Patriotic Exercises Among the Colored People at Asheboro. Day Passed Quietly.

Although the morning of the 4th looked gloomy, at a very early hour numbers of people began to assemble, the first feature of the day being a game of ball between Mitchell and Asheboro.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon a game of ball was called between Biscoe and Asheboro. As usual the score stood 37 to 1 in favor of Asheboro.

The day passed off quietly. At 12 o'clock the band met the north bound train and escorted the crowd to a point where the procession of Diamond Star Lodge 3711 of Asheboro, was formed.

At half past seven o'clock strains of sweet music were heard in the McAlister-Morris building—a high time for the Odd Fellows.

Yours for good, H. DAVID, Pastor First Cong. Church.

Pointed Paragraphs.

Where there's a will there's always an heir. Fortunately for the fool, he doesn't know he's a fool. Many a man's failure is due to his being afraid to try. A forgiving disposition is the first law of self preservation. Never try to borrow money from a man you have had an argument with. Gossips have no use for people who refuse to supply them with raw material. No matter how much a man loves a woman, she thinks he ought to love her more.

John David Powers, of New Orleans.

High Point, July 12.—Mr. John David Powers, brother of Rev. O. L. Powers, of the First Baptist church of this city, who was shot by a negro in a turpentine camp near New Orleans last week, died from his wounds and Rev. Mr. Powers passed through here yesterday with the body for the eastern part of the State, where it will be interred at the old home. It will be remembered that Mr. Powers was acting as peacemaker between two negroes who had engaged in a quarrel when one of the five bullets fired by one of the negroes, struck Mr. Powers.

Married.

At the residence of the officiating justice, in Franklinville Township, on July 12, 1907, Mr. Arthur Miller, of Asheboro, to Miss Gertrude Redding, of Cedar Falls. E. G. York, J. P. officiating.

The Lexington Dispatch, in telling about the return of a crowd of box-fighters from Salisbury the night of the 4th, quotes Detective Abern as saying that in all his 25 years experience he had never seen a rougher house than was started on No. 12 when that train pulled out from Salisbury, and which was kept up until the train came into Lexington yards. Drunk men drank the more and spilled their booze around; they cursed and used exceedingly offensive, and obscene language; the cars were made indescribably filthy. Officer Abern said that he never saw the toughest negroes not as bad as these white men from Lexington, Thomasville and other points along the line.

EARLY TOMATOES.

Some Vital Points in Growing Them For Market.

In growing early tomatoes for market an Indiana farmer gives some interesting information in American Agriculturist, as follows:

I find that to grow tomatoes very early—say, have them commence to ripen during the first half of June, while prices are high—three things are absolutely necessary—first an early variety, then an early start, and, lastly, an early situation.

I have found but one variety, Chalk's Early Jewel, that combines size, shape, color and firmness in a high degree, but unfortunately it is not one of the very first early.

A Prolific Variety. Of the first earlys Manie's Earliest is my choice. It is a very prolific large red tomato, and if one is willing to throw out one-half for culls the others will make a very salable grade of firsts. The quality is of the best, and, as this variety is so very prolific, I believe that the one-half retained as firsts will measure up equally with the entire crop of Acme, Dwarf, Champion or Dwarf Stone. Earliana is very much like Manie's Earliest, only it has less foliage and is more subject to blight.

I sow seed of Chalk's Early Jewel in greenhouse by Feb. 1.

Transplanting Seedlings. When plants show the true leaf, I transplant the seedlings 2 by 2 inches on the benches. As soon as they crowd each other I transplant again, using four inch flowerpots for 1,000 or more. The others are set 3 by 4 inches either on the benches or into a hotbed. I keep the temperature rather low, 45 degrees at night, lettuce temperature. This makes nice large plants by May 10 that have fruit set the size of persimmons.

Those set in flowerpots are moved into glass covered frames the last week in April. The glass is taken off in mild weather and left off at night when I am sure that frost will not get them. This hardens the plants, and it would take quite a little frost after they have been set in the field to seriously injure them. Muslin covers, frames will often answer for this hardening off of plants.

Watering Plants Under Glass. I want to caution against overwatering while the plants are under glass. It is much safer to keep them too dry rather than too wet. When the plants grow thickly, with a purple hue at the lower part of stem, one may feel safe that they have light and water according to their needs. If overcrowded and overwatered, the plants will grow up spindling and with bleached stems. Such plants will never do well if set.

An Obituary. On the morning of June 17th, the death came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Powers, and took their grand daughter, a beautiful child of only a few days, nearly 15 years.

She was laid to rest in the family burial ground near her home in the presence of a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends. She was a kind and loving girl, loved by all who knew her.

It was hard to give her up, but God has his will be done. We shall sleep, but not forever, in the same and silent grave.

But we hope our loss is not eternal gain. There have been bound the light. We had, so hard to speak the word. We must forever part.

Yes, again we hope to meet her. When the day of life is past And in Heaven's joy to meet her. Where no farewell tears are shed.

Montgomery County News.

From The Montgomarian. Mr. Jessie Hurley, of Troy, and Miss Arnie Russell, of Albemarle, were married last week. May they live a long and happy life is the wish of their many friends.

The State is trying to help the farmers a great deal by sending men of practical experience to hold institutes. The farmers should by all means attend these meetings. The one for Montgomery county is August 8th.

It is said that there is more gold in sight at the Lola mine now than has been at any one time since the mine has been in operation. The mine has been newly reworked and they have sunk and cut a new shaft some 150 or 200 yards south from the old one, and say it is as rich or richer than the old place which is as ever. What is the use in going to seek a fortune when we could in all probability find it around home if we would just look it up, no doubt there are others just as good.

Mrs. William Frazier died at her home Friday night, July 5th, and was buried at the old family grave yard near her home. The burial service was conducted by Rev. S. T. Moyle amid a large concourse of friends and relatives. She was a member of the Methodist church, a daughter of Mr. Malcolm Matheson of Pee Dee, and a true christian woman. She leaves a husband and four daughters, Miss Mamie, who is at home with her father, Mrs. Nolte Lisk and Mrs. Pattie Deaton, of Mt. Gilead, and Mrs. Jennie Williams of Norwood.

A goodly number of our people attended the picnic at Martin's Mills the 4th, which was enjoyed very much.

Prof. J. B. Holt will begin a singing school at Love Joy the 30th of July lasting ten days.

Randleman Items.

R. W. Farlow has purchased the home place of Sam Bostick near the Depot.

Miss Louise Slack, of Asheboro, spent several days here last week.

Dan Stalker and Miss Annie Bean were married last Saturday night by Rev. John Pugh.

Jno. A. Clapp has threshed over 500 bushels of wheat. His crop averaged about 25 bushels to the acre.

A number of people from Greensboro, and High Point spent the 4th here.

A very large crowd was here July 4th. The procession which formed at the Depot was the largest ever seen in the county. The immense crowd has been estimated at from 5 to 10 thousand people. All the floats were beautifully gotten up and were exceedingly attractive. All the speakers were present and the entire program was carried out.

C. C. Randleman and family, of Danville, Va., came here for the 4th. Mr. Randleman has returned to Danville, where he has charge of a large cotton mill. His family will remain here several weeks.

West Randolph.

Mrs. Jane Gray died at her home two miles east of Thomasville last Thursday and was buried at Thomasville Friday. She was 90 years old. Old age was the cause of her death.

The four month's old child of E. W. Bowers, died last week and was buried at Pleasant Grove.

J. B. Reddick and family, of Trinity, visited in Thomasville Saturday and Sunday.

Miss S. E. Frazier, of Thomasville, spent Sunday with Mrs. C. W. Wilson.

Miss Mary Frazier, who has been on the sick list, is much better.

C. C. Frazier and Mrs. F. C. Frazier spent last Thursday in Greensboro.

A series of meetings will begin at Pleasant Grove the first Sunday in August.

Truly AVOIDANCE.

Mr. Editor—Will you please allow me space in your paper to let you know what a fine time I am having spending part of the summer with my cousin, Angela Cranford, of Dalzell, S. C. I left home June 14th, after spending Saturday and Sunday with friends in Bennettsville, arrived here June 17th and can say I have never enjoyed a visit more than I have this one.

We go down to the lake boat-riding nearly every afternoon. We made up a fishing party and spent one day picnicking on the banks of the Wateree River twelve miles from here. We spent the 4th of July at Providence Springs. That night my cousin gave me a "moonlight picnic", which I am sure was enjoyed by those present, who were as follows: Mr. Alex. Burrows with Miss Irene Moore, Mr. Willie Burrows with Miss Madge Kingman, of Sumpter, Mr. Albert Moore with Miss Blanche Dixon, of Bishopville, Mr. Gillespie Scarborough, of Sumter, with Miss Gertrude Dixon, of Bishopville, Mr. S. R. Williamson with Miss Jennie Scarborough, Mr. Hazel Boykin with Miss Powell, of Columbia, Mr. Charlie Gilliland with Miss Mattie Boykin, Mr. Henry Rembert with Miss Estelle Moore, Mr. James, of Greenville, with Miss Zola Boykin, Mr. J. H. Dixon, of Bishopville, with Miss Katie Cummings, Mr. Wade Newsum with Miss Pauline Cummings, Mr. Eugene Myers, of Sumter, with Miss Arnie Cranford, of Trinity, N. C., Mr. Marion Moore with Miss Angela Cranford.

I would like also to speak of the country around here. As a general thing it is very pretty, but Dalzell is noted for its good roads, pretty scenery, and "clever" people.

One thing I miss very much every Sunday at Dalzell is the bright faces of my Sunday school class, but I hope to be back with them in the last of August.

Very respectfully, Artie Cranford, Dalzell, S. C., July 9, 1907.
