Notes of Interest from the Courier Correspondent

CABINET TO BE RE-ORGANIZED

The Hope of Democratic Success in 1908--Western Politician Says Bryan, "But If" Railroads Guarding President's Advisors.

Special Correspondent.

Washington, D. C., August 31. As lately predicted in this column, Secretary Corbin has organized the national banks, and although the evident intent is to help the Wall street financiers by easing up the money market with the surplus government millions, the time was these loans are to be made is to be shrouded in mystery. Only the insiders will have the tip when easier money may be expected and these favorites of the Republican machine will, of course, be able to tell in advance the expected rise in the price of stocks. Will these favored Wall street financiers return the favor by being liberal contributors to the next Republican campaign fund, or is this part of the pay for contribution to the Roosevelt campaign of 1904?

"If we don't elect the next President it will be our own fault" was the opinion expressed to me a day or two ago by a very prominent Democrat from a central State, who has been enjoying in a moderate way the dissipation of Saratoga for a few weeks. "What makes you think so?" I asked him. Why look at the disorganized condition of the Republican party. There were hundreds of leading Republicans at Saratoga, and nearly all of them were disheartened at the outlook. They don't know where they stand politically for the Republican gospel according to Taft disagrees with the epistle of Foraker and the doubtful states are all torn up with party feuds. Not only in Ohio is there a party fuss, but in New York the rival Hughes, Woodruff and Odell factions are fighting; in New Jersey the Colby reformers are trying to break up the Republican machine; in Massachusetts the rival factions will turn the state over to the Democrats if they don't use better judgment than they have been displaying, and President Roosevelt has a finger in all these messes, besides a nifty amount of trouble in other states.

"If we only could nominate someone who would unite our party," continued this Democrat, we would win, whoever the Republicans nominate, but I fear that Mr. Bryan is a hardship we cannot struggle under. If I thought he could carry New York, New Jersey and run as well in Massachusetts as any other Democrat, I would look no further for a candidate.

CABINET CHANGE

It is the general opinion here that there will be another reorganization of the Cabinet. That Secretary Bonaparte will be one of the lambs to be slaughtered to appease the wrath of the good Trust and Railroad magnates; that Secretary Taft will resign about next March; and that Secretary Metcalf will be got rid of as soon as possible. There is no doubt that Secretary Root would have withdrawn from the Cabinet long ago, but the trust and railroad interests induced him to stay as they wanted his aid on occasions when it was found necessary to bring pressure on the President and prevent him "running amuck" on some new usurpation, which even Republican reformers, such as Congressman McCull, denounces as "immature judgment, a mere glutton of the lime-light, ready to barter away prosperity and even his country's freedom for momentary applause.

OBSERVATIONS

Are we to understand that no guilty trust or wealthy malefactor is to be allowed to escape? Tom Lawson, the Boston speculator, advertises to buy stocks. Henry Clews, the Wall street banker, advises great caution. As long as the frenzied financiers cannot agree it may be wise to let them fight it out without your assistance.

It now turns out that the carved medicine chest which was presented to the President by an army officer, was manufactured at the army cabinet shop in the Philippines at a cost of $153 to the government, and the investigation by Col. Garlington shows a vast amount of similar graft in the quartermaster's department.

Congressman H. T. Rainey, of Illinois, is believed by the Alton Sentinel-Democrat, to be candidate for president that all factions of the party would support.

Congressman Walter J. Smith, of Iowa, says he will not be a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed Senator Allison. It is unusual to find one of these Republican Smith's of a modest and retiring disposition.

The Methodist Church of Indiana, which holds Prohibition as one of its modern tenets, is somewhat excited over the question whether Fairbanks, with his cocktail record, shall represent the church at the national conference. Fairbanks is finding it rather difficult to hold the Prohibitionists and the Liquor people both in line for his presidential boom.

Banker Schiff of Wall street stands up for President Roosevelt and declares to blame him for the difficulties in which we find ourselves is both thoughtless and unjust. There is a suspicion that Mr. Schiff has been making money on the bear side of the market, and the presidential politics have helped him.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease. Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physician, who usually treat themselves with doctored effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

Obituary. We feel sad to note the death of our beloved friend and school mate, Flossie Beah, who died August 29th, aged 16 years. She was the beautiful young daughter of Dempsey and Annie Beah. For four long weeks she suffered the agonies of typhoid fever, but bore her suffering with patience. Flossie was a good kind hearted girl and loved by all. She leaves father, mother, four sisters and two brothers, besides a host of other relatives and friends to mourn their loss. But while it is our loss we feel it is her eternal gain. Her remains were laid in the Union Grove cemetery. Just before she passed away she sang that beautiful song "Heavenly Sunlight", reaching her hands toward Heaven to her friends she said "I feel that I am going to a better world. Let us her school mates remember the life she has had and try to prepare ourselves so when we are called away as Flossie was we it soon or late, we may be prepared to meet our blessed savior in peace.

Card of Thanks. We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends in Asheboro for the many acts of kindness shown us during the illness and death of our father, W. A. BUNCH, JR.

An Acrostic. Written for The Courier. Even though our lives may seem Almost dark, an empty dream, Ready still we all should be, Never fail our duty to see; Every deed through kindness and love, Sometimes brings from heaven above, Temptation 'vanish', sorrow receive.

When all darkness has faded from view, Over all trials triumphant and true, Rising then to firmly stand, Knowing the Master has led by the hand Every one who obey his commands, Resting and peaceful we all shall be, Saved by grace, through eternity.

Cancer Cured by Blood Balm--All Skin and Blood Diseases Also Cured.

Mr. M. L. Adams, Proctor, Ala., took Bazaar Blood Balm, which effectually cured an eating cancer of the nose and face. The cancer healed up perfectly. Many doctors had given up her case. He has had a number of cases of cancer, eating sores, squamous, swellings, etc., have been cured by Blood Balm. Among others, Mrs. B. M. Guernsey, Warren, Ga. Her nose and lip were raw as beef, with offensive discharge from the eating sore. Doctors advised cutting, but it failed. Blood Balm healed the sore, and Mrs. Guernsey is as well as ever. Bazaar Blood Balm also cures eczema, itching, scabies, warts, sore eyes, ulcers, skin eruptions, blood poison, carbuncles, scalds, chafes, and all skin eruptions. It is a sure cure for all blood diseases. Improves the digestion, and cures weak kidneys. Druggists, $1.00 per bottle, with complete directions for home cure. Sample free and prepaid by writing Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga. Describe trouble and special medical advice sent in sealed letter.
