LOVE OF COUNTRY.

LOVE OF COUNTRY. Breathes there the man with soul so dead Who never to himself hath said. This is my own, my native land-Whose heart instin set within him burned As home his footsteps he hath turned From wandering on a foreign strand? If such there breathe, go, mark him well; For him no minstrel raptures swell!

High though his titles, proud his name, Boundleav his wealth on wish can claim; Despite those titles, power and pelf, The wretch, concentered all in self. Living, shall forfeit fair renown, And, doubly dying, shall go down To the vile dust from whence he sprung. Unwept, unknowed and unsung. -Bcott.

His Turn to Be Annoyed. President McCrea of the Pennsyl-vania railroad said, apropos of a false charge against a financial institution: charge against a financial institution: This charge was more than refuted. The institution came out with figing colors. It reminds me of an incident that happened when I was a redman in my youth. Working on the Con-nellswille line, I took a number of meals with a middle aged farmer and his wife. One day at dinner I notiesd that the farmer's wife seemed rather out of sorts, and after dinner I wasn't surprised to hear her say: "Josiah Simmons, to think that you have forgotten that this is the anni-

His Garbags. The wife of a millionsire recently expressed her preference for fancy dress parties as follows: "It was at one that I first met my husband. He appeared in the garbage of a monk."

What to Do With Surplus Milk.

A teacher was trying to impress on the young minds the various uses of milk. She wanted some bright genius to tell how the farmer fed the surplus while to the pigs. Leading up to this, she astred this question, "Now, chil-dren, after the farmer has made all the butter and cheese he needs and uses what utilk he wants for his famfly, what does he do with the milk that attli remains?" One little hand waved frantically. The teacher smiled and said, "Well, James?"

"He pours it back into the cow," piped James.-Woman's Home Com-
