

FRANKLINVILLE GLEANINGS.

New Order of Eastern Star Instituted-- About People You Know.

Some of our people attended the County Sunday School Association at Asheboro last week and all seem to be highly pleased at the work of the Association.

Messrs. Hugh Parks, Jr., C. E. Stuart and Clarence Parks left the first of the week for the Southern markets to purchase fall and winter goods for the Franklinville and Randolph Store Co's.

A singing class composed of children from the Naford Orphan Asylum, will give an entertainment at this place in the Academy Thursday night, Sept. 10th.

Miss Mable Stuart went to Mt. Gilead last week to assist Grand Patron R. M. Gorrell organize an Eastern Star Chapter at the Masonic Lodge at that place.

Mr. Howard Brazier and family, of near Marley's Mills, spent Saturday night and Sunday in the city with relatives.

Mr. L. W. James, of High Point, came home Saturday to spend some time with his family.

Miss Margaret Pickett, of Liberty, spent Sunday in the city with relatives.

Mr. J. W. Tippet has made considerable improvement on his grocery building on R. R. Avenue.

Mr. J. C. Maney, who has been on the sick list for a few days is improving.

The Ladies Aid Society will give a lawn party in the grove near the M. E. church next Saturday night, Sept. 11th.

Messrs. Neal McCorquodale and Monroe Burrow made a trip to Winston Saturday and came home about Sunday night via Staley and other points.

Misses Anna and Dora Brady left Saturday for Gibsonville to spend a few days with friends.

The protracted meeting at Charlotte closed Wednesday night. Some very able sermons were preached.

Rubie Poole left Monday morning for Raleigh. He enjoyed his short vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Poole, and is now ready to resume his duties at A. & M. College.

Misses Martha and Jennie Redding attended the Sunday School Convention at Asheboro.

Will Redding and sister, Miss Annie, of Why Not, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Redding last week.

Messrs. Fletcher Bulla and Sam Henley left Monday morning for Guilford College.

Miss Cora Redding, of Asheboro, visited Dr. J. D. Bulla, of Trinity, recently.

Miss May Burns, of Maxton, is visiting friends and relatives in Back Creek.

Miss Lula Andrews leaves next week to take charge of her school at Worthville.

C. C. Robbins, of High Point, was shaking hands with friends and relatives at Charlotte last Sunday.

Maurice Poole left Monday morning for Trinity where he enters school.

Misses Mada Bulla and May Burns visited at the home of Dr. A. M. Bulla last week. They report a very enjoyable time.

Walter Davis and wife of Randleman, visited at the home of G. I. Davis recently.

Miss Clara Millikan, of Guilford College, is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. R. M. Bulla.

Misses Jennie and Lillie Bulla left Monday morning for Guilford College.

Miss Justa Yow, of Why Not, visited Misses Annie and Ettie Redding recently.

Mrs. Nancy Robbins last her misfortune to fall and break three of her toes last week.

WANTED: Married man, without children to work on farm and in dairy. Wife to board help. Must be industrious and energetic. In writing give age, experience, references and wages expected.

ITEMS FROM LIBERTY.

Sunday School Picnic at York's Mill-- Personal and Other Notes.

Miss Gertrude Owens, who has been sick in Greensboro, was brought home one day last week and is thought to be improving.

Some of the Jamestown visitors arrived home last Sunday. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Stalley Pickett and Rev. and Mrs. Lassiter.

All the Sunday Schools of Liberty went to York's mill pond last Saturday and had a nice time picnicking.

Miss Gertrude is one of Randolph's teachers and it is hoped she will soon be entirely well again.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Misses L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

Messrs. L. H. and George C. Smith attended the County Sunday School Convention at Asheboro last week.

The Scrap Book

What to Do When You Drop an Egg. At a breakfast party in England which Joseph H. Choate attended while he was American ambassador a young lady at his right accidentally spilled the contents of her plate.

CALIMNY. A whisper woke the air, A soft, light tone, and low, Yet barbed with shame and woe.

But, not a quick and eager ear Caught up the little meaning sound, Another voice has breathed it clear, And so it wandered round.

A Remarkable Baby. A teacher disturbed by giggling called upon one of the culprits to tell him the cause.

"Please, sir," responded the lad, "Turner says a baby who was fed elephant's milk gained ten pounds a day."

Kicked the Wrong Man. A young married man in Boston met a friend of his bachelor days and insisted on his coming home with him to lodge.

Rev. Stumper closed a very successful revival meeting at New Hope Church last Sunday morning. There were eight conversions and four added to the church.

Miss Beatrice Weston, of Eldorado, visited friends near here Sunday.

Miss Emma Kearns, who has been ill with fever, is able to be out again.

Mr. Jefferson Lambeth, of Hill's Store, visited friends in this vicinity last week.

Miss Emma Chandler, of Chambers, is visiting her father, Mr. James Chandler, at this place.

Mrs. G. P. Lassiter has returned home after spending some time with her sons, Messrs. Lennie and Geary Lassiter, of Cumberland county.

Henry Osborn left Saturday for Dean's Mills, where he will begin work as miller.

Mrs. J. C. Ragan left last Monday for Glenola to visit her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Steed, and returned Sunday accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Steed.

B. M. Morris has bought land of Samuel Yates.

Milton Lackey made a business trip to J. C. Ragan has purchased a Majestic range.

The Holiness meeting closed at Hoover's Grove last Sunday.

Rev. J. W. Self will begin a protracted meeting at Piney Grove the third Sunday in September.

Rev. J. W. Ingle will begin a protracted meeting at Mt. Taber the fifth Sunday in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Keyser and family spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. M. C. Ashewell.

W. M. Scott, wife and daughter visited Mrs. Mary Ashworth in Montgomery last Sunday.

Rev. J. B. Comer, of Asbury, filled his regular appointment at Big Oak Sunday.

H. Hancock, of Biscoe, has purchased of George Freeman his new store and dwelling and is now engaged in the mercantile business.

Messrs. Thomas and Albert Boon spent last Sunday with their uncle, W. R. Ashworth.

Alfred King, of Biscoe, was a welcome visitor in this community recently.

Mrs. Mary Ashworth has a new barn in his place.

Engaged. A well known evangelist at the close of one of his most stirring addresses approached a big, stolid looking German in the congregation who had paid the closest attention to the discourse.

ASPIRATION. I am the blush of the summer rose, The flush of the morn, The smile on the face of the dead, The song newly born.

Indignation Unexpressed. A letter dictated by an old gentleman runs thus: "Sir, my stenographer, being a lady, cannot take down what I think of you. I, being a gentleman, cannot express it, but you, being neither, can readily divine it."

Lamb With Mint Sauce. "I was walking down an English lane with an English girl on an August afternoon," said Richard Le Gallienne.

At Supper With the Legislators. A drummer stopped at a hotel in Montpelier, Vt., when the legislature was in session. It was the headquarters of many legislators.

Cho Knew Him. An architect remarked to a lady that he had been to see the great nave in the new church. The lady replied, "Don't mention names; I know the man you refer to."

Grandpa Objects. An elderly Washingtonian was recently discussing with a lady the bringing up of the children of the present day, when he declared that for unadulterated impudence and assurance the American child is without an equal.

Both Should Be Thankful. Mr. Farley was crossing one day from New Haven to Dieppe when a young Frenchman attempted to take him in hand.

Chickens of Leisure. Mrs. Goldstein of Cripple Creek, having come into a fortune through a lucky strike, set up a country home near Denver, where she lived in style.

Met His Match. When Alexis Caswell was president of Brown University a student named Bottery called on him.

The Priest and the Rabbi. Father Kelly and Rabbi Levi were seated opposite each other at a banquet where some delicious roast ham was served.

Handicapped, but Healthy. "Shure, it's married I am, Malone, since I last saw ye, an' I've got a fine healthy bhoir, which the neighbors say is the very plecter of me."

Sheer Waste of Money. At the Metropolitan club of Washington Justice Harlan had introduced to him a well known New York business man.

A Chance to Branch. A colored preacher would never become ordained, being content to remain just an exhorter.

Agreeable Men. Spending of the philosophical temper, there is no class of men whose society is more to be desired for this quality than that of plumbers.

Wanted. Married man, without children to work on farm and in dairy. Wife to board help. Must be industrious and energetic.

CONDENSED NEWS. The Inter-State Chemical Co., of Baltimore, Md., has decided to open a southern distributing branch at Greensboro.

A. M. Cameron, aged 70 years, and a native of Moore County, died suddenly at Kinston Friday.

Rails for the new railroad from Thomasville to High Point are being distributed, and the completion of the line will be pushed.

The Midway Telephone Company will construct a line from Midway, Davidson county, to Winston Salem. The company was chartered last week.

Further details of the work of lightning at Buck Horn Shoals, in Chatham county last Tuesday, show that seven men were killed and ten injured.

The Civic League is doing a great work for Greensboro, not only in the assistance in the cleaning up and beautifying the city, but also in looking after its healthfulness.

Thomas Settle, who aspired to a District Judgeship of Florida, did not get the position. District attorney Shepherd, of Pensacola, was appointed by the President.

The Crews Mfg. Co., of Kernersville, is installing machinery for furnishing lights for its plant, which manufactures blankets. A free market is found for its product.

Europe has lost many good farmers during the past few months, they having come to America. That country is alarmed because of the fact that its agricultural region is generally suffering, it being depleted by emigration to America.

President Roosevelt is preparing for another southern tour and Alabama expects to entertain him with a hunting trip in the cane brakes, while Texas offers a unit for wild bores with javelins as weapons.

Figures recently disclosed show that fifty furniture and wood working plants of High Point average a shipment of 60 car loads a day or 1,500 a month of 26 working days. A hundred wagons are kept busy doing the hauling every day.

Seven of the Smithtown distillers were sentenced to serve terms in the Federal prison at Atlanta by Judge Boyd at Greensboro last week. The smallest sentence was 3 months and the longest one year. They were taken to Atlanta last Friday.

Two passenger trains collided near the station at Concord last Wednesday. Three coaches were destroyed by flames, which immediately followed the explosion of a gas tank. Several passengers were injured, but no one was killed.

W. B. Poe, father of Clarence H. Poe, editor of the Progressive Farmer, died at his home at Pittsboro, Chatham county, last week. He was 65 years of age and is survived by his wife, one son and one daughter.

Mrs. Caroline Chunn, an aristocratic matron of Anti-Bellum days died at Salisbury Friday at 85 years of age. She was a native of Davie county and a member of the well-known Scotch-Irish Ford family.

The remark of general Sheridan who commanded in Texas just after the civil war, "If I owned Hell and Texas I'd sell out Texas and live in Hell," is often quoted. The answer of a Texas editor is not so well known: "Well, darn a man who doesn't stand up for his own country anyhow!"

A number of wells are getting very short of water. Nearly all the saw mills have had to shut down until it rains. The farmers claim that late corn is seriously damaged and that cotton is going to be short.

We heard a good old cotton farmer say the bolls were the smallest he ever saw and but little cotton in the boll. The Montgomery.

The San Jose scale is in Guilford County and in the vicinity of High Point.

Fruit growers are using lime sulphur wash with satisfactory results. The formula for making lime sulphur wash can be obtained from the North Carolina Agricultural department at Raleigh.

W. L. Kivett, living near High Point, has removed the scale from his orchard.

A sensation was sprung in Alleghany City, Pa., last week when prominent citizens were indicted by the grand jury for conspiracy to procure false registration, issuing false tax receipts and securing fraudulent voting. They were run down by the Civic Voting League, who employed a detective to secure evidence.