

FRANKLINVILLE GLEANINGS.

Photograph Gallery Opened—Real Estate Changes—Personals, Etc.

Rev C A Wood spent Sunday and Sunday night in the City and preached two of his best sermons. His subject Sunday morning was "Reading the Bible" and was a real treat to any one wishing to know more of the Good Book.

Arthur Bean, of this place, and Miss Hattie Bristow, of near Cedar Falls, were married at Esq. James' Sunday morning. The happy couple will make their future home in this place.

Clarence Parks spent Sunday at his home near Parks X Road.

We are glad to see I A Marley, who has been at the sick list for some time, able to be at his post again in the cotton mill of the Franklinville Mfg Co.

Jesse Mullinix and family, of Salisbury, spent a few days in town last week with relatives and friends.

Several of our people attended the show at Ramseur last week.

Ed Thomas has bought Ed Routh's residence on Flint Street, and will move his family to it in the near future.

Mrs Lizie Chandler and Louannie attended the protracted meeting at Giles Chapel Sunday.

Eli Yow, of Chatham County, has opened up a photograph studio at J M Ellison's old stand on R R Avenue.

Miss Annie Elson will leave in a few days for Raleigh to enter King's Business College.

Mrs Nannie Martin, of High Point, spent a few days in the City with relatives and friends last week.

F M Wright, Principal of Shiloh Academy, and family spent Saturday night and Sunday in the community with relatives and friends.

C E Stuart and Clarence Parks returned from the Jamestown Exposition last Saturday. Mr Parks is highly pleased with the Exposition, and especially with the elegant slave which he was lucky enough to get, and which included shaving, washing his face and combing his hair for only two dollars and twenty-five cents. Mr Parks will likely make a trip to the Exposition every week in order to get cleaned up.

Why Not Seagrove Items.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin McNeil, of Aberdeen, returned home Monday, after spending a week here with relative.

Mrs. James Poter and Stuart left Monday for Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Vancannon and L A King of Star spent Sunday in Why Not.

Misses Cooley Spencer and Myrtle Lawrence have entered school at Elon College.

J S Hancock and F J Lawrence have returned from Jamestown.

John Lucas, of Montgomery, spent Sunday at J B Slack's.

Miss Emma Ellis, of Chatham, is visiting her brother, T J Ellis, at Seagrove.

Henry Yow has enlarged his store house considerably to make room for new goods.

Mrs. Moore and children are spending some time here with her husband, who is Secretary and Treasurer for the Seagrove Chair Company.

Rev T M Johnson will preach here Thursday night.

Mrs. George H Bean seems to be improving.

Gray's Chapel Items.

Mrs. Low Walker, aged eighty-seven years, died after a short illness on the 21st of Aug. Internment was made at Cool Springs.

Messrs. Lineberry and Alford, who bought a new Champion gun, threshed over ten thousand bushels of wheat and oats this season. They were out thirty days.

Messrs. Joseph and George Lineberry are the champion crop raisers of this section. Joseph raised thirty bushels and George raised thirty-eight bushels.

Engene Booth moved to Asheboro last Monday. He has a position in a roller mill there.

Brown Items.

Corn is going in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Phillips were visitors in this community Saturday.

Liberty Items.

Capt. W. T. Smith arrived home from Goldsboro last Sunday. The Capt. has about completed his work for the A. C. L. Railroad, and he is not in the best of health and is at home for repairs.

Miss Louise Cauley, of Cauley Springs, is visiting her room and college mate, Miss Patsy Smith. Misses Cauley and Smith both graduated at Greensboro Female College last June.

Miss Olivia Josephine Pritchard, of Chapel Hill, arrived last week to take charge of the art class at the Liberty Normal College. We understand she starts off well and the prospects are all that could be expected for a very, very large class.

The negroes of Liberty and the surrounding country had a gathering here last Saturday and Sunday. The program was both rich and spicy and from the names of some of the visitors, the address must have been rich. Well to take the whole get-up of the program etc. I feel sure the same person that wrote up M. J. Reitzel's chicken house must have written both, for there was a good deal of sameness therein.

Dr. Hackney, of Knoxville, Tenn., spent a few days here last week on a visit to his mother and brother-in-law, J. H. Hornady and family. It will be remembered that Dr. Hackney spent a month here a year ago and made many, many good friends that is always glad to see him.

We made another large shipment of the following to Jamestown this week: Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lewis, Miss Etta Trogdon, Miss Mary Griffin, Miss O. Griffin, W. N. Haner, C. L. Harbour. It is reported that Messrs. Lewis and Harbour will go to Washington, Baltimore and New York.

Miss Nellie Cassey returned to Greensboro last Monday after spending a few days at home on her return trip from Jamestown.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wade Siler and little daughter Margaret of Siler City, were here last Saturday and Sunday on a visit to Mrs. Dr. A. J. Patterson's family.

Mrs. Maud Staley was taken to St. Leo's Hospital at Greensboro last Monday for an operation for appendicitis.

Dr. George Hanner, of Siler City, Dr. Thos. Smith, Hubbard and Jack Smith all took a flying trip to Jamestown this week and visited a number of northern ties, and some say they are going around the world and come in on the back side.

Sandy Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Sholly Brower, of South Carolina, are visiting relatives in this section at this writing.

Clyde Welsh and Miss Vera Williams were married at the house of bride's father, Mr. J. B. Williams, Sunday morning. Rev. Mr. White, of Greensboro, officiated.

Mrs. J. M. Williams visited her daughter at Winston-Salem last week.

Rev. Judge Eller has resigned his pastorate at the Baptist Church at Sandy Creek and Rev. Mr. White, of Greensboro, has taken charge.

Arthur and Miss Laura Jones visited around Whitsett last week.

John Cox is building a nice new house on his farm.

Beulah Lutterough has bought the farm at Wesley Ward.

Misses Myrtle and Lattie Settlemyer have gone to Lexington to enter school.

Miss Rosa Cross, of Whitsett, visited in this section recently.

Miss Flossie Swain closed her summer school at Melancthon last week.

Mrs. Williams K. McMasters is very ill at the home of her son-in-law, O. P. Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jones, of Gray's Chapel, visited at Alfred Jones' Sunday.

Ramseur Items.

E. C. Watkins returned from New York on Saturday last.

Miss Vally Scott, of Greensboro, visited her parents here Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Pearl and Flora Fox, of Asheboro, were visitors here for several days the past week, much to the delight of their many friends.

Frank Walton, of the Charlotte Supply Company, was a guest at the hotel at Ramseur Sunday.

James Shaw here on Thursday was well attended and enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Watkins and children, of Greensboro, came to Ramseur Monday in their handsome automobile. The machine attracted much attention while on the streets.

Messrs M and R B. Finson, J. O. Forrester, J. B. Dixon, G. O. Weatherly, and M. N. Whitehead returned from Jamestown Saturday. They report a fine exposition.

Rev. Dr. J. B. Richardson, of High Point, filled his pulpit in the Baptist Church Saturday and Sunday preaching able sermons as usual.

Back Creek Items.

Quite a number of young people attended the holiness meeting at Randleman Sunday.

Miss Rosa Cole.

We had a very sad death in our town on Sept. 7, when Miss Rosa Coletrane died at 6 P. M. after being sick for more than one month. Miss Rosa was about twenty years old and was the only daughter of the late Dr. Sidney and Flora Coletrane. Dr. Coletrane died about 15 years ago, leaving only two children, John W. and Rosa, both small. Their mother has made Liberty their home since that time. Miss Rosa was a most excellent young woman of many lovely traits, and was loved by every one who knew her. Her remains were laid to rest at Old Union Church, near Randleman, that being the family burying ground and her father's last resting place. Quite a number of relatives and friends accompanied the remains from Liberty. The pall bearers were W. H. Griffin, R. C. Reitzel, William Swain, R. A. Smith, Dr. Thomas H. Smith and L. Jack Smith. Mrs. Coletrane and her son have the sympathy of this town and the entire community.

A FAREWELL.

Dear Editor:—Will you be so kind as to allow me space in your paper in regard to the Sunday School at Flint Hill. I just want to say that Flint Hill has one of the best Sunday Schools in Randolph county. I was there some time ago, and I noticed when the bell rang the cheerful young faces and also old ones gathered at the church and they all joined in the singing. The Superintendent, Mr. S. L. Farlow, read a portion of Scripture, which was heard by all the children, as their attention was given him. Then the good Superintendent had in prayer, the classes took their places and the teachers proceeded to teach, while the Secretary, Miss Henrietta Dickens, took her place and after read a most interesting report. Then Mr. Farlow conducted a review of the lesson. May the good Lord bless the Sabbath School at Flint Hill and all over the County, and may it cause young men and young women to take up their cross and follow Jesus.

Flourishing Sunday School.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Vancannon and L. A. King visited relatives at Why Not Sunday. Sam L. Gunn and John Leach left Monday to visit the Jamestown Exposition. G. H. Biggs, of Lake View, spent Sunday and Monday here with his family. Miss Lydia Leach left last week for Clarksville, Va., where she entered school. Harry Hanna, of Siler City, spent last week at F. M. Shamburgen's. G. N. Starbuck is attending court at Tryon this week. Mrs. Neta Stuart, of Elias, is visiting at Capt. H. M. Shields'. Mr. and Mrs. George Stuart, Mrs. John Jenkins and Miss Melba, of Seagrove, are spending some time at Jackson Springs.

Star Items.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harrison, of Thomasville, are visiting at Mr. Lee Crawford's. James Green, one of Lexington's popular young men, is visiting relatives in the community. Whitson Morris, of Washington, D. C., is visiting relatives and friends at this place. We are always glad to have him with us. Ivy Crawford entered school at Farmer last Monday. Mrs. T. W. Ingram is on the sick list. Miss Troy Nance, who has been visiting relatives and friends at Asheboro, returned to me last week. Honor Stern and Miss Flossie Stout were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock last Sunday morning. They will start for Jamestown on Tuesday. We extend our congratulations.

Houbay Items.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harrison, of Thomasville, are visiting at Mr. Lee Crawford's.

James Green, one of Lexington's popular young men, is visiting relatives in the community.

Whitson Morris, of Washington, D. C., is visiting relatives and friends at this place.

Ivy Crawford entered school at Farmer last Monday.

Mrs. T. W. Ingram is on the sick list.

Miss Troy Nance, who has been visiting relatives and friends at Asheboro, returned to me last week.

Honor Stern and Miss Flossie Stout were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock last Sunday morning.

Farmer Items.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Lewis have just returned from an extended trip to Jamestown, Greensboro and other cities.

Miss Louisa Dore, of Thomasville, has been visiting Ivy Dore at the post week.

Several of our people attended the old fashioned camp meeting at Chapel Hill last Sunday.

Hubbard Davis, of Lexington, who has been visiting his grand mother, returned home last Monday.

These will be two more ball games here the rest of the week. Several new boarders entered school last Monday.

Riley's Store News.

Messrs. B. I. Sheppard and N. R. Morris went to Asheboro on business the past week.

Mr. Adelaide Sheets, of Thomasville, Ala., is visiting relatives in this community.

Miss Maud Cornelison, who is sick, does not improve.

Miss Merta Scott, of Winston-Salem, spent several days with relatives in our section recently.

Messrs. Hoke Labin and R. O. Johnson, of Martha, are spending a few days at Jamestown.

W. A. Russell's horse was bitten by a snake the past week, but is getting along all right.

A Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Glasgow want to thank the good people of Asheboro for their kindness shown them during the extended illness of their daughter, Leah.

The way to get rid of a cold, whether it be a "head" or just a little cough, is to get it out of your system through the bowels.

Advertisement for Burton Holmes Travelogues. Includes a portrait of Mr. Holmes and text: 'A TOUR OF THE WORLD for a Few Cents a Day. If you cannot spare the time or money to travel in foreign lands; If you have not visited any or all of the foreign countries and cities you would like to visit; If you appreciate that to be well informed you must have a knowledge of foreign countries and cities as they are to-day; If you realize that nothing is half so interesting, fascinating and instructive as travel in distant lands— Write us to-day We Will Bring Travel to You in the Burton Holmes Travelogues. NOTHING approaching this work was ever attempted before. In a series of splendid journeys Mr. Holmes unfolds before your eyes the beauties of travel in Foreign Lands, with such narrative skill, with so many strange experiences, incidents and humorous episodes and so admirably illustrated by over 4,000 photographs taken on the spot by Mr. Holmes himself, as to carry you in spirit over 22,000 miles of travel, through thirty of the most interesting countries and cities of the world. YOU know, of course, who E. BURTON HOLMES is. The phenomenal success of his lectures has gained for him a world-wide reputation. His lectures in book form are not condensed, but on the contrary give a more complete description and are more profusely illustrated than would be possible in the lectures from the platform. YOU would like to take these fascinating journeys. You can do so in the TRAVELOGUES. The coupon entitles you to a beautifully illustrated, descriptive booklet and full information without expense to you if you write to-day. Don't delay, sign and send to us the coupon. McClure's Tourists' Agency, 44 E. 23d St., NEW YORK CITY. Name..... Address.....'

TAX NOTICE!

I will attend at the following times and places for the collection of taxes for the year 1907:

Table with 4 columns: Location, Day, Time, Date. Includes entries for Asheboro, C. House, Farmer, N. R. Skeen's, Trinity, New Market, County Home, Cedar Falls, Franklinville, Ramseur, Liberty, Widow Chamness, Level Cross, Naomi Store Co., Randleman B. House, C. C. Shaw's, Laban Slack's, Yow's Mill, Tysor's Store, Henry Jones, Coleridge, Bethel Church, Widow Kinney's, Worthville, Central Falls, and various townships.

The taxes are now due, and all tax-payers are requested to meet me at the above named times and places and pay their taxes. S. L. HAYWORTH, Sheriff. This Sept. 16, 1907.

Advertisement for 'Cancer Cured by Blood Balm'. Text: 'Cancer Cured by Blood Balm—All Skin and Blood Diseases Also Cured. Mrs. M. L. Adams, Preston, Ark., took Botanic Blood Balm, which effectively cured an excruciating cancer of the nose and face. The sores healed up perfectly. Many doctors had given up for case as hopeless. Hundreds of cases of cancer, including scirrhus, suppurating swellings, etc., have been cured by Blood Balm. Among others, Mrs. E. M. Gourney, Warrior, Stant. Ala. Her nose and lip were raw as lead, with offensive discharge from the cutting sore. Doctors advised cutting, but it failed. Blood Balm healed the sores, and Mrs. Gourney is as well as ever. Botanic Blood Balm also cures eczema, itching humors, scabs and sores, bone pain, ulcers, open, itchy, pimples, blood poison, carbuncles, scalds, rashes and itches on the skin and all blood troubles. Improves the digestion, strengthens weak kidneys. Drowsiness, 25 to 50 per bottle, with complete directions for home use. Sample free and prepaid by writing Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga. Describe trouble and special medical advice sent in sealed letter.'