Do You Love This Old Town?

If you do, of course you want to see the town grow. You want to see the storekeepers prosper, and the banks bulge with deposits, and the townspeople wearing glad clothes, and the farmers falling over each other to come in and buy new hay rakes and patent plows. Of course you do. Because, likewise of course, when things are that way you get your share of the

But what are you doing to contribute to the general prosperity? Are you patronizing home industries in preference to outside industries? Do you buy your clothes and groceries and garden tools and so forth here at home?

Well, you admit, you do send away for a good many things you happen to see advertised. Aha! And are they advertised in this paper? No, indeed-in the mail order journals and catalogues. Quite true. And you would just as soon buy them here if they were advertised by the local merchants, wouldn't you? Why, yes.

Well, now, there's a neat hint to some of our local storekeepers and dealers who perhaps haven't discovered why they are losing a lot of home trade which they ought to

COUNTY SUES EX TREASURER.

Claims Capt. Biggins Owes Forsyth

In Forsyth Superior Court Friday the famous suit of the county com-missioners against ex County Treasurer H. L. Riggins was begun. Tre action is for the recovery of 555.54. alleged to be due the county. Cop tain Riggins contended that he is not due the county anything. The commissioners had been allowing Captain Riggius 2 per cent on dis-bursements until the last year; 1900, when they, on the day of set tlement for the year, announced that they had cut him down to one and a half per cent. He claims that the action was arbitrary, un-just, as he should have been notified sooner of the intention of the board.
